Mule Transport On Fire—A Fierce Struggle With The Flames.

ALL DAY FIGHT WITH BOERS.

RICHMOND, CAPE COLONY, June 27.—(Special).—The Cape Colony Boers, commanded by Malan and Smith attacked Richmond at day-break, and the fight lasted till dusk, when the Boers retired, the British reinforcements coming up.

A TRANSPORT ON FIRE.

NEW ORLEANS, June 27.—(Special).—The British mule transport Monterey, from Cape Town, just arrived here, had a terrible experience with fire at sea.

AWFUL FIGHT WITH FLAMES.

The men were over the side and suspended partly submerged in water, and so the ship battered into port just above the water line.

For hours they poured water into her hold, finally subduing the flames.

THE CAUSE OF NERVOUS HEAD-ACHE.

This most distressing and common malady doubtless has its origin in some unbalanced condition of the nervous system. Probably the simplest, safest and most efficient remedy is Felson's Nervine.

SCHOOLS CLOSING

Interesting Exercises at the Three Schools

ADDRESS TO MR. MILLER

Accompanied by a Beautiful Chair.—The Honor List.

The city schools closed for the summer holidays yesterday. The usual exercises were gone through, viz: teaching in the several departments for the first half hour, when the distribution of certificates and prizes was conducted by Mr. S. F. Blanchard, chairman of School Board.

The closing exercises of West Kent School took place yesterday from 10.30 till 11.30 in the presence of a large number of parents and friends of the pupils and the institution.

DEAR SIR.—It was with feelings of deep regret that we learned some time ago of your resignation as Principal of our school, and now that the day has arrived when you sever your connection with us, we deem it but fitting not to let you depart without testifying in some form our appreciation of you, both as a teacher and friend.

To your associate teachers, you have always been kind, considerate, and helpful, never using your authority harshly, but seeking rather by kindly counsel and suggestion, to promote that harmony so essential in a well-governed, and well taught school.

To the pupils, you have always been just; and we have no doubt that many of them, as into the busy world they severally go, will remember your kind words of advice, and will find them to be a source of strength in the hour of trial.

We ask you to accept this small gift as a memento of the good wishes of the teachers and pupils of West Kent School.

J. M. Duncan, E. W. Bonness, John F. Owen, J. W. Young, M. Rose Bethune, Flora McKenzie, A. A. Waldman, E. G. McMillan, Edith Stranberg, Marjorie L. Brumme, Misses Finlayson

Mr. Miller replied in an appropriate speech in which he referred to the good feelings which had always existed between himself and fellow teachers, and efficient work done by the institution and the deep regret with which he now severs his connection with the school. He was followed by Mr. J. D. Seaman and Mr. B. F. Nash each of whom made kindly mention of Mr. Miller in the capacity of Principal of West Kent.
