twelve children home for Easter. Three came from college in the city, three are teaching school, one a butter maker at Souris, four at home attending school, and one a veteran sat around the table once again as they had done in their younger days.

With the opening of the trout season on Saturday brings back memories of other days when two of the best fishermen ever to fish the streams were here, the late Cephus Davy, and the late John Fiek, two old railwaymen were known as the best fishermen in this vicinity for trout.

Friends here and in St. Teresa's will be sorry to hear that Mrs. Ephram Malone has entered the Charlottetown Hospital to undergo an operation and all wish her success. This will be the third member of her family to go to hospital one after the other.

It is learned with regret that Mrs. Joe Donovan has entered the Charlottetown Hospital where she has undergone a serious operation. It will be remembered that Mrs. Donovan had only come home from the hospital a few weeks ago and all hope that after this operation she will have her good health again.

PREVENT OR CURE

Many industrial employees, through lack of knowledge or carelessness, fail to take advantage of the safeguards provided by their employers. In occupations where safety goggles, clothing or respirators are necessary, it is the employer's responsibility to see that the safety equipment, provided by the management is correctly used. It is often easier to prevent occupational diseases than to cure them.

Hockey Team Holds Banquet

"On Thursday evening the "Peewee" boys and the "Imps" girls' school hockey teams held their banquet at the Blue Dome Restaurant with the coach, Mr. Mac Clair presiding. The banquet room was prettily decorated in blue and white, the school colors, for the festive occasion.

Following a delicious dinner served by Miss Selma Llewellyn, the proprietress, Mr. Clair arose to thank Miss Llewellyn for her splendid generosity in placing the restaurant at their disposal, and also for the delicious banquet.

Miss Llewellyn responded in fitting words, and generously offered her support to the welfare of the children at any time. Mr. Clair went on to thank the boys and girls for their splendid support throughout the year, and expected that next year would bring even bigger results than this one.

He congratulated the boys on their fine work in raising money in their various lotteries, the money from which had done much in promoting the many games which they had played throughout the year. Mr. J. Noonan, Principal of the school, congratulated the boys and girls on their fine work throughout the year. He went on further to say that the young boys were the future senior hockey players, and urged them to learn well the lessons which the coach taught them, and thereby prepare themselves to take their place on the senior hockey team when that time arrived. He stressed the necessity of skating ability, team work, and obedience to coaching orders, the means whereby a team always comes out on the top.

After the speeches Mr. G. Clements took the pictures of the girls hockey team, and the boys hockey team. The tables were then cleared, and the youngsters proceeded to enjoy a dance which completed the evening's entertainment.
