FINE STATIONERY

We are showing this week in our show window, a splendid line of new stationery including two new lines which are bound to give universal satisfaction.
"THE DUCHESSE" is a twill finish paper which is very smart but in no way bizarre or contrary to good taste.
"THE VICE REGAL" is as pretty a sheet as one could wish for. It is for people who like the very best of fine stationery.
V. CE REGAL and BOUQUIN come in the three most popular shapes:
Rondel, small 2's for notes, Salon, the long narrow shape, Ducal, the ordinary oblong shape.

CHARLOTTETOWN AND ELSEWHERE

It pays to buy in this Province.
Miss M. McDonald, Hopfield, leaves this morning on a visit to Boston.
James W. Richards, M. P., leaves Charlottetown this morning for Ottawa.
The Misses Bessie and Sarah Mc-Donald, Charlottetown, returned recently from a visit to Boston.
Miss Jennie Hood, Charlottetown, who has been visiting Harry and Mrs. Biden, Amherst, returns home tonight.
The Tug Amherst, Capt. Batt, Charlottetown, returned to this city last evening from towing a large produce schooner.
The Tug William Aitken, owned by Capt. Batt, Charlottetown, returned last evening from Pictou where she had been at work.
A crate of black foxes was among the shipments by the P. E. I. R. yesterday. They were being sent to Howard's ranch at Milton.
Patrons of the Peoples' Theatre are requested to be in their seats early this evening, as there will be two distinct shows, each evening. Doors will open at 7 o'clock sharp, to-night and Monday.
A young lad named McCaie who is being employed at the Arma Revolving Alleys, Charlottetown, while attempting to adjust the ventilator lost his balance and fell from the ventilator to the gallery below, dislocating his shoulder in the fall. He narrowly escaped toppling over the barrier down to the enclosure below.
In giving the comparison between the votes polled for the successful candidate in Thursday's election in Ward Four and in the same ward for the previous election in yesterday's issue the figures were transposed.
They should have read "this election 476; last election 548."
Thomas Hughes, Charlottetown, has been confined to jail to serve six months for third infraction of the Prohibition Act. Frederick McKinnon has also been incarcerated to serve three months for first offence against the Act. There are now three offenders doing time in the new jail for violations of the Prohibition Act, surely the way of the transgressor is hard.
The Commission of Presbytery appointed to visit the congregation of Cardigan, will meet in St. Andrew's Church, Cardigan, on Tuesday, Nov.
19th inst. at half ten o'clock a. m.
All the members and adherents of the congregation are requested to be present. An offering will be taken for the Presbytery Fund. A. J. MacNeill, Convener.
The Patriot Publishing Co have secured a lease of the first floor of the Newson Block on Richmond St.
Charlottetown, and also the brick building at the rear. This building will be used entirely for the plant and is being remodelled to suit. The company are now moving their fine new Duplex Printing Press into this building. The staff will remain in their old quarters for some months yet.
