Many Arrests But Few Serious Crimes Reported

Arrests within the City of Charlottetown made by the City Police during the year ending Dec. 31 last totalled 1,230—by far an all-time record, and an increase of 433 over the previous year, according to the report of Chief A. Birtwistle, submitted by C. N. W. Lowther, chairman of the Police Committee, at Friday night's annual meeting of the City Council.

There were twelve arrests for "breaking and entering" shops or warehouses, one offender receiving a sentence of 2 years. Another was sentenced to three years for uttering forged cheque, and for theft of a postal letter an offender was sentenced to a term of two years in Penitentiary.

Prohibition Enforcement: During the past year members of the Force conducted 418 searches of dwelling houses, shops and other premises suspected of the unlawful possession or sale of intoxicating liquors.

Changes in Force: Several changes occurred in the personnel of the Force during the past year, outstanding being the retirement on pension on September 30th of our senior Sergeant, Allan J. McInnis, after serving the City and public, continuously and faithfully, for the past thirty-five years.

"Look here, Sadie's not to blame," Cardew burst out, rather surprised.

"That's hardly a matter for you to decide," the Chief said. "As you probably know, she's under arrest on a very serious charge."

"You'd better say nothing at the moment, Cardew," the Chief said in a gentler tone.

"Thank you, sir." A taxi took Dollimore to the district street of the doctors.

"Well, Well!" said the eminent doctor and regarded his wife comically.

"Mary has promised to marry me," Dollimore explained.
