Friday Morning's Sensation!
Fine Lawn
Shirtwaists
At 25c!

A bargain purchase here that will surely cause a sensation! Friday morning at 9 a. m. we will place them on sale. There will be none sold previous to that hour. The opportunity for buying a serviceable, stylish shirtwaist for so little money is one that easily eclipses any former offer ever made in the city.

Three hundred blouses of fine white lawn made in the latest style. Front is plain with box plaited effect—stitching on front and cuffs—detachable self collar. Sizes 34 to 42. These blouses will be found well made and satisfactory fitting and quite as serviceable for housewear as higher priced garments. Worth considerably more but on sale at 9 a. m. Friday for. 25c

Out-of-town Customers—Order by Mail

For the benefit of out-of-town mail order customers we have reserved a number of these waists in all sizes. 4 cents should be added to pay postage. If not entirely satisfactory blouses may be returned and money will be promptly refunded.

On the evening of June 27th a quiet but pretty wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Robert Stevenson, when her only daughter Bertha Ida, one of Fredericton's most popular young ladies was united in marriage to Chester Rackham, of Wheatley River. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Thomas H. Bates, Pastor of the Christian Church Summerside. The bride looked charming attired in a suit of cream muslin veiling, trimmed with embroidered chiffon. The bridesmaid Miss Gertrude Rackham sister of the groom was dressed in white flowered muslin while Rufus Stevenson, brother of the bride supported the groom. Owing to the recent death of the mother of the groom only the immediate relatives were present. After congratulations the company repaired to the dining room where the wedding breakfast was spread and where all good things peculiar to such occasions were partaken of. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and useful presents, testifying in a tangible manner the esteem in which she was held. Last but not least was the large band of serenaders who came to pay their respect to the happy couple by the blowing of horns etc. The Guardian extends congratulations.
