seasons. Death has removed most of the original party, others had established summer quarters elsewhere. Indeed, Mr. Harris said he was the last of the Mohicans.

"The Islanders have a wonderful country for summer vacations and resting up," remarked the playwright enthusiastically, "but I am afraid they are allowing too much liberty in dissipating its charms. For instance, I am told they are allowing fox ranchers to net the lovely big trout in which the island used to abound to be used as fox food. This is surely penny-wisdom and pound foolishness, for the trouting values of this eastern country—along with other sporting resources—are veritably a gold mine. I should say the three Maritime Provinces have years of great prosperity ahead of them as vacationing grounds for the millions of the big cities if they take proper measures against squandering the game life of the country."

Speaking of his profession, Mr. Harris said he had quit the picture game as a writer and had resumed concentrated effort on producing for the legitimate stage. His present success, "Young Sinners," is in its sixth month at the Morosco Theatre, New York. Not because of aversion to screen writing, but he feels the legitimate stage establishes the value of a story more securely—a value from which it would be dangerous to deviate.

In the days of the silent picture the name Elmer K. Harris was a familiar one to fans as the titles rolled past on the curtain. He wrote scores of the big successes in celluloid, some of them being reproductions of his stage plays. It was interesting to hear the New Yorker predict the future of entertainment. He claimed that within five years television would be a theatrical commodity as well as for private homes.

Mr. Harris is at present in Charlottetown.

IMPORTANT CUT

One of the important announcements of the Minister was that tea in packages of five pounds or more will henceforth enter Canada free under the British preferential tariff. Free entry under the British preference tariff is also provided for tableware of china, porcelain, etc.

Members of the Conservative opposition broke into somewhat derisive cheers when the Minister announced that all fresh vegetables of a domestic character have been made free of duty under the British preference. This applause, however, gave place in a moment to loud Liberal cheers when Mr. Dunning added that " in taking this action we have in mind the growing ability of Bermuda and the West Indies to supply the Canadian market during the off-season All fresh fruits the Minister said, are to be granted free entry under the British preference. As in the case of the vegetables the Government has kept in mind the possibilities of extending trade with Bermuda and the West Indies.

CRIES OF "RESIGN"

There were cries of "resign" when Mr. Dunning informed the House that duties on butter were to be increased to four cents a pound under the British preference, six cents under the intermediate and seven cents under the general tariff. For some time the Conservatives had been agitating for increased butter duties.

Conservative applause also greeted the Minister's declaration that the Government of Canada has proposed to the Government of New Zealand that a direct Trade Agreement be negotiated to supercede the present arrangement.

EXCELLENT SEA DRAMA AT THE CAPITOL

A Jack London story, with handsome Richardo Cortez and beautiful Carmel Myers as the hero and heroine and such sterling assistance as can be depended upon from George Fawcett, Gino Corrado, Frank Lackteen, Frank Leigh and Shirley Palmer, is sufficient guaranty that "Prowlers of the Sea," the feature at the Capitol Theatre, is real motion picture entertainment.

This is the fourth of the Jack London stories which Tiffany Stahl has transferred to the screen this season, and has all the verve and color and thrills which London's name implies in entertainment. The setting is the Cuban insurrection in 1896, and the story concerns the smuggling of arms past the Spanish guard.

Cortez plays the incorruptible young Spanish captain. The smugglers, desperately casting about to save the project from financial failure, urge the beautiful sister of the skipper to keep the Captain's attention distracted on the evening in question, so that he will forget to make his tour of inspection of the guard. Demi-johns and village girls can be depended on to distract the guard, and sure enough, the guns get to shore, but there one faithful guard makes the discovery and there is a land and sea skirmish, with the gun runners getting their just desserts.

Hon. C. A. Dunning, delivered in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon. The chief import from the American Republic on which the duty has been altered is iron and steel. Alteration of these tariff schedules will probably affect some $250,000,000 in the United States imports. Fruit and vegetables to an amount close to $27,000,000, malt importations in the sum of $4,000,000 and eggs of various kinds, approximating $500,000 brought in from that country, are other items involved in the revision of duties announced.

Changes in the British preference, it is estimated, will affect in the neighborhood of $200,0000,000 in value of imports from Great Britain. The main item is iron and steel. The present importation by the Dominion from Great Britain of these commodities now amounting yearly to $19,000,000 only.

P.R.A. Meeting Held Last Night

Provision Made For Inter-Maritime Shoot to Be Held June 11th. Col. H. M. Davison Re-elected President.

The annual meeting of the Provincial Rifle Association was held last evening in the Board of Trade Rooms with the president, Lieut.-Col. H. M. Davison, V. D. R. L., in the chair. After reading the minutes of the last annual meeting Lieut.-Col. C. Leigh, R. O., V. D., presented the financial report showing a balance of $44.32.

The president stated that he had received a communication from Lieut. Governor Heartz expressing his regret at not being able to be present. Mention was later made of the generous contribution made by His Honour to the prizes of the P. R. A. and a vote of thanks extended to him.

COL. MacKINNON'S REPORT

The following report was presented by the chairman of Council, Lt.-Col. D. A. MacKinnon, D. S. O., V. D.

To the members of the Prince Edward Island Provincial Rifle Association: Gentlemen:—

It is a pleasure to greet you at this the annual meeting of the Prince Edward Island Rifle Association and it is but fitting that we should review the past year briefly.

Our annual prize meeting which was held early in August, did not quite measure up to expectations in regard to attendance, but it registered one achievement in that the meeting was completed in two days, this being much more satisfactory to the great bulk of the members. The total attendance of shooting members was 72. The cadet meeting was held later on in the season and was very successful, 52 cadets taking part, the largest number that has ever shot. Probably this was because of the shoot being arranged when the schools were open.

Due to the energy and enthusiasm of some of the members a shoot was arranged during the fall, which was highly successful.

We have to chronicle the fact that J. J. Louson of Montreal, a brother of the late lamented W. S. Louson, presented the association with two medals in recognition of the interest his late brother took in our Association. We are also grateful to the W. C. McDonald Co., Inc., tobacco manufacturers of Montreal, for furnishing the necessary funds to finance the British Consols team match, which is quite an interesting feature of our annual shoot.

During the winter miniature rifle shooting matches were arranged at the Charlottetown Armouries, with excellent competition, over twenty members competing during some of the evenings. A lot of young shots were developed by this method and they will doubtless take their places on the outdoor range this season. We have to congratulate and praise those who were responsible for inaugurating the indoor shooting, because they have been the means of instilling new enthusiasm into the sport. It is to be hoped that these same individuals and others will take an equally keen interest in outdoor shooting this year and that a series of matches can be arranged for Wednesday or Saturday afternoons, which ever is most convenient, that will bring together various classes of rifle shots so that a greater number of contestants can be developed for our annual matches and also a number of high class shots for competition at Ottawa and in the Inter-Maritime.

The Inter-Maritime match which is shot annually and in which we have had more than our share of success during the last ten competitions, will be fired this year at Charlottetown, and with the material we have here and the opportunities for practice, we should develop a strong team.

We must congratulate Gunner P. J. Landrigan on winning the Governor General's medal and the Ottawa aggregate with such an excellent average; and also congratulate J. B. Poole of Montague, on being second in both events.

The Ottawa team did not shoot quite as brilliantly as usual in that we were not successful in placing a man on the Bisley team, but they did very well and our representation was fairly good, thirteen in number.

We almost neglected to mention that a match was shot in Summerside during the fall which was highly enjoyed, the Summerside riflemen doing everything in their power to make it a success.

In connection with our summer program we believe it would be well to give plenty of publicity to the various shoots and create an external interest in addition to our own interest.

This report and these suggestions are very respectfully submitted by

Lt.-Colonel.
Chairman of Council.

INTER-MARITIME SHOOT

Dr. J. C. McDonald then presented his report of the Inter-Maritime Shoot.

In 1927 and 1928, he stated, the P. E. I. team won with record scores. Last year the team was defeated, taking third place. Dr. McDonald reported the progress of the match as the rounds were fired from the different distances. The results of each were very close, as also were the finals. The winners were congratulated on having the best team. The range conceals certain peculiarities not known to the Island riflemen and most of the shots were lost to low left shots. He felt that the team was capable of putting on a couple more points from each man.

The secretary then read a brief report from Major W. H. Poole of Montague, relative to the D. C. R. A. Shoot at Ottawa. Major Poole stated that the men were hampered in part by their rifles.

Regarding communications Col. Leigh stated that he had received a letter from Mr. L. R. Allan stating that the Summerside Club would like to be represented on the Inter-Maritime team. Regarding the rifle range Col. Leigh stated that he had put in application to have the caretaker go to work one month earlier. The men went to work on May 1. He also referred to the good work of the Miniature Rifle Association.

A committee was appointed to select the team for the Inter-Maritime Shoot, which is to take place on June 11, and to provide for entertainment on that occasion. The committee appointed was composed of Col. Leigh, Lieut.-Col. D. A. MacKinnon, D. S. O., V. D., Lieut. F. G. Kennedy, Mr. G. M. Moore, Major J. C. McDonald. It was moved that a sufficient sum of money be granted to meet the requirements of the committee.

A vote of thanks was tendered Col. MacKinnon for his donation of $20 as a prize for practice matches for the Inter-Maritime shoot. A similar vote was also extended him for taking the responsibility of the continuance of the MacKinnon Drug Co. Prize, which will henceforth be called the D. A. MacKinnon Prize.

It was suggested that matches be held on May 10, 17, and 24, and that elimination matches be held on May 28, and 31 and during the first week in June.

With reference to the suggestion that had been made that the 200 yard distances be not all shot on the first morning, Col. Leigh thought that the idea would be impracticable.

A committee composed of Messrs. McCabe, A. Gormley, Roy Coles, J. S. Moore and Capt. W. A. Smith was appointed to work in conjunction with Col. Leigh in the local work of the P. R. A., particularly in the practice matches.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Hon. President—Lieut. Governor Heartz.

President, Lieut.-Col. H. M. Davison, V. D., R. L.

Vice Presidents—Lieut.-Col. D. A. MacKinnon, D. S. O., Major W. H. Poole, Dr. A. W. Leard.

Council—Lieut. F. G. Kennedy, Major J. C. McDonald, Mr. G. M. Moore, Capt. A. W. Allan, M. C., Lieut.-Col. C. Leigh, V. D., Major A. S. Robertson, Major F. I. Arsenault, M. M., Mr. Percy Hooper, Capt. W. A. Smith, Lieut. J. S. Moore.

The D. C. R. A. members of Council for Prince Edward Island were announced—Lieut.-Col. L. H. Beer, V. D., Lieut. Col. A. T. Thompson, Lieut.-Col. Hains, M. B. E. R. N., Capt. A. S. Boa, M. C., Lieut.-Col. W. K. Walker, D. S. O., M. C., Hon. J. E. Sinclair.

The possibility of building a 22 range and holding a shoot in conjunction with the Inter-Maritime meet was mentioned.

A vote of thanks was extended to Col. Leigh for his valuable work.

case in the excitement and hurry of departure they dropped outside the ranch one pup which was found next day in the nearby wood. The result of these robberies is that the ranchers are getting stirred up and talk of dire vengeance being meted out is heard. Some say that the epidemic is due to the fact that severe sentences have not been given to those caught in the past, and there is open talk of reviving the old time methods used on the cattle thieves of the west. Detective Williams of the Thiel Detective Agency, Chicago and Montreal, has been sent down here to investigate the Union Road robbery. He has a splendid reputation for past work both in Canada and United States, and he will leave no stone unturned to bring the guilty parties to justice. Anybody that can throw any light on the perpetrators of these crimes should render every assistance possible, as their activities must be checked, otherwise a condition of lawlessness will prevail which would bring lasting injury to the morals of this province. There is perhaps no more despicable creature in thievery than the fox thief. The thief who breaks in and steals money and valuables causes only the loss of the amount which he takes away with him. The fox thief, on the other hand, entering the ranch during the night or early morning disturbs the many inmates and very often occasions serious losses due to frantic females killing their young.

INVESTIGATING

ed States as the fur farmer on the other side of the line is the better salesman, Mr. Wickstrom said "We have heard so much, however, about the superior quality of the Canadian mink that I am here to investigate," said Mr. Wickstrom. "It is quality we want first; price is secondary. While in Summerside I was present at a meeting of the directors of the Canadian Fox Breeders Association, and they were kind enough to allow me to speak to them. I pointed out that, while every fox has a registration, to distinguish a good fox from a poor one foreign buyers wish an advanced registration as a proof of real good quality. Buyers from foreign countries have paid too high prices for poor breeding stock, and that naturally has a bad influence on the industry in that country."

During the war Mr. Wickstrom was French and Belgian Consul at Malmo, Sweden, and as Malmo is the nearest port to Germany, many French prisoners, escaping, passed through Malmo on their way to France. Mr. Wickstrom received for his services several fine decorations from the French Government.

Mr. Wickstrom's trip to America took him through United States and through various parts of Canada as far west as Winnipeg. He leaves the province this morning for Halifax whence he will return to his native country. While in Charlottetown he registered at the Queen Hotel.

WOMAN RACKET GREAT TALKIE

Tom Moore and Blanche Sweet, long absent from the screen, stage a brilliant come-back in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's new all-talking picture, "The Woman Racket," now showing at the Prince Edward Theatre.

The picture, an adaptation of a story by Philip Dunning and Frances Dunning, is a realistic and well-acted narrative of New York gangster and night club life. Exciting sequences follow one after the other from the police raid with which the film opens to the murder which occurs shortly before the conclusion.

The locale of the picture includes Broadway, Chinatown and the Bowery and contains a number of realistic scenes showing speakeasy episodes, "come-on" games and gangster fights. Moore is his usual good-natured self in the role of a policeman and Miss Sweet gives a strikingly convincing portrayal as the night club hostess who becomes involved in the murder of a millionaire gambler.

Further interest is given the production in its colorful revue scenes. A clever imitation of Mayor "Jimmy" Walker of New York is done by Wil-Tenen Holtz, Richard Travers, Nita Martan and a number of others.

bur Mack, well-known vaudeville star.

Supporting Moore and Miss Sweet is a capable cast which includes Sally Starr, fresh from "So This Is College" and "Not So Dumb"; John Miljan, of "Devil-May-Care"; Robert Agnew.

In a special train taxicab drivers of London recently accompanied their football team to Edinburgh Scotland, when it played Edinburgh.

Household refrigerators are being introduced into Brazil.
