Dedicate Memorial To former Islander

The following will be of interest to many in the City and throughout the Province in general. The Mr. Howatt to whom the memorial was dedicated was born in this Province and studied law with the firm of McLean & McKinnon in this City before migrating to Western Canada.

WETASKIWIN — At a recent morning service of First United Church, the Howatt memorial was dedicated by the minister, Rev. R. D. Binning. This memorial gift of a brass cross with pair of matching vases, all handwrought, for the communion table, was donated by friends in memory of the late Bruce Dawson Howatt.

Besides being a highly-esteemed citizen, the late Mr. Howatt was an active member of long standing on the committee of stewards of this church. Also that morning was the primary promotion service of about 75 children.

Mrs. A. Roszart, superintendent of the primary, assisted. Perfect order, near perfect attendance and prizes were presented to 12 students.

Four infant baptisms also were performed.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. GEORGE COUSINS'

The death of Mrs. George Cousins, nee Laurina Woodside, came with startling suddenness, at her home at Kensington on Sunday, June 19th, 1949. For a number of years her health had been a matter of concern, limiting her activities to a certain extent. However, she had been about as usual and the shock was so much the greater when she was found in her room in an unconscious condition. Medical aid was immediately summoned and members of her family were called to her side, but she passed away without regaining consciousness.

She was born at Clinton, 76 years ago, and was a resident of Long River, before moving with her husband and family to Kensington nearly twenty years ago. She was of a bright and sociable disposition, and will be sadly missed by a host of friends, as well as by her family, to whom she was a kind and affectionate mother. Her husband passed away several years ago.

Left to mourn the loss of a mother, to whom they were devoted, are three sons and one daughter: Eric D. at Moncton, William M., Kensington, Anna, Mrs. Ivan Darrach, R.N., Kensington and James K. Charlottetown. Another son, Roland, died at the age of three years. Also surviving are four grandchildren, Myrna and Judith Cousins, Kensington and Gall and Jimmie Cousins, Charlottetown; two sisters, Selina, Mrs. Harold Stewart and Ethel, Mrs. Harold Stewart and Ethel, Mrs.

Donald came into prominence a few years ago as a Calf Club member and for his ability as a judge of dairy cattle. At Sherbrooke Exhibition he was high mfn in the Judging Competition in 1946. In the same year he was high in the dairy judging team at Toronto and won the Family Herald and Weekly Star Trophy at Ormstown Exhibition both in 1946 and 1947. In 1948 he attended Macdonald College, taking the Diploma course and has also taken a course in artificial insemination at St. Hyacinthe, and has been approved by all three dairy breeds in Quebec.

His brother John McCaig, is the advanced registry inspector, succeeding William Hunter. Donald McCaig has been visiting breeders in Quebec and the Maritimes and has been well received wherever he has gone and he is looking forward to a most successful career with the Jersey breeders.

George Mountain and two brothers William and Melford.

The hymns chosen were "The Lord's My Shepherd" and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." The pallbearers were Messrs. William E. Johnstone, Oscar Johnstone, Bruce Bell, Murray Constable, Fred Davison and W.
