

A GEORGIA JUDGE WAS ALARMINGLY AFFLICTED WITH CATARRH OF THE LUNGS. CURED BY PE-RU-NA.

JUDGE DURHAM, OF GREENSBORO, GEORGIA.

Catarrh of the Lungs the First Stage of Consumption.

So All Medical Authorities Agree.

Judge Durham, a well-known local Judge of Greensboro, Ga., had an experience with Peruna well worth reciting. A report had become current among the judge's friends that he was threatened with consumption. It was feared for a time that Georgia was to lose one of its most prominent and influential citizens. It was also reported that the judge had failed to get any relief from any of the medical aid at his command, that he had made use of the now world famous remedy, Peruna, and made a prompt recovery. The affair created quite a sensation in medical circles especially, and the many friends of Judge Durham were not only exceedingly gratified at his recovery, but were enthusiastic in their praises of the remedy that had brought him relief.

The following written statement from the judge himself set forth the facts: Greensboro, Ga., March 3, 1900. "Some time ago I contracted a severe cold which settled on my lungs and in my head. I tried many remedies, all of which gave me no relief. I concluded that my case was catarrh of the head and lungs, and seeing Peruna so highly recommended I began using it, experiencing the very best results from the first bottle.

A reward of $10,000 has been deposited in the Market Exchange Bank, Columbus, Ohio, as a guarantee that the above testimonial is genuine; that we hold in our possession authentic letters certifying to the same. Every one of our testimonials are genuine and in the words of the one whose name is appended.

"I continued using Peruna for a short while, and have never felt the least symptoms of catarrh since. Peruna is certainly a good medicine, and deserves the highest praise which is given it by the general public."

Judge Durham has been Secretary and Treasurer of the city of Greensboro, Ga., for the past three years, and has been a local judge for ten years.

Dread Consumption.

There are three roads which lead from health to consumption. Over one of these roads pass all of that great multitude of people who die every year of consumption. Each route begins with health and happiness and ends with disease and death.

First road: a slight cold—neglected—settles in the head or throat—chronic catarrh—extends to the lungs—consumption—death.

Second road: a slight cold—neglected cough—settles in the lungs—cough gradually growing worse—consumption—death.

Third road: a cold—neglected—settles in the throat—hoarseness—short breath—consumption—death.

Thousands have just started on one of these roads, all of whom could be easily cured by Peruna. Thousands more are half way to the fatal end of one of these roads who are still curable by a course of treatment by Peruna. Yet other thousands are near the end whose last days could be made bearable and hope of recovery more probable by commencing Peruna without delay.

REV G M YOUNG'S SERMON

teach the principles which lie at the foundation of the successful practice of the healing art. Skilled physicians are one of the products of Christianity, and are only found in Christian countries. The medical profession is a most exalted one, for those who are called into that ministry are entrusted with the most sacred interests of our home, and confronted with responsibilities and obligations that greatly increase their resources and opportunities for doing good. In a ministering life of unselfish duty, they often give their lives as a ransom for many. Such a view, noble and exalted, did our beloved physician take of his profession, and

"He strove among God's suffering poor One gleam of brotherhood to send." Though no longer in a pulpit he did not cease preaching. Many persons through his words and influence, found a severe illness a means of grace, and more than one was pointed to the Lamb of God Who taketh away the sin of the world, and arose from the sick bed to follow the new ideal, and live a higher life. The sweet sunshine of serenity, cheerfulness and good nature which habitually beamed on his noble countenance brought comfort to many a sick room, and in the depressing and painful surroundings of serious illness the patient often found a soothing balm in his very presence. Nothing morose, nothing gloomy, either in his natural temper or in his religious life, ever impaired the fascination of his presence or the cheer which he diffused.

There is no need that one should speak to you, who knew him, of his public services, and the faithfulness with which he discharged his high ideals of citizenship. No more enduring monument can be desired than for a man's life to be inscribed in a beneficent institution that survives in undying youth to bless mankind.

The remembrance of such a man, especially as it is now embalmed and sanctified by a peaceful and triumphant death, altogether in harmony with his character, cannot leave any other than a beneficial influence, ennobling and elevating to the mind and heart. The name of Richard Johnson is rich in sacred as well as splendid associations, a memento of consecrated intellect and energy; an inspiring watchword for the cultivation of Christian graces and of heavenly affections, an antidote to all that is unworthy in principle or practice, an attraction to whatever in the intellectual or moral system bears the stamp of unaffected excellence, whatever qualifies for the fruition of spiritual and eternal blessings, whatever is allied to the love of Christ and God.

And now we mourn because he is gone. He has gone to his reward. He has gone to that world of which he carried in his own breast so rich a pledge, to a world of peace. He has gone to Jesus Christ, whose spirit he has so deeply comprehended and so freely imbibed, and to God whose universal, all suffering, all embracing love he adored, and in a humble manner made manifest in his own life. But he is not wholly gone; not gone in heart, for I am sure that even in the better world his affection for suffering humanity is deepened, not extinguished; not gone in influence for his works remain and his memory is laid up a sacred treasure in many minds. The record of a generous life runs like a vine around the memory of our dead and every sweet unselfish act is now a perfumed flower.

"The actions of the just When memory hath enshrined them, E'en from the dark and silent dust Their fragrance leave behind them." A spirit so beautiful ought to multiply itself in those to whom it is made known. May we all be incited by it to a more grateful, cheerful love of God, and a warmer, gentler, nobler love of our fellow-creatures.

Minister Von Pellidram was conducted to the Venezuelan foreign office by United States Charge D'Affaires Russel and the sum was paid to the German minister to-day.
