

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block--Charlottetown--

The latest news, first of all.

R. A. McLeod, Uigg, was in the City Saturday.

The western mail train arrived in this City at eleven o'clock Saturday night.

Malcolm McMillan, son of H. McMillan, tailor of this city, is dangerously ill.

The losses told about in The Guardian Classified advertisements bring results, as told in that column.

Reuben Machon, of Murray Harbor, was in the City last week to meet his brother who is first officer of the tern schooner Helen M. Stewart.

Robert Stewart, Eldon, was in the City yesterday.

T. Gordon Ives, Montague, was in the City Saturday.

The tide will be high this morning at 9.38 and tomorrow morning at 10.09.

Gus Matthew, Pleasant Grove, has entered the P. E. I. Hospital for treatment.

Last week's Wesleyan contains a lengthy notice on the death of the late Hon. G. W. Bentley, Kensington.

Among the passengers to Charlottetown from Hunter River, Saturday, were John M. McDonald teacher, Richard Pooley and others.

The Clark Urban Co., played in St. Stephen, N. B., last week to full houses.

Mrs. Robert McMillan and her son, William, Hunter River, were in the City Saturday.

Last week's Brain's reproduces a recent ad of D. A. Bruce's which appeared in The Guardian.

Miss Amy Easter and Miss Emma Chandler, Wiltshire, were among the visitors in this City Saturday.

F. Coonors of Montreal, arrived in the city on Saturday by the Bonavista. He is enroute for Newfoundland.

The many friends of Mrs. Wm. Caldwell, Kensington, will regret to learn that she is seriously ill with peritonitis.

Two carloads of lumber for Geo. E. Full's new factory at Hunter River, arrived by the Cape Traverse train Saturday morning from Clyde Station.

The Harland came down from West River Bridge on Saturday morning at nine o'clock. She carried a heavy freight and a fair number of passengers.

The Provincial Government has ordered three new road machines, including one for two horses. It is intended to use this for the roads in the Royalty.

On the eleventh of May, Charlottetown will have an evening of music in St. James Church by an organist and baritone singer from away, assisted by local talent.

Rev. Dr. McMillan of Halifax, delivers one of his noted lectures in Zion schoolroom this evening at 8 o'clock. Everyone should hear him. Tickets fifteen cents. Subject "Extremes."

The Bonavista which arrived in the City on Saturday afternoon made the earliest trip she has ever made, and the able captain and officers deserve the congratulations they are receiving from shipping circles.

Captain L. R. Demers of the steamer Campana which reaches this port this morning, is sailing on his last sea voyage, as at the conclusion of this trip he will take charge of the B. & O. river boat, Quebec.

The marriage of Miss Ada Campbell, eldest daughter of Ewen and Mrs. Campbell, City to Alexander Grant, son of the late John Grant, Morell, takes place at high noon today at the residence of the brides' parents.

The highest temperature recorded Saturday was forty-six degrees above zero. At nine a. m. the mercury stood at thirty nine above and at nine p. m. at thirty six above. The coldest registered Friday night was thirty above.

Among the outward passengers from this City Saturday were James McInnis to Summerside, Stephen Burke to Boston, Miss Cora Paton to spend the week end in Sackville, Miss Anna Pendergast, returning to Kensington, Mrs. Pendergast, Mt. Hope to Kensington.

Rev. H. E. Thomas, formerly pastor of the Wesleyan Memorial Church but now of Charlottetown, came over from the Island yesterday. Mrs. Robert H. Hutchinson went to Summerside, P. E. Island, yesterday afternoon and will spend a few weeks at her former home.—Moncton Times.

The mens meeting in the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon was well attended. The speaker Rev. D. R. McMillan proved a forcible and interesting speaker his remarks, being listened to with marked attention. The singing of E. H. Mitchell was much appreciated, as was also the sacred music given by the boy's orchestra.

The management of New Wonderland wishes to announce, that seats have been arranged for the boys at the back of the hall, and that henceforth any boys annoying patrons of the house by either bad behavior or making any other noise, will be summarily dealt with and their names handed in to the authorities for prosecution. These boys have become a detriment to any entertainment in this city, and it is times measures were taken to put a stop to their tactics. It is hoped that the management will be helped by all the patrons of the house in this undertaking, by simply leaving at the box office any complaint against any boy who annoys and disturbs the audience. The rest of the matter remains in the hands of the management who will gladly attend to it.

Come and see the first presentation of Dramas at New Wonderland tonight. The first show will in all probability be the motion pictures only with a song, but when the Picton boat gets in, the Drama company will arrive, and then come along. Follow the crowd to New Wonderland.

Found Guilty Citizens of Charlottetown VS. D. Stewart

We, the undersigned jurors, find the defendant, D. Stewart, of the Eclipse Bakery, guilty, as charged in the indictment, of giving the people of Charlottetown the best and sweetest bread, very best cake and the flakiest, and best pastry ever offered to the public of Charlottetown.

KNOW A GOOD THING Foreman We the undersigned jurors, concur in the above report. MR. JAMES R. SATISFIED OLD CUSTOMER MR. JOHN ALL HE EXPECTED NEW CUSTOMER Telephone 211 D. STEWART Eclipse Bakery, Bakes Westward.

Miss Jessie Bonnell has arrived home from Boston, to visit her parents in this City.

Rev. G. M. Young, formerly of the First Methodist Church in this City, gave his well known lecture on the Catacombs of Rome, recently in St. David's N. B.

H. C. Christie, Toronto, representing the Cowan Company, Ltd., Mfgs of Cocoa and Chocolate is in the City and reports excellent business this spring.

Miss Clara A. Bonnell of Murray River, and Miss Clara E. Young of Belle River, were among the passengers to the City Saturday by the Murray Harbor Train.

The Northumberland reached this city at six o'clock on Saturday night. Her cargo of freight was fairly heavy, and the number of passengers somewhat large.

R. H. Pooley and Heber Horne, Hunter River, came to the city by the train on Saturday. Mr. Pooley reports a very successful business in his line of knitted goods.

Next week the railway works will be connected with the City water system, satisfactory arrangements having been made between the railway and the city commissioners.

Rev. Mr. Ayers of Centerville occupied the pulpit of Methodist church at Hartland, N. B., recently and gave right hand of fellowship to 4 new members. Mr. Ayers is well known in this Province.

Rev. W. J. Kirby, formerly of Grace Church, City, is doing remarkable work for his church in Albert, N. B., as the result of special services. Recently eight young men and women were baptized into the church.

A correspondent writes: Miss Bertha Roberts of Winsloe, is visiting friends in Ebezer. Frank Roberts of Winsloe, spent the week end with friends in Hunter River. Athol Roberts and Robert Macklin, Winsloe, were in the City Saturday.

The ad of the White Candy Co., which appears in this issue should be read by all, as they are offering something new and delicious in their White's Carmello. White's Chocolates are unexcelled for their purity and rich flavor and are sold by all the leading stores in this City and Province.

A subsidiary branch of the Anti-Tuberculosis Society was organized at Southport Friday evening with the following officers: Honorary Pres.—Rev. D. McLean. President—Dr. Dewar. Vice President—H. B. McLean. Secy. Treas.—Allison Campbell. Directors—Joseph Kelly, Daniel Stewart, John W. Ryan.

The Bonavista which left Montreal on Wednesday at noon arrived in this port at three o'clock on Saturday afternoon. She met with splendid weather, though encountering a little ice. The passenger list was very small, but the cargo of freight was a full one. It is understood that the steamer will leave here sometime during Monday for Newfoundland, via Sydney.

Last Thursday during the last performance at New Wonderland, some one sneaked in behind the end of the curtain and stole the sum of $3.00 from the clothing of one of the performers. In addition to this money, there was a telegram, a jack-knife and some other small articles in the pocket, all of which were taken. The case has been placed in the hands of the police to deal with.

The funeral of the late Haviland Artemas Cooke, Pisquid, which took place on Saturday last was largely attended, notwithstanding most unfavorable weather. Rev. L. J. Watson, Mt. Stewart, officiated. The late Mr. Cooke had gone west with the harvesters last fall, but returning to Boston for the winter, contracted typhoid fever from which he died in the Boston General Hospital.

Col. Turner commander of the Salvation Army in the Maritime Provinces left St. John Saturday for this city to spend the week end with the army officers here. He was accompanied as far as Summerside by Brigadier Collier, the Provincial Secretary. On his return from this Province Brigadier Collier goes to Dorchester, where he will hold services and leaves in about ten days for Bermuda on a tour of general inspection.

Talking pictures are in every show, two pictures being the regular motion pictures last fall, but a Real Talking reel, human voices being the interpreters. Can't describe it, come and hear. Five and ten cents admission only.

It's the FILM that's important

Lens and shutter and camera all play their part, but upon the film depends the picture. Invest upon Kodak N. C. Film, the film that has twenty-five years experience behind it—the film that is not in the experimental stage.

LOOK FOR KODAK.

ON THE SPOOL END.

Johnson & Johnson
Corner Kent and Prince Sts.

Moore & McLeod

Monday, May 3rd, 1909

Another lot of those pretty Fifteen dollar Suits

It certainly has been "keeping us guessing" to supply the demand for our special line of Fifteen dollar suits. However—the Express Company brought us a nice little lot on Saturday—and we are now ready for a few days more of brisk selling. This last lot comes with coat of medium length—cut away front, satin collar—very smart stylish skirt.

The colours are greens, blues, browns and black in to-day's lot. The price is really very cheap when you consider the all wool cloth—the careful tailoring the correct style..... 15.00

Better grades 16.50, 19.50, $25. Come in and let us talk suits to you for a few minutes—we can make it interesting all right. Come to-day.

Made to Measure

This new service of ours has jumped into a great and immediate popularity—when every woman can have her suit made as she wants it made of the cloth she chooses, delivered when promised at the extremely low prices that we make—no wonder that big orders result.

PRICES FROM FIFTEEN DOLLARS UP TO FIFTY DOLLARS EACH.

Better suits are all silk lined if you say. If there is a cloth in our dress goods department that you are particularly pleased with—choose that—we can have your suit made from our own cloth just as well as from the factory stock—and just as promptly.

Save by buying Oilcloth here

"Why! I didn't know you sold oilcloths," said a lady who called after wall paper the other day. And for fear that there might be five or six other ladies who don't know it, we print this little ad. today. We sell oilcloths, good oilcloths, handsome oilcloths, and we sell them cheaply. We can afford to handle them at a low figure, we buy them RIGHT, and the same stuff that we require for our wall paper and curtains look after oilcloths too, saving expense all round.

Good oilcloths at 25c and 42c per yard.
Good linoleums from Scotland at 55c per yard.
Phone, and we will send a man to measure your room, cut and lay the oilcloth.

Linoshine makes old oilcloth look new, one pint covers 75 square feet, bright, dries quickly, tough. We have three sizes as follows:

1-2 Pint 35c	Pints 60c	Quart $1.00
--------------	-----------	--------------

Rev. Mr. Valentine, City, went to Cedar shingles are for sale. See classified column. A good opening for smart boy. See classified column.

Miss Edith Hyndman, City, leaves this morning on a visit to Ottawa.

Patrick Morrissey of Newton, leaves this morning for Colonsay, Sask.

M. C. Clark and family of Orwell, leaves this morning for Brandon, Man.

BORN

BRUNDAGE—At Cambridge, Mass., on April 27, 1909, to J. L. and Mrs. Brundage, a daughter.

DOYLE—At Pleasant Grove, April 29, to Amorose and Mrs. Doyle, a son.

DIED.

McDONALD—suddenly at Sydney, C. B., on April 22, 1909, Hugh McDonald in his 80th year, formerly of Glen Martin, P. E. Island. He leaves to mourn three sons, Charles of Caledonia, P. E. I., Duncan and Alex. of Sydney, also three brothers and one sister. His remains were buried in Valleyfield on the 25th.

New Stylish Creations in Spring Millinery

Many women leave the selection of their Spring Millinery until the spring is really here and when the styles are quite decided. New shipments have been arriving every day lately, and many exclusive and artistic models will be found among the lot. Parisian, London, and New York styles have a good representation, and with such a large showing you cannot fail to select your favorite style, and you are assured of being within fashion's charmed circle.

Smart Waterproof Coats For Ladies

The weather demonstrates the fact that no wardrobe should lack a rain coat. It is not enough that our coats should be unexcelled for rain turning qualities, they are dressy and every garment possesses some individual feature not found in others. Rubberized Rajah silk and satin, in plain and stripes, also paramatas, rain proof tweeds, cravenettes, etc. Colors are navy, grey, champagne, green, heather, fawn, and neat tweed effects. Prices $4.75 up to 25.00.

Dainty Shirt Waists In newest of Spring Styles

The shirt waists for spring and summer seem to be more varied and more beguiling than ever, and our collection of the newest styles is better than ever. For dressier wear, the fine, sheer things that make the shirt waist so tempting and dainty, mull muslin, organdie and fine lawn are among them, with elaborate and beautiful yokes, insertions, medallions and appliques of various sorts of laces, Irish point, Valenciennes, Teneriffe, Antique etc etc, prices vary from 75c up to 6.25 and every price between. See our special $1.00 waist, best value we ever had, all sizes, 34 to 42 in. in lot.

Prowse Bros. Ltd.
Charlottetown, Big Departmental Store

A Machine To make you SLEEP WELL

I am just starting—a power driven machine for picking Hair, Moss, Fiber, wool and Flock—this machine will enable me to make over all kinds of Mattresses in a superior manner at a moderate cost—Remember I fill mattresses from the top—laid in layers—my shop is the only one in the Province using this up to date method.

Mark Wright

Newson's Block

A Surplus

of $4,118,491.00 over all liabilities and Capital Stock is the financial position of the Sun Life of Canada.

E. R. BROW,
Charlottetown. Manager for P. E. I.
dmwfff

Fishing Tackle

Rods, Reels, Landing Nets, Baskets, Lines, Hooks, Fly Books.

Flies suitable for Island waters.

Any fly not to be had here we will be pleased to get for you

"THE TWO MAGS"
DRUGGISTS,