COMMERCIAL MEN VS PROWSE BROS

Saturday night at the Arena, the Commercial Men and Prowse Bros. hockey teams met in a very interesting game. It will be remembered that these two teams met last winter and the Commercial Men won by a score of 3-2. Saturday night Prowse Bros' team turned the tables, winning by a score of 2-1. At 10:45 E. Grady started the game and at once Burns made a good run up the ice but failed to score. McFarlane then got the puck and went down the ice like a whirlwind, shot, but by mistake Acorn, the goal tender, put out his foot and stopped what was thought to be a sure goal. Brown next got the puck, but having so much speed lost it. Messervey got the rubber next, but was tripped by G. Prowse, who got five minutes' rest. For the next ten minutes the rushes by Weeks, Prowse and Brown were very effective for their team, as were also the rushes by McFarlane, Hughes and Fleming. Just before the half ended G. Prowse was again put off for tripping and McCabe got two minutes for falling down. While they were resting Burns got the puck and in one of the best rushes of the evening made the first and only score of this half. Prowse Bros. 1; Commercial Men 0. At the starting of the second half, Messervey asked for two minutes to take off his sweater which was granted, and the Commercial Men were presented with stools for their defence, who were beginning to show lack of practice. In this half Prowse Bros' line-up was changed.

WRITING PLAYS FOR WASHINGTON PLAYHOUSE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25—Playwrighting has become the absorbing pursuit of the Washington smart set. Everyone is writing a play, playlet or moving-picture scenario, and everyone who is anybody expects to get it produced at the new Playhouse, the dramatic club that has just been opened in Connecticut Avenue. The Belgian minister, Count Buisseret, has been fortunate enough to secure the first production there of a one-act playlet he has written for the benefit of the Washington diet kitchen. This will be presented on Feb. 9. It is whispered that Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth has fallen prey to the new ambition and is busy on a society play. The Granville Fortescues are also hard at work, while Preston Gibson, originator of the play-house idea and the most ardent champion in society, has romped a brand new thriller for an early date. The Playhouse is unique in purpose and has a three-fold character—social, artistic and charitable. Behind it stand as sponsors some of the most famous men and women of the city. It is a clubhouse more in name than in fact, but it has a perfect stage equipment, and here, from time to time, productions will be given a try-out. These plays, with society men and women as authors, actors, and audience, will be given for sweet charity's sake.

TOWNS CAPTURED

Special to The Guardian. MEXICO CITY, Jan. 29—San Evangelista, and San Juan Jalapan, are reported occupied by revolutionists under the command of Dr. Enrique Ilivas, president of the political club in Vera Cruz. Ilivas has been at the head of former rebellions in Guatemala and passed several years in China. An account of the murder and savagery of which an American Mormon family and a young Canadian were victims reached here from near Casus Grande. Four bandits attacked and robbed the home of James Morlensen and brutally mistreated Mrs. Morlensen and her daughter. Subsequently the latter was shot and killed while preparing a meal at the command of the robbers. An American by name of Madison escaped and in reply to his appeal Harriet Cox, a native of Canada, attempted to assist Morlensen but fell dead under the fire of the bandits.

FOOLED MEN SEEKING WORK

MONTREAL, Jan. 25—Jubilee laundry was nearly mobbed and residents at 1919 St. Auburn St. went out for help as the result of a practical joke. Some person put an advertisement in an evening paper saying that twenty-five men were wanted at the laundry or address given to be employed at $2.25 a day. Men started to line up last night some of them staying all night, and this morning nearly a thousand had gathered, blocking the street. The laundry managers had not advertised for men but had a serious task convincing the cold and disappointed men of this. Hundreds of others went to the house address, where an entirely innocent family thought they were being mobbed and sent for help.
