THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.
LESSON VIII, FOURTH QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, NOV. 20.

Text of the Lesson, Isa. 1, 1-9, 16-20.
Memory Verses, 18-20—Golden Text, Isa. 1, 16, 17—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1904, by American Press Association.]
Our lesson is called "Isaiah's Message to Judah," which is all right as to the last two words, for it is indeed a message to Judah and not to all Israel, and it is a message to Judah and not to the church. This is the primary truth, but we must not forget that there are lessons here for all believers at all times. But, then, we must notice that it is not Isaiah's message, but the message of the Lord through His servant Isaiah. "Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth, for the Lord hath spoken!" (Verse 2) This is the truth to be emphasized. "The mighty God, even the Lord, hath spoken" (Ps. 1, 1). God hath spoken unto us by His Son (Heb. 1, 2). This is the great fact of the Bible, and surely it becomes His creatures to hear, but that is the very thing they refuse to do, as He says, "I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me" (verse 2). He says that the dumb brutes such as the ox and the ass have more regard for their owners than His people have for Him. In Jer. viii, 7, He says that the birds seem to have more intelligence than His people. When on earth in the days of His humiliation, as He went over Jerusalem He said, "If thou hadst known the things which belong to thy peace, but now they are hid from thine eyes" (Luke xix, 41, 42). "They have forsaken the Lord, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward" (verse 4), was true of them in the days of Isaiah and Jeremiah and also when our Lord was on earth, for He had to call them hypocrites and a generation of vipers, and finally to tell them that their house would be desolate till His return (Matt. xxiii).

Our lesson says that individually and nationally they were sick and unsound from head to foot, their country desolate and overthrown by strangers, and that but for a very small remnant of godly ones in their midst they would be like Sodom and Gomorrah. Then He calls them Sodom and Gomorrah and says that He cannot tolerate their sacrifices and their feasts; that they weary Him with them (verses 11-15). From this and similar language elsewhere in the prophets some have boldly affirmed that the Lord never instituted sacrifice, but such do not know what they say, nor do they understand Gen. iii, 21, the first of all sacrifices and by the hands of the Lord Himself.

When He was on earth in human form the feasts of the Lord which He had ordained had become mere feasts of the Jews, all forms and ceremony to be seen of men (Matt. vi, 1-18; xxiii, 1-5). This sort of thing He hates today as much as He did then, for He desires worship only from such as worship Him in spirit and in truth. See John iv, 23, 24. It may not be for us to judge, but a very little consideration will lead one to think it possible that there may be in the church today a very similar state of affairs to that described by the Spirit through Isaiah. All we need say is that whatever in the form of worship is not from a redeemed soul in the power of the Spirit and in the name of the Lord Jesus cannot be worship at all. The precious blood of Christ, the great sacrifice, is the only foundation, the Holy Spirit the only power and the word of God the only revelation by which we can know God and worship Him.

He who would worship God must first be clean; hence "Wash you; make you clean" (verse 16), and how this is to be done is plainly set forth both in Genesis and Revelation and all the way through. Nothing can cleanse from sin but the blood. "The life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls, for it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul" (Lev. xvii, 11). The doings of verses 16 and 17 follow the cleansing. There can be no acceptable doing till we are cleansed, for "they that are in the flesh cannot please God" (Rom. viii, 8).

How, then, is the cleansing accomplished? God must do it. When will He do it? Come, now; how thoroughly will He do it! The sins as scarlet shall be white as snow and the crimson like wool, for the blood of Jesus Christ cleanse from all sin, so that it is remembered no more. "I, even I, am He that blot out their iniquities for My own sake and will not remember their sins" (Isa. xliii, 25). The vanity of all our efforts to cleanse ourselves is set forth in Jer. ii, 22, but God does it instantly and thoroughly. Then follows the secret of all acceptable service, for where there is a redeemed soul who is willing and obedient God will work in that one both to will and to do of His good pleasure (Phil. ii, 13), and such an one can know the power and comfort of these words, "Lord, Thou wilt obtain peace for us, for Thou also hast wrought all our works in us." "Striving according to His working, which worketh in me mightily," "working in you that which is well pleasing in His sight" (Isa. xxvi, 12; Col. i, 29; Heb. xiii, 20, 21).

All rebelling against God's will and God's way (and there is a lot of it on the part of His people) only causes sorrow to themselves and brings no glory to God, but compels Him to chasten them for their good. It is the privilege of every child of God to enjoy perfect peace and to bear much fruit to the glory of God, but it can only be in and by a willing and obedient people, for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it, and His word is forever settled in heaven (verse 20; Ps. cxix, 89).

Bicyclists and all athletes depend on BENTLEY'S Liniment to keep the joints limber and muscles in trim.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL.

Few People Know How Useful it is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose. Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables. Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh. All drug stores sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal on the market for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal, and other charcoal and sweeten in tablet form or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is, that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, aid to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets.

A True Portrait.
The widow was taking her first look at the bust of her beloved husband. The clay was still damp. "Pray examine it well, madam," said the sculptor. "If there is anything wrong I can alter it."
The widow looked at it with a mixture of sorrow and satisfaction. "It is just like him," she said, "a perfect portrait—his large nose—the sign of goodness." Here she burst into tears. "He was so good! Make the nose a little larger!"
