THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block--Charlottetown.

The latest news, first of all. Rev. Dr. McMillan, Cardigan, came to the City on the mail special yesterday.

The express from Georgetown reached the city yesterday at two p.m. Capt. Taylor, City, was a passenger to Georgetown last night.

Miss Annie Lord, who was visiting at Souris, has returned to her home in Victoria. Miss Ethel Hunt, Summerside, who was visiting in Charlottetown, has returned home.

Dr. Ayer's will lead the men's meeting in the Y. M. C. A. on Sunday at four o'clock. P. R. Bentley of Kentville, N. S., representing the Fitzgibbon, Schafherlin & Co., Limited of Montreal, is in the city.

The mail special did not leave the City last night for Georgetown until 11.10, having waited for the Sydney hockey team. Evangelist McKay will commence a week's special services in the Methodist church at Margate. The first service is to be held on Sunday evening next at seven o'clock.

The temperature yesterday at nine a.m. registered twenty five degrees above zero, the highest thirty four above and at nine last night twenty six degrees above. The coldest the previous night was seventeen degrees above zero.

The services at St. Paul's church tomorrow evening is: organ andante—Wagner, hymn 22, Magnificat in F—Brummett, Nunc Dimittis in F—Bunnett, hymn 370 and 532. Offertory, Give Alms, and vocal quartette, The Story of the Cross, sung by congregation and choir.

Do not send communications to individual members of staff. Everything should be addressed "The Charlottetown Guardian, Charlottetown, P. E. I." and on the left hand corner at the bottom of the envelope should be "Advertising," "Subscription," "News," "Editorial," or "Tour Editor," according to the contents.

A large number was present at the meeting of the Young People's Association in First Methodist Church, City, last evening. Three interesting papers were read on What is Christianity? The Changes in Religious Conceptions and Divine Imminence and Transcendence. Between these papers a solo was given by Miss McNair and a mixed quartet by Misses McNair and Johnston, Messrs Moore and Welner.

The adjourned meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Church of England Missionary Society met Thursday morning in St. Paul's Schoolroom, City. Some interesting papers were read, questions were asked and answered, and discussions were taken part in by the different members. The meeting was followed by luncheon given by members of St. Peter's and St. Paul's Branches, to which all delegates to the D. C. S. and W. A. were invited. Short speeches were delivered by Mrs. Woodroffe, Mr. Nicholls, Mr. Fenton and Canon Simpson, Mr. Justice Fitzgerald, James Millman, Thomas Andrew and Crisp Moore.

ST. Patrick's Day was enthusiastically celebrated at Emerald by a grand musical and literary entertainment under the auspices of the Benevolent Irish Society. This large hall was very much crowded, who enjoyed appreciative audience who enjoyed the excellent entertainment provided. The Orchestra of St. Dunstan's College presided over by Rev. J. L. Gallant furnished music appropriate to the occasion. The singing of Miss Malton Trainor, City, and of Frank McDonald and Stephen Hessian of St. Dunstan's College were particularly appreciated by all, as were also the solos of Mrs. P. A. McMahon, Miss Melinda Murphy, Miss Power and Mr. Lamb of Emerald and Messrs DesRoches and Woodside of Malpeque. The scene from "The Rivals" by Messrs Bowlen and Deagle and the "Tent Scene" by Messrs Smith and Kennedy were also very well rendered and declarations were given by Mrs. Bertha Gorman, City, Miss Dalia Hughes, Emerald and T. B. Gorman of St. Dunstan's College, all of whom showed eloquent ability of a high order. A Stump Speech was delivered by John L. Kennedy. The literary number of the evening was the oration on "The Day we Celebrate" by Prof. P. F. Hughes of St. Dunstan's College. The eloquent gentleman in most elegant and classical language not only on the slopes of the Irish race in the past but also referred in no uncertain terms to the position which Irishmen occupy in the generation of today. He apostrophized his motherland in language worthy of a Burke, and concluded with an eloquent expression of hope in the future of the nation. Mr. Hughes' effort on Wednesday night, places him in the front rank of orators of the younger generation.

The wonderful nature-fertilized volcanic soil of the Island of Ceylon imparts to tea a delightful fragrance and delicious flavor. The uniformly excellent quality of "Salada" Tea bears testimony of this fact.
