TO FINISH HALL.—Work on the interior of the public hall in Victoria was commenced on Monday under the supervision of Mr. Charles Rogers.—V

CHOIR PRACTICE.—St. Peter's Choir will meet for practice this evening at 7.30. A good attendance is requested.

CHURCH OF SCOTLAND.—Church of Scotland, Rev. Ewen MacDougall will preach Sabbath 21st at Kinnross at 10.30. Millview at 2.30 and Birch Hill at 6.00 p. m.

BASKET BALL.—An interesting game of basket ball was played in the Union hall at Cambridge, Lot 63, on Friday evening, when the team representing the club that placed met and defeated a team from the young men's club of the neighboring community of Murray Harbor North. As this was the first game between these two clubs since their organization, the space given to spectators was crowded by the friends of both teams. The game, which was refereed by Rev. Mr. Sutherland, was well played and much enjoyed by those present.

PERSONAL MENTION.—Mr. Peter Malone, South Melville, was in Victoria Monday on business. Mr. John P. Bradley, merchant, of Victoria, made a business visit to Victoria on Monday. Mr. Robert Wilson, Hampton, was a visitor to Victoria on Monday. Mr. Neuton Dawson, North Tryon, made a business trip to Victoria on Monday of this week. Messrs. R. K. and M. L. Bowen, of Victoria, drove to Charlottetown Monday. While there they will attend the Horse Show. Mr. John Myers, Hampton, was a visitor to Victoria on Monday.—V.

A VENTURESOME WALK.—The Pictou Advocate reports that Mr. Donald, mail carrier of Pictou Island, accompanied by three other Pictou Islanders, walked across the strait on Thursday to Cariboo, a distance of seven miles or more. They had a small dory with them in case they might need it, but it was not used all the way across. They were back by the S. S. Minto. Miss McLean, on the way to her home on Pictou Island from the States, was going to walk across with the men if the winter boat had not got in.

PLEASANT AFFAIR.—A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Howard, Winsloe, on Monday the 8th, when the ladies of the W. F. M. S. with other members of their families and friends met for their annual mid-winter opening and for a social time. The coffee and the boxes had been emptied and counted, the company repaired to the parlor and listened to an interesting programme of music and recitation. Afterwards games of various kinds were entered into with zest; both young and old enjoying themselves to the full. Supper was served according to Mrs. Howard's bounteous hospitality, and all present contributed to a generous collection for the missionary cause. In all $23 was realized for the Society. With a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Howard and singing "God Save the King" the company dispersed.

Grade I.—1, Charles McNevin; 2, Mary McLean; 3, Mary McPhee. Those who have perfect attendance. Sarah McKinnon, Sarah McEachern, John McFadyen, Duncan McEachern.

ONLY FOR THE ICE.—The Pictou Advocate says: Pursuer McDonald, of the S. S. Northumberland, Mr. Roy Holman, of Charlottetown, and Mr. Malley, of Halifax, all of whom were caught here by the holding up of the island boats, passed some of their time with New Caledonian curriers and enjoyed themselves so much that they almost loath to see the boats arrive. At the reception to the victorious Johnson cup curriers on Tuesday night Mr. Holman extended a strong invitation to the Pictou curriers to visit their Charlottetown brethren. This is a trip that has been hanging over for two winters, but it will surely come off next season.

HORSE RACES.—An unintentional mistake has been made in the report of the horse races held on Saturday last on the Victoria race track. It appeared in the issue of the 11th inst. in the fourth heat "Kid" owned by Mr. W. E. Calbeck, Crapaud came in second place. The report giving "Kid" third place only in this heat. "Kid" has shown great speed qualities in the series of races held this winter. It was here that his endeavor never having previously been entered in any race, and although being in competition with two horses with extended park records of several years, shows that she has true mettle and "Kid" will need to be matched in the future by the knobby oldsters of other fast horses in the vicinity.

INSTITUTION WORK.—The regular meeting of the Cornwall and York Point Institute met on Monday afternoon, March 1st at the home of Mrs. H. W. Mallett, Cornwall. There was a large attendance of members and visitors. The President, Mrs. Donald Murchison was in the chair. After the usual business proceedings were over a very instructive and interesting paper on Sex Hygiene, was read by Mrs. Lowther, Cornwall. A discussion followed, and several important questions were cleverly answered by some of the ladies present. Then a tempting luncheon was served by the Cornwall ladies. Before the close of the meeting a vote of thanks was tendered to Mrs. Mallett for her kindness to them. The meeting closed at 10.15. Home on Monday evening 15th at the home of Mrs. Fred White's, North River to which the brothers and husbands of the members are invited. Three of the members of this institute, Mrs. Lowther, Miss Charlotte Howard, and Mrs. Murray Stewart, are very successful exhibitors at the Charlottetown Seed Fair carrying several first prizes and many others.

BELLEVEUE.—Miss Margaret MacPherson, Bellevue, paid a short visit to Lewis recently, the guest of Miss Murray Stewart. Mr. Langhlin, McPhee paid a flying visit to Brooklyn, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. McPherson. The many friends of Mrs. Malcolm MacPherson regret to learn that she is suffering from a bad attack of blood poison in her hand. Her many friends wish her speedy recovery. Mr. John A. MacPherson is busily engaged in threshing for the people of Bellevue and vicinity with his up-to-date gasoline outfit. Mr. D. H. McPherson paid a short visit to Belle River, the guest of her sister, Mrs. M. Beaton. The many friends of Mrs. Angus T. McPherson are sorry to learn that she is confined to the house with a bad attack of la grippe. Mr. Frank McDonald, Caledonia, paid a visit to Bellevue, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm D. McPherson. Mrs. Donald McIntosh paid a flying visit to Murray River recently the guest of her aunt, Mrs. C. A. Dufney. The Misses Minnie McPherson and Eueua McPhee spent the week end visiting friends in Caledonia. Mr. Dan McPherson, Klondyke, paid a visit to Montague, recently. Mr. Angus L. MacPherson is busily engaged in building a new cave to his dwelling house. Mr. Alex McPherson intends leaving for the States shortly. His many friends wish him every success. The mail carrier, Mr. M. D. McPherson, is performing his duties to the satisfaction of all. He is the right man in the right place.

L. O. L. BANQUET.—A very enjoyable evening was spent on the evening of Friday, March 12th, when the members of Lady Patricia, L. O. B. A., No. 154, and the members of Derry, L. O. L., No. 1169, together with their wives and sisters met in their hall at Long Creek, it being the occasion of a joint banquet of the above lodges. At the appointed hour Mr. Neill D. McFadyen was called to the chair, and an excellent programme of solos, readings, etc. was rendered, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all present, as can be judged by the many hearty encores given the performers. Part I. of the programme being dispensed with, all were invited to the dining hall where the tables were heavily laden with the good things provided by the ladies of Lady Patricia Lodge, and needless to say all did ample justice to the good things provided. After all had partaken of the sumptuous repast, and the wants of the inner man had been fully satisfied, the meeting was again called to order. The following is the full programme rendered on the occasion: Opening remarks by the Chairman; Chorus, by the Choir; Reading, Marion

Miss Maggie McPhee, Long Creek, ably performed the duties of organist for the occasion.

GIVE PART OF CROPS TO HELP THE EMPIRE.

MOOSE JAW, Sask., March 11.—During the month which has elapsed since the Saskatchewan Grain Growers' Convention, five hundred farmers have agreed to give one acre of crop to the Empire, in answer to the call made at the Convention. It is confidently expected that at least eighty-five per cent of the farmers of the Province will contribute to the scheme, and that together, with the unorganized farmers who have fallen in with the idea, at least twenty-five thousand acres will be set apart for this patriotic move.
