THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

The latest news, first of all. A house is wanted, apply at Rogers Hardware. The New Wonderland program for tonight is given on page four. There will be band at the Arena tonight. All season ticket holders admitted. Good ice. The Bookstores defeated the Druggists last Friday at a game of hockey, the score being 3-0. Mrs. S. C. Moore, sang very sweetly at the evening service in Zion church on Sunday. Wesley Myers, Bedouque, was a passenger from this City, en route to Calgary, Alberta, last night. The Guardian understands that the winter steamers will try and force an entrance into the harbor early next week. The horse races which were to have taken place on Pownall Bay on Saturday last, were postponed till next Saturday the 20 inst. Mr. Paton will lecture in Grace Church Schoolroom on Thursday night of this week on his trip to the Holy Land. Silver Collection. The inward cargo by the Stanley from Pictou to Georgetown yesterday included three hundred bags beans, two cars flour and five cars way freight. The dates of the Halifax Exhibition for 1909 have been fixed for Sept. twenty-fifth to Oct. second. It will be noticed they will have but one week of exhibition in place of two as in former years. Yesterday was a very busy one along the water front, as it is expected that the ice will last but a day or two at the most. A great deal of lumber and lobster supplies were taken away and large quantities of oats brought into the City. The Sydney Hockey Champions of Cape Breton are expected to arrive tomorrow and games are being arranged to be played in the Arena on Thursday and Friday nights of this week with the Abegweit and Victoria Hockey Teams. W. Carr the well known truckman, while going to the hatchery at Rocky Point yesterday with a load of coal had the misfortune to have the ice break under him and consequently received a bad ducking. The sleigh and coal were lost, though the horse was saved. The Canadian Courier, Toronto, says: At an early date we shall publish an article by J. E. B. McCready on that much-needed construction, the Prince Edward Island Tunnel, in which the writer shows the reasonable nature of the demand made by the extreme east. At the last general meeting of Strathcona Farmers' Institute which was held at Mt. Allison after the conclusion of the regular business and on motion it was resolved: That we the members of Strathcona Farmers' Institute place on record our disapproval of any change in the Act regarding Motor Vehicles. Next general meeting to be held at Hazelbrook on March 18 1909 at 7 p. m. a full attendance is requested. What might have been a very serious accident, happened in the vicinity of Clerktown, about thirty rods below Hagerty's wharf, when a horse belonging to John N. Jay and wife broke through the ice. Mr. Jay managed to keep his horse's head above water while Mrs. Jay ran for help which after some difficulty she succeeded in obtaining and the drowning horse was soon landed on the ice. Mr. Jay takes this opportunity of thanking Mr. McEachern and others who so kindly helped him in every way, especially Mr. Webster who saw that the horse was properly attended to and entertained both him and his wife for the night. So many Charlottetown Guardian readers availed themselves of the chance to get a copy of E. L. Dyer's informing little book on the wire fence question that the first edition was quickly exhausted. Mr. Dyer (who is widely known as a foremost expert in all that pertains to wire fences) has agreed to issue a second edition of his manual at once, and a copy will be sent to anyone interested who incloses five cents (in coin or stamps) to defray postage. Request for this useful book should be addressed to Mr. Dyer at King Street and Atlantic Avenue, Toronto. The book has chapters on proving fence quality before buying, testing wire for strength and elasticity, right and wrong ways of erecting fences, how to set posts, etc., etc. It is well worth having if you expect to put up any fence at all. "Teas grown at high altitudes on the mountain slopes of Ceylon, where the growth is slower and cultivation more careful than in the warm, humid climate of the valleys, are used in "Salada" Tea. High-grown tea like "Salada" is not only of a finer quality, but contains more of the essential oil in the leaf than valley-grown tea. This is easily proved by comparing a drawing of "Salada" Tea with any other.

There will be band at the Arena tonight. Fred Perkins, City, has returned from a visit to Kansas City. Miss Alva Brehaut, City, has returned from Murray Harbor. You like candy—Have some small change in your pocket at the Opera Wednesday night. Mr. Matthews, O'Leary, was a passenger from this City for the North west last night. A very bad dog fight aroused the people in the vicinity of Kent street early Sunday morning. Delicious home made candy will be for sale at Opera House, St. Patrick's night. Proceeds in aid of the poor. Geo. and Mrs. Tanton, St. Eleanors were passengers from this City, en route to the North west last night. E. H. Mitchell, gave a splendid rendition of "I Need Thee Every Hour," at St. Paul's church Sunday evening. Rev. Father Crocken is to deliver the sermon in St. Dunstan's Cathedral tomorrow morning at ten o'clock Mass in honor of St. Patrick. There are new and interesting features in the Prince Street school concert which takes place on Friday evening the 26th inst in the Opera House. Everyone should hear Rev. J. F. Floyd's lecture tonight in the Central Christian Church, on the Resurrection of the Body in the Light of Science and the Bible. The many friends of Miss Hazel Taylor will be glad to know that she has recovered from her recent illness, and was able to be out for a short time yesterday afternoon. There will be a basket social held in Mt. Herbert Hall, on Thursday night, March 18th if not fine that night it will be held on the following night. Mrs. Wallace Hill, St. John, who has been visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Clark, Pleasant Street for the last few weeks, left last night home-ward bound. Mrs. Dr. Taylor and Miss Taylor leave the City tonight for Montreal where they will attend the marriage of Trevelyan Taylor which takes place early in April. After the marriage they intend visiting New York and other western cities. Friday next 19th being the feast of St. Joseph there will be special services held in St. Joseph's Convent Chapel. Mass will be celebrated at seven a. m. and high mass at eight o'clock. In the evening there will be Benediction at which Rev. Dr. McMillan of Cardigan, will preach. In the last Law Examinations held in this City Calvin McCallum and George Matthews passed the final exams., the former making Barrister marks. In the Second Intermediate exams. Wilfrid Tanton passed and in the first Examinations Vincent Powers passed. G. J. Carver the oyster king of this City, received yesterday the bronze medal he won at the Halifax Exhibition last fall for the best exhibit of canned lobsters. He has won ten prizes in ten years from the above exhibition association, besides the silver cup he won in 1909 when he was presented to him by the Government of the West Indies for the excellence of his lobsters. W. S. Louson was a passenger by the mail express last night on his way to St. John, N. B. He is President of the Provincial Auxiliary of the British and Foreign Bible Society and goes as a delegate from the Province to the convention which meets in St. John, on the seventeenth and eighteenth insts where delegates will assemble from all parts of Canada to plan for the future of the Society in the Canadian territory. A grand concert and pie social will be held at Oval Hill tonight. Doors open at seven o'clock. Concert at eight. A good time assured.

The Sydney Hockey Champions of Cape Breton are expected to arrive tomorrow and games are being arranged to be played in the Arena on Thursday and Friday nights of this week with the Abegweit and Victoria Hockey Teams. W. Carr the well known truckman, while going to the hatchery at Rocky Point yesterday with a load of coal had the misfortune to have the ice break under him and consequently received a bad ducking. The sleigh and coal were lost, though the horse was saved. The Canadian Courier, Toronto, says: At an early date we shall publish an article by J. E. B. McCready on that much-needed construction, the Prince Edward Island Tunnel, in which the writer shows the reasonable nature of the demand made by the extreme east. At the last general meeting of Strathcona Farmers' Institute which was held at Mt. Allison after the conclusion of the regular business and on motion it was resolved: That we the members of Strathcona Farmers' Institute place on record our disapproval of any change in the Act regarding Motor Vehicles. Next general meeting to be held at Hazelbrook on March 18 1909 at 7 p. m. a full attendance is requested. What might have been a very serious accident, happened in the vicinity of Clerktown, about thirty rods below Hagerty's wharf, when a horse belonging to John N. Jay and wife broke through the ice. Mr. Jay managed to keep his horse's head above water while Mrs. Jay ran for help which after some difficulty she succeeded in obtaining and the drowning horse was soon landed on the ice. Mr. Jay takes this opportunity of thanking Mr. McEachern and others who so kindly helped him in every way, especially Mr. Webster who saw that the horse was properly attended to and entertained both him and his wife for the night. So many Charlottetown Guardian readers availed themselves of the chance to get a copy of E. L. Dyer's informing little book on the wire fence question that the first edition was quickly exhausted. Mr. Dyer (who is widely known as a foremost expert in all that pertains to wire fences) has agreed to issue a second edition of his manual at once, and a copy will be sent to anyone interested who incloses five cents (in coin or stamps) to defray postage. Request for this useful book should be addressed to Mr. Dyer at King Street and Atlantic Avenue, Toronto. The book has chapters on proving fence quality before buying, testing wire for strength and elasticity, right and wrong ways of erecting fences, how to set posts, etc., etc. It is well worth having if you expect to put up any fence at all. "Teas grown at high altitudes on the mountain slopes of Ceylon, where the growth is slower and cultivation more careful than in the warm, humid climate of the valleys, are used in "Salada" Tea. High-grown tea like "Salada" is not only of a finer quality, but contains more of the essential oil in the leaf than valley-grown tea. This is easily proved by comparing a drawing of "Salada" Tea with any other.
