OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY

NEW POLICE CHIEF — An ex-Island member of the R. C. M. P., Corp. Charles W. MacArthur, recently retired from the Mounties in Perth, New Brunswick, is reported to be the City Council's choice for Chief of Police in succession to Chief A. Birtwistle. It is expected that the appointment of a new Chief will be made at a special meeting of the Council some time this week.

TO ATTEND CONVENTION — Brigadier W. W. Reid, D.S.O., E.D., Supervisor of the P. E. I. Travel Bureau, and Director of the Provincial Department of Physical Fitness, leaves this morning by car for Halifax, N.S., where he will attend a convention of the Canadian Association of Tourists and Publicity Bureaus. The opening session of the convention will be held this afternoon and will continue on until Thursday night.

BODY IDENTIFIED — A badly decomposed body identified as that of Hector Felix Dunn, 33, fisherman from Richibucto, N.B., who lost his life early in August was found near Milo, Prince County last Thursday afternoon. Identification was made by means of clothing and a Waltham watch. Dr. Shane, coroner at Alberton, after viewing the body decided an inquest was unnecessary. The remains were taken to Richibucto.

One of the luckiest persons in Charlottetown Saturday night was Miss Mary A. Monaghan, Sacred Heart Home, who won a trip ticket value of $500., the first prize of the Charlottetown Hospital Bazaar lottery drawn at the Armouries.

Second prize, a trip ticket value of $150 was won by Mr. E. Fardy, 323 Richmond St., Charlottetown, and third place money, a trip ticket value of $100 went to Miss Dora Gaudet, St. Louis. Mrs. Mary Brennan, 7 Elm Avenue, took fourth prize, a trip ticket value of $75.00.

Mr. John Kenneth Sutherland, marine engineer of Charlottetown, passed peacefully to rest in the P. E. Island Hospital Saturday morning, Oct. 14 in his 73rd year.

Mr. Sutherland who had been in declining health for some years suffered a recurrence of heart trouble and despite medical science and loving care of his devoted wife God called him home.

His death closed a lengthy seafaring career which began in 1898 when he became attached to the Black Diamond Line. In 1906 Mr. Sutherland left the Province for Newcastle on the Tyne with Capt. MacLeod and crew to bring out the S. S. Empress on which he came as Second Engineer.

Word has been received by relatives here of the death on Saturday night at his hotel in New Orleans, of Dr. Ronald MacDonald of Saskatoon.

Dr. MacDonald, who was sixty-four years of age was born in North Bedeque, P.E.I., a son of the late Donald and Harry (Thornton) MacDonald. He was educated at St. Dunstan's College and McGill University where he took his M.D.C.M. in 1908, and was the Sutherland medalist in the preceding year. After graduating from McGill he was resident surgeon at Belleuve Hospital, Harlam Hospital, New York City, 1908-1913.

LEGION PLANS SERVICE—The Kingston Branch, No. 30 Canadian Legion (B.E.S.L.) completed plans for a memorial Armistice Day service to be held this year at Clyde River Monument on Sunday, November 6 at 2 p.m. at the October meeting of the Branch in the Legion Home, Charlottetown, on October 13. Comrade-president, Andy MacEachern presided over the meeting which was attended by 13 members from the various districts within its command. The importance of keeping the meaning of Poppy Day before the public was stressed. A number of members were appointed to distribute the poppies to the school districts in the area.

Rt. Rev. R.H Waterman, Coadjutor Bishop of the Anglican Diocese which includes Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island is visiting this Province and spent yesterday conducting services in parishes in West Prince. In the morning at 9.15 he conducted holy communion at St. Peter's Church, Alberton of which Rev. J R. McMahon is rector. It being children's day, a special children's service was held. At 11 a.m. holy communion was celebrated at Alma and in the afternoon a children's service was conducted at O'Leary. These churches are part of Alberton Parish.

A wedding of interest in both Prince Edward Island and British Columbia took place in Vancouver, Saturday afternoon, September 10 when Cynthia Emma, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Roy Kendall of Charlottetown exchanged marriage vows with Norman Emory Wilson, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Wilson of Rowley, Alberta.

Rev. F. Sullivan of Zion United Church officiated at the double ring ceremony, which took place at the home of the groom's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Wilson, 2452 Trinity Street, Vancouver.

The bride was given in marriage by her cousin, Mr. A. Guy in the absence of her father and her only attendant was Miss Beth MacLaine. Mr. James Tonner was groomsman. During the signing of the register, Miss Alice Torgness sang "Because" and "Oh Promise Me"

Large and enthusiastic congregations attended special services held Friday, October 14, in the Summerside Baptist Church. The P.E.I. Baptist District held its business session in the morning when delegates were present in large numbers from practically every Baptist Church on the island. At this session Mr. Earl Jelly of O'Leary, chairman of the District ably presided. The clerk, Rev. Ernest J. Barrass of Summerside was at the desk.

Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. C.A. Hicks of Tryon, who took as the basis of a very fine meditation the words, "My Heart Is Fixed." The report of the District Keyman, Rev. C.A. Britten of Central Bedeque was very gratifying, revealing the fact that the district had last year oversubscribed its missionary allocation.

FUNERAL OF MR. FOSTER ALLEN, BAYFIELD, N.B. — The funeral of the late Foster Allen took place on Sunday afternoon and was of the largest ever seen in Eastern Westmorland County, N. B. After prayers at the home, one hundred Oddfellows assembled, forming a guard of honor, marching to the First Baptist Church at Cape Tormentine where an impressive service was held in charge of Rev. Mr. Lockhart. A male choir consisting of Oddfellows, L. Hammersly, Hartman Allen, Powell Spence, Frank Selby, E. Butcher and W. MacLeod sang four selections, Lead Kindly Light, The Old Rugged Cross, Blest Be The Tie That Binds and Nearer My God To Thee, with Mrs. Ira Jackson as organist. The pallbearers were Lloyd Tucker, Ray Allen, Fred Dean, Harry Burns, James Woods and Ira Jackson, all Brother Oddfellows. The long cortege was led by one hundred Oddfellows to the Cemetery at Bayfield where an impressive and beautiful committal service of the Oddfellows Order was conducted under the leadership of Chaplain Henry Grant of Weneeda Lodge Port Elgin. The great number of beautiful floral tributes and the many attending the services testified to the high esteem and sterling qualities of the late Mr. Allen. Among those attending the funeral from a distance were Mr. Eugene Allen, son, and Mrs. Allen of Boston, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Allen, Ostrea Lake, Halifax, N.S., and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Allen of Charlottetown, P.E.I. Funeral arrangements were in charge of Mr. R. K. Cadman of Moncton, N.B.

TUESDAY

RETIRES AS CONDUCTOR — The recent retirement, October 1st, of Mr. P. D. McCormack, C. P. R. conductor, Edmonton, Alberta, will be of interest to friends here. Mr. McCormack's father resided at Monticello, P. E. I. He began his service with the railway as a telegrapher 45 years ago. According to a press dispatch a surprise but pleasant meeting was that of Mr. McCormack and his cousin, Dr. H. F. MacInnis, the latter passing through Edmonton on a motorcade. Dr. MacInnis is a son of Mr. A. A. MacInnis, Souris.

LEGION EXECUTIVE MEETS—Disscussion on the sale of poppy wreaths, which began yesterday, and on the coming Armistice Day parade, took place at a special meeting of the executive of the Charlottetown Legion at the Legion Home last night. The organization for the sale of poppy wreaths was completed. A full agenda for the observance of Armistice Day was drawn up with Captain Reginald Mahar appointed to look after the arrangements. It was also decided that members of the Legion and veterans will attend the dedication and unveiling ceremony at St James Church next Sunday.

CELEBRATES 80TH BIRTHDAY —Mrs. Grace Myers, Crapaud, celebrated her 80th birthday on September 29, 1949 Mrs. Myers, who is active and able to look after her own household duties and still enjoys entertaining her friends, spent the day in Summerside and later returned to the home of Mrs. Amy Lowther where a surprise party was planned for 'Aunt Grace' by a few relatives. Mrs. Myers was presented with an electric lamp by those present. All join in wishing Mrs. Myers many more happy birthdays and health to enjoy them.

The proposed installation of parking meters in Charlottetown has caused increased interest locally in the manner in which this system is being operated in the Town of Summerside, where the following details have been obtained from town officials:

The meters used in Summerside were bought outright from the company, and cost about sixty-nine dollars each, with an installation charge of about six dollars. They are being paid for by the town taking 25 per cent of the receipts, the balance of 75 per cent going to the company which supplied them until such time as they are completely paid for. Then the town owns the meters and the total revenue, of course, goes wholly to the municipality.

Forty-two years of service in the Customs and Excise Department by Mr. J.A. Fraser, Customs and Excise Superviser will be terminated today by his retirement from that post. Mr. Fraser joined the Department in October, 1907 and rose through the ranks to the position of Supervisor. All his service was performed in Charlottetown.

Appreciation of his service and friendship was expressed by fellow workers from Charlottetown, Summerside and Georgetown who made him two presentations at a dinner in the Charlottetown Hotel. Presentations of a fishing rod, line and reel, and a certificate of appreciation sent from the Department at Ottawa were made by Collector of Customs, Mr. L. W. Goodwin and an address was made by Mr. Robert Acorn, Supervisor. Many tributes were paid to Mr. Fraser who expressed his thanks for the thoughtfulness of his fellow workers.

The funeral of Major Hamilton L. Bethune took place Monday afternoon from the Baptist Church where services were conducted by Rev. J.D. Davison. Dr. W.R Carson conducted Masonic services and F.W. Smith the Canadian Legion services at the grave.

Evidence of the popularity enjoyed by the late Major Bethune was clearly brought out by the large number of persons who gathered to pay their last respects.

Included in the procession were members of the 2nd Heavy Battery, the Masonic Lodge, A.F. & A.M., the Charlottetown Branch of the Canadian Legion, Honorary Pall Bearers and active pall bearers.

Honorary Pall Bearers were: Premier J. Walter Jones, J. A. Webster, Dr. Cyrus MacMillan, W. A. Gaudet, G G. Hughes, Major T. E. MacNutt, J.P. Gordon, N. W. Lowther, Dr. I.J. Yeo, Edward Dalton, L. B. MacMillan and Leo Doucette.

Interment took place in the family plot in the Catholic Cemetery, where services were conducted by Rev. Dr. McMahon.

The funeral of Mr. Doyle was largely attended.

WEDNESDAY

The O'Leary Women's Missionary Society held their annual Thankoffering service and forty-second anniversary on Thanksgiving Sunday. The church was nicely decorated with flowers and fruit. Members of the Mission Circle and Mission Band participated in the service. Mrs. Robert Woodside presided. The Scripture was read by Miss Hester Boates. A splendid history of the W.M.S. and allied missionary organizations was given by Mrs. A.J. Matheson.

FIRE ALARM — City firemen responded in full force yesterday afternoon to a false alarm at the former Gloria on Queen Street. A disconnected pipe from the furnace diverted the smoke of a few burning papers from escaping through the proper channels. A passer-by noticing the smoke in the building turned in the alarm.

FUNERAL TUESDAY—The funeral of Louis Trainor was held Tuesday morning from the Frank Hennessey Funeral Home to St. Dunstan's Basilica where services were conducted by the Rev. William McCabe who also conducted service at the grave. Pall bearers were six nephews of the deceased, Carl, Ralph, Vernon, Hugh, Ivan and Robert Trainor.

Mrs. D. E. S. Wishart, Chief Commissioner of the Canadian Girl Guides, who is spending the next few days visiting on the Island in the interests of guiding, arrived at the Summerside Airport Tuesday evening at five o'clock.

She was greeted on arrival by Mrs. J. Gordon MacDonald, Provincial Commissioner, Mrs. C. H. Beer and Miss Mona Wilson, Provincial representatives of the Dominion Council, Mrs. Fred Jenkins, Field Secretary, Miss Carrie Holman, Commissioner of Lone Guides, Miss Lillian Duchemin, Public Relations Commissioner, Mrs. D. Arnett, Two Brownies, Misses Edith Poole and Patsy Noonan, and a Girl Guide—Miss Joyce MacDonald presented the Chief Commissioner with an illuminated itinerary of her trip to the Island.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY —The funeral of the late John R. Brazel was held Tuesday morning from his late residence, Johnston's River, to St. Patrick's Church, Fort Augustus, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Louis Callaghan who also conducted services at the grave. The pallbearers were Melvin Brazel, John Brazel, Dennis Murnaghan, Rudolph Murnaghan, John Murnaghan and Andrew Murnaghan. Interment was in the church cemetery.

DEATH OF FORMER ISLANDER—News has been received here of the death in Ladner, B.C., of Mrs. W. C. Pybus, formerly Miss Christina MacNeill, of Belmont, P. E. I. She was a daughter of Mr. Artemas McNeill of that place, and a granddaughter on the maternal side of the Hon. Jeremiah Simpson, of Bay View. Mrs. Pybus, who was seventy-two years of age, is survived by her husband, two sons and a daughter, and also by two sisters, Mrs. Lewis, of Ladner, and Miss M. McNeill, of Boston.

Rt. Rev. R. H. Waterman, D.D., Bishop of the Diocese of Nova Scotia, administered the sacrament of confirmation to a small number of candidates in All Souls' Chapel at St. Peter's Cathedral yesterday.

Prior to this service, His Grace addressed the afternoon meeting of the Women's Auxiliary.

At a supper meeting at St. Paul's last evening, Bishop Waterman addressed a gathering of laymen.

He leaves this morning for the mainland.

Bishop Waterman held services at Alberton and Port Hill last Sunday and administered confirmation at Port Hill.

The closing date for competitor's entries for the Handicraft Competition, which is being held in connection with the South Shore Musical Festival, in Summerside High School Auditorium, on Saturday, November 12th, has been changed from October 22nd, to November 5th. This will be welcome news as so many schools have been closed for fall vacations.

Miss Maylea Boswell, supervisor of P.E.I. Women's Institutes, sent out the designs for the Handicraft articles to the secretaries of all the Institutes along the South Shore. Any one interested may contact her local W.I. secretary, or the school teachers. If you do not have a W.I. sewing class in connection with your Institute, why not start one? However, you do not need to belong to a sewing group to enter the competition.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Neil Murchison of Point Prim were taken by surprise on Friday, Oct. 7, when their children and families from near and far gathered to help them celebrate their golden wedding anniversary. Seldom does the fiftieth wedding anniversary come to folks so hale and hearty as this popular couple.

A beautiful stationary rocker, an occasional chair and an end table were presented to the happy couple by the children. A Bible inscribed in gold leaf was also presented to them by their granddaughter, Sandra MacLeod on behalf of the grand-children. The address was read by Rev. A. A. MacLeod of Hillsborough, N. B.

LEGION CARD PARTY—There was a large attendance at the regular weekly Canadian Legion card party last night at the Legion Home. Proceeds go to provide cigarettes and other treats for veterans in hospital. Last night prize winners were: ladies first, Miss Bessie Jay; second, Mrs. J. R. Walton; consolation, Mrs. M. Walker. Men's first, Albert Peters; second, A. J. Coffin; consolation, R. J. MacDonald. Door prize, Lorne Arsenault, Freezeout, Mrs. J. R. Walton and Bill Stewart.

SODALITY MEETING — A year filled with activity was the verdict passed on the report of last year's activities of the Sodality of Our Lady read by the President, Miss Alma Sheen at the Society's first meeting this year which was held in the Assembly Hall at Notre Dame Academy Sunday afternoon. Following the prayer by which the meeting was opened, the minutes of the last meeting were read by Miss Claire McWade, Vice President, in the absence of the secretary, Miss Ruth McWade. A timely and instructional talk on the qualities necessary in the officers of any society was given by Sister St. Mary Raymond to the well attended meeting.

The opening supper meeting of the Laymen's Association of St. Paul's Church was held last evening at 6.00 p.m. when upwards of sixty-five members of the Association sat down to a bountiful supper provided by the Ladies' Guild of St. Paul's Church.

Among the guests present was

The Right Rev. R.H. Waterman, Co-adjutor Bishop of the Diocese of Nova Scotia who is now visiting the various rural parishes of the Deanery and who in a few short pleasing remarks thanked the Association for their kind invitation to the meeting.

The special speaker of the evening was Professor Frank MacKinnon, principal of Prince of Wales College who took for his subject, "Democracy and Religion" and in a very clear and concise manner gave a very interesting talk on the subject.

The many friends of Mr. Stephen Shaw were saddened to hear of his death on Monday, July 11th, at the Prince Edward Island Hospital which he had entered three weeks before for treatment. Although he had been in poor health for some months, Stephen, as he was familiarly known, had continued to visit around among his friends until he entered the hospital.

Mr. Shaw was born in New Perth, son of the late Robert Shaw and Catherine MacDougall, and for many years had carried on farming on the old homestead where he was so well and favorably known. In 1938 he and Mrs. Shaw moved to Charlottetown where they lived for the past eleven years. He leaves to mourn his wife, formerly Ethel Beer of Montague, and two daughters, Mrs. Wilfred Livingston and Mrs. George Craig, of this city, a sister, Mrs. Sidney Vickerson in Washington, and a brother George in Saskatchewan.

The funeral which was held from the home of his daughter Mrs. Wilfred Livingstone, was very largely attended by friends from the country and city and the many beautiful flowers testified to the esteem in which he was held.

The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Carlyle Webster, assisted by members of Zion Presbyterian Church who sang "Abide With Me". The remains were laid to rest in the People's Cemetery.

THURSDAY

Major and Mrs. Hutchinson, in charge of the local Salvation Army Corps. have received word that they are to be delegates to the 67th Annual Congress to be held in Toronto from Friday Oct. 21st to Oct. 26.

A banquet sponsored by Memorial L.O.B.A. was well attended by the members of Boyne Lodge and friends on Tuesday evening. This occasion marked a very historical mile stone for it was just one hundred years since the first Orange Lodge was organized in Charlottetown.

This Association supports the British traditions in its struggle for "Freedom to all people and a united Canada." There were present the Grand Master and his executive.

FUNERAL WEDNESDAY— The funeral of Dennis Bolger was held Wednesday morning from the Frank Hennessey Funeral Home to St. Ann's Church, Lot 65, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. George MacCormack who also conducted service at the grave. Rev. Wilfred Keefe was present in the sanctuary. Pallbearers were: Walter Toole, Charles Toole, Stephen Murray, Wendel Beaton.

JUNIOR A.Y.P.A. FORMED — A new organization, to be known as St. Paul's Junior A.Y.P.A. was formed on Tuesday evening, by an enthusiastic group of young people, who met at the home of Mollie Lewis. A slate of officers was drawn up, for presentation at a meeting to be held on Wednesday, October 19, and plans were made for the opening meeting, a Hallowe'en Dance, which is to be held on November 2nd, and to which all young people, 15-19, will be invited.

The death occurred in Abney on Wednesday, September 7th, 1949, of Mary E. Giddings, widow of the late Neil Giddings in her 87th year.

She had been enjoying good health until a few days before her death, when she suddenly became ill, and passed away on the above date.

Left to mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother, are six daughters and one son, and two sisters, Miss Matilda White, Murray River and Mrs. Isabell Livingstone, Watertown, Mass.

The many friends of Mrs. Samuel MacNeill were saddened to hear of her death on Friday morning, September 23rd, at her home in Nine Mile Creek. Although not enjoying good health for the past five years she was able to be around and attend to her household duties until three weeks before her passing.

Mrs. MacNeill was born in Cumberland on June 3rd, 1877, daughter of the late George Gorveatt and his wife Harriet Ladner Gorveatt. In May 1911 she married Samuel MacNeill and moved to Nine Mile Creek where she lived for the past thirty-eight years.

She leaves to mourn her passing beside a sorrowing husband, two daughters, Catherine, Mrs. Thomas Lowther, New Dominion and Georgetta, Mrs. Milton MacNevin, Canoe Cove, five grand children, one brother George Gorveatt of Cumberland and three sisters, Mrs. Daniel MacPhee, Cumberland; Mrs. Daniel N. Taylor, Nine Mile Creek and Mrs. Garnet Campbell, Rocky Point; one sister and two brothers predeceased her.

TRIDUUM CELEBRATED — A Triduum in honor of Saint Gerard, a Redemptorist Lay Brother, was concluded last evening at the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer. The Triduum opened on Sunday, the feast day of the Saint. Special preacher for the Triduum devotions was Rev. Richard Baines, C.ss.R., who gave three forceful sermons on the life of the Redemportist saint. Large congregations attended both morning Masses and evening devotions during the Triduum. Celebrant of Solemn Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament last evening was Rev. Father Baines. Deacon and sub deacon were Rev. P. Hennessey, C.ss.R., and Rev. J. McGillivary, C.ss.R.

DIAMOND WEDDING — A well known and widely respected couple resident in East Royalty for many years, Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Smith, yesterday celebrated the 60th anniversary of their marriage. During the afternoon and evening they were at home to their many friends in the City and vicinity and were congratulated by all on the attainment of their diamond jubilee. In the evening members of the session and stewards of Trinity Church, of which both are members and of which Mr Smith has been an honored elder for many years, called to present their best wishes and a floral tribute to Mrs. Smith. The feelings of the congregation were aptly presented by Rev. Mr. Ashford. All joined in the hope that they would be spared for many more years of continued health and happiness.

A fractured skull suffered in a fall from a car near Vernon River about 2.30 a.m. yesterday morning resulted in the death of Mr. Harrison Yates, 35, of 207 King St., Charlottetown, about eight hours later in the Prince Edward Island Hospital. The accident occurred at Shaw's Marsh, about 1-2 mile east of Vernon River

The deceased in company with his wife, Mr. Leslie Matthews, and Miss June Herring had taken a lady and three children to Cardigan. On return he is alleged to have asked the driver, Mr. Matthews, to let him out of the car for some reason. He opened the door before the driver could stop and in doing so was thrown to the pavement.

The late Mr. Yates was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Yates, Valley Street. He is survived by his wife, five young children and a brother, Myron.

It is not known whether or not an inquest will be held.

FRIDAY

Fall shipping of produce to Newfoundland and St. Pierre by sea is now in full swing from the busy center of Cardigan. During this week the firm of John A. MacDonald and Co., completed loading the Newfoundland owned schooner Ariel with potatoes, vegetables and livestock. In addition a car load of imported shingles and a carload of brick were part of the cargo. The Ariel was scheduled to sail for St. Pierre and Newfoundland on Wednesday, weather conditions permitting. On Tuesday the motor vessel Elizabeth and Alice owned by Mr. Albert Griffin sailed from Cardigan for Newfoundland with a cargo of mixed produce and livestock, put on board by John A. MacDonald & Co.

THANKOFFERING — The annual Thankoffering service of Geddie Memorial Auxiliary of the W. M. S. was held in the Old Church, New London, on Oct. 16th, 1949. The Minister, Rev. D. A. Campbell conducted the service. The choir, with Mrs. Harry Underhill as organist, was assisted by several members of Long River Presbyterian choir. Mr. Edison Raynor, Kensington, was guest soloist, and rendered most acceptably two selections, "Beside Blue Galilee" and "Be Still, My Soul". Miss Marion Lockhart was his accompanist. Mr. Campbell delivered a fine sermon, basing his remarks on three texts: "Bear ye one another's burdens"; "For every man shall bear his own burden"; "Cast thy burden upon the Lord." A large congregation was present, and a splendid offering was received, which will help to advance the work of His kingdom in the mission fields.

DWELLING DESTROYED — Fire breaking out about 10:30 yesterday morning totally destroyed the dwelling house of Mr. Bernard MacDonald, Kensington Road. Origin of the fire was not determined. Neither Mr. or Mrs. MacDonald were present at the outbreak of the blaze. City and Parkdale firemen responded to the call but the building was lost before either could arrive. Lack of telephone facilities prevented the submission of a prompt alarm.

KINSMEN MEETING — An address by Mr. Frank MacKinnon Principal of Prince of Wales College, on education, government, and the objects of the Kinsmen Club highlighted the bi-monthly meeting of the Kinsmen at The Charlottetown last night. Chairman was Mr. Stewart J. Ives. President Dr. L.I. Duffy gave an interesting report of the District Council meeting held at Moncton on Saturday, Oct. 15. Chairman of the funds raising committee, Mr. Fremont Archer, reported that arrangements are being completed for the Hallowe'en party for the City children and also for the Kinsmen Peanut day on Nov. 4 The Hallowe'en party will be held on Oct. 31.

Two out of the Province men, Mr. Filmer Hubble, Winnipeg, Man., and Mr. John Lee, St. Francis Xavier University, have been secured to act as adjudicators at the local 1950 Musical Festival, it was disclosed at a meeting of the P. E. I. Musical Festival Association held in the Y last night. Col. L. T. Lowther presided. The Festival will be held here the first week in May.

ENTERTAINS STUDENTS — Displaying talents which have made him internationally famous, Mr. Frank Crawshaw, screen, stage and radio artist entertained a group of students in the Prince of Wales College auditorium for over an hour last evening. With a one man stage show which varied from orations of Mark Antony to the imitating of a drunken soldier, he kept the group in a state of enjoyment which was expressed by repeated encores. In an admonitive talk to the students following the performance, he impressed upon them the value of self expression.

Establishment here of a heavy fishing industry with a fish drying plant and other services is under consideration and an engineer is at present surveying the possibilities, Hon. Eugene Cullen, newly appointed Minister of Industry and Natural Resources, announced at the annual meeting yesterday of the Prince Edward Island Fisheries Federation.

Other projects in which his Department is engaged, designed to assist and develop fisheries, are bait freezing and the quick-freezing of mackerel, and a follow-up on the recent Federal report on scallop beds in Island waters, Mr Cullen said.

The Minister assured the meeting that his Department wishes to help the Island fishing industry in every way and that he, himself, would give the problems his personal attention. He referred to a small reduction in freight rates to Halifax already effected through his Department by Mr. J.F. Connolly's efforts.

More than 450 girl guides and brownies held a rally in the Y. M. C.A. last evening in honor of their Chief Guide, Mrs. D.E.S. Wishart who wound up a three-day visit here yesterday by meeting guides in Queen's County and Montague. Mrs. Wishart left this morning by plane for Moncton to continue her first Maritime tour.

The guides and brownies at the Y were grouped around a campfire and magic toadstool. After a sing song Miss. Iphigenie Arsenault, Division Commissioner, welcomed the Chief Guide who spoke to the guides and brownies on the great game of guiding.

Mrs. Wishart then presented a Gold Cord to Maureen Bohaker of the 7th Charlottetown (Trinity) Company and congratulated her on attaining this Cord which is the highest award in Girl Guiding.

A Rustico Guide, Elizabeth Doyle, on behalf of all assembled thanked the Chief Guide for her kindness in coming to Prince Edward Island and said her visit would indeed be an inspiration to all who had the privilege of meeting and hearing her. The Brownies then gave the Grand Howl, and the Rally closed with the singing of Evensong and Taps.

The community of Howlan and surrounding districts was deeply saddened on Monday afternoon at 4 p.m. on Oct. 3rd when it became known that Mrs. Caroline Finnan had passed away at her home at the age of 75 years.

The late Mrs. Finnan was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lemabe Arsenault of Howlan and when only an infant was adopted by her uncle (as she was one of twins) Mr. and Mrs. Prosper Arsenault also of Howlan who brought her up to womanhood till she married the late Albert Finnan of Egmont Bay. However they settled in Howlan where a family of 10 children were born to them. Her husband predeceased her about 16 years ago

She leaves to mourn their irreparable loss the following sons and daughters Jack of Woodstock, P.E.I. (Mary) Mrs. John Cahill of Summerside, Lawrence of Alberton. (Julia) Mrs. Rosamund Casey and Peter of Rumford, Me. Albert of Souris, Pius of Campbellton, (Olive) Mrs. Frank Gallant, Anthony, Gilbert and James all of Howlan. The late Mrs. Finnan had about 50 grand children and 12 great grand children whom she dearly loved and who will always cherish fond memories of her. Also the following sister and brothers who survive her Mrs. Mathilda Arsenault, and Jack of Summerside whom she was twin sister to, Joseph of West Brook, Me. and Maurice of Howlan, the following sisters and brothers who pre-deceased her were Julia, (Mary) Mrs. Adolph Arsenault of Egmont Bay, Felix of Reading, Mass, and Peter who was the victim of a sad drowning accident about 35 years ago here in Howlan.

The body of Mr. John Hudson of Summerside was found by the railway tracks on the outskirts of Sackville, N. B., about two o'clock yesterday morning by the crew of a Halifax-bound train from Montreal. He had apparently been struck by an earlier train and killed instantly.

Mr. Hudson had left his North Market Street home in Summerside at noon on Wednesday for Moncton, N. B., where he was employed with the firm of Hudson, McMackin and Company, chartered accountants. Mrs. Hudson was notified of his death shortly after two o'clock yesterday morning. Mr. Hudson was 45 years of age.

Besides Mrs. Hudson, the former Vera Rogers of Ontario, six children survive their father, the eldest eight years and the youngest seven weeks. Mr. Hudson was a native of Radcliffe, England. He came to Prince Edward Island originally as a member of the R. A. F. As a civilian he lived in St. Eleanors first, later moving to Summerside. He was employed for a time with the Unemployment Insurance Commission.

Mr. Hudson's mother had been visiting him and his family during the summer and left on return to England about two weeks ago. The body is resting at the Compton Funeral Home and funeral services will be held there on Saturday at 2 p.m. Burial will be in the People's Cemetery.—S.
