GLOVER-COFFIN WEDDING—A wedding of exceptional attraction was solemnized at the Presbyterian Church, Mount Stewart, Wednesday evening, 7 o'clock, Nov. 25th, when Miss Grace Lillias Coffin became the bride of Fay Carmen Glover. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large gathering by the pastor, Rev. J. C. Martin. Miss Elsie Cook presided at the organ and to the strains of the wedding march, the couple walked up the aisle, over the bride on the arm of her brother Arthur Coffin, who gave her away. The bride was neatly dressed in a blue tailored suit, grey beaver hat, a set of red fox furs the gift of the groom and carrying a splendid bouquet of Chrysanthemums. Her evening dress was grey georgette over satin. The presents were many and costly an evidence of personal esteem. The marriage supper followed at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Henrietta Coffin and was concluded the following night at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Esther Glover, and both were attended by many invited guests. Mr. Glover is one of our gallant boys of the original 105th Battalion, who passed through much of the severe struggle, and is now in the employ of the Canadian Government Railways. The young couple have taken up their residence in Charlottetown followed by the best wishes of their many friends.
