Deanna Durbin In "100 Men And A Girl" At Prince Edward

The girl who has the most unusual singing voice in motion pictures, Deanna Durbin, is the star of the new film, "100 Men and a Girl," a comedy drama with music, which opened yesterday at the Prince Edward Theatre for a three day run.

Deanna first charmed you when she sang over the radio. She delighted you with her memorable performance in "Three Smart Girls." Now she will capture you in her latest production. Featured with her in the offering is Leopold Stokowski, one of the world's foremost orchestra conductors. He has developed a new method of reproducing music for the screen which will thrill your senses.

The excellent cast includes Adolphe Menjou, Alice Brady, Eugene Pallette, Mischa Auer as a mad musician, Billy Gilbert, Alma Kruger, Christian Rub and Jack Mulhall. The picture was produced by the same team that made "Three Smart Girls," director Henry Koster and associate producer Joseph Pasternak.

The story of "100 Men and a Girl" concerns a musician's daughter who helps an orchestra of 100 men find their place in the sun when they are facing a serious crisis. During the course of the production, Deanna Durbin sings four songs destined to live in your heart long after you hear them.

If you appreciate vibrant drama, if you enjoy sparkling comedy, if you respond to marvelous music, you will want to see this film. You will be enchanted by Deanna Durbin in "100 Men and a Girl," the picture gives new rhythm to human lives.

"The 3 Mesquiteers" At Capitol

"Heart of the Rockies," which opened yesterday at the Capitol Theatre, promises to be one of the outstanding western dramas of the year. With a blue ribbon cast headed by the inimitable "Three Mesquiteers," it is said to be tops in action entertainment, with a sterling plot, and sure-fire thrill situations.

The Three Mesquiteers, Bob Livingston, Ray Corrigan and Max Terhune, find themselves in a different predicament, with wild animals making way with their cattle, but the Rangers from the game preserve forbidden by law their killing any of the marauders. The boys engage the aid of a clan of backwoods trappers, paying a bounty on each animals killed on their land in the act of destroying their cattle. Unbeknownst to the Mesquiteers, Ed Dawson and his clan are in reality the true cattle rustlers, cloaking their activity by forcing Davy, a small son of the clan, to stooge for them.

Matters come to a head when one of the Rangers, who guard the game in the nearby national park, is killed, and Stony is named as the murderer. Stony's many threats when the Rangers interfered with his protecting his cattle herds, have placed him in a perilous predicament, but Stony gets out of it, with the aid of his fellow "Mesquiteers," and Lorna, the heroine, who is most appealingly played by Lynn Roberts.

Sammy McKim wins new laurels as the small boy who is forced by his father to aid in the rustling of cattle, under the threat of mistreating his mother if he refuses or squeals.

STELLA MARIS CREDIT UNION LIMITED, NORTH RUSTICO

The second annual meeting of the Stella Maris Credit Union Limited was held at North Rustico on January 18, 1938. Mr. James C. Blacquire, President, presided. There was a large attendance of members which is a clear proof of the eminent interest in the progress of the union.

The President gave a report of the duties exercised by the Directors during the past seven months in which the union has been in operation. For this short period the membership showed an increase of sixtyeight per cent. The reports of the several committees were laudable. The following are the officers for the coming year: Directors, Mr. James C. Blacquire, President, Mr. John L. Doiron, Vice Pres., Mr. James Allan Gauthier, Treasurer, Mr. James V. Gallant, and M. Joseph Aeneas Perry. Supervisory Committee: Mr J. J. Blacquire, Mr. George A. LeClair and Mr. Prosper LeClair. Credit Committee: Mr. James Lawrence Gauthier, Mr. Joseph C. Pineau and Mr. John Emile Gauthier.

As in the previous fall Study Club work has been resumed, in view of opening the mental alleyways into the co-operative streams in order that the members may put their knowledge into something practical. As a result of their study a Buying Club has been formed, which has alreay proved its worth. Having increased their knowledge of co-operatives the fishermen of the district have seen fit to organize a branch of the Fishermen's Union of P. E. I., which has already shown signs of progress. At the organization meeting the following officers were elected for a term of one year. Mr. George A. LeClair, President, Mr. James C. Blacquire, Vice Pres., Mr. Alban Peters, Treasurer. Committee: Mr. James Lawrence Gauthier, Mr. Archibald Hartling, Mr. Wallace Pursey and Mr. Gilbert Blacquire. The Union under the capable management of the President and the Executive have tried to put co-operation into action and have met with success from the fact that they have purchased for themselves a factory and have erected a splendid icehouse both of which should give them greater facility in the carrying out of their work during the fishing season.

Urges Protection Of British Car Industry

LONDON, Feb. 2 —(CP Cable)—Sir Arnold Wilson, Conservative, today warned the Government against injuring British industry by lowering tariffs on United States automobiles or by admitting goods from countries with low standards and wages.

Sir Arnold introduced a private member's motion, seconded by Mrs F. Horsbrugh, Conservative, asking the Government in trade negotiations with dominions and foreign countries to watch the effect of imports produced under low standards.

Concerning automobiles, Sir Arnold declared the United States already sells Great Britain four times more than she buys and asked: "So we want cheap cars."

"I wish all success to the President of the Board of Trade in his attempt to reach an agreement with America," he said, "but I hope the interests of our great motorcar industry won't be imperilled."

Meeting Of Local C.W.L.

The February meeting of the Catholic Women's League was held Tuesday evening in the Business Girls' Hall with Mrs Frank Walker, president. The newly-appointed Chaplain Father Wilfred Keefe was present.

The meeting opened with the League prayer and the minutes of previous monthly and executive meetings were read and approved The Treasurer was not present so this report was not presented.

Correspondence was read and discussed. The report of Social Service Convenor was presented by convenor, who reported that as yet the theatre management have failed to procure a suitable picture for our sponsorship. She also stated that the Sisters extended an invitation to all C. W. L. members who have always helped Social Service, to visit their new sewing rooms and assist with the work carried on.

The Convenor of study clubs reported that a handicraft study club had been started and asked Mrs. Creamer to take the leadership of a religious study group.

The President then welcomed Father Keefe on behalf of the mmbers as our chaplain and called on him to speak to the members.

Father Keefe expressed pleasure at being with the C. W. L. and assured the members of his assistance at all times.

Mrs. Casey gave a talk on the aims of the League and the work it has carried on in Charlottetown during past years. Mrs. Murray also spoke along these lines outlining the activities that the League sponsored in the past.

A discussion took place with most of the members taking part, on some way to raise funds. It was decided to hold a cake sale, if a place and date could be procured.

A convenor was named by the President to take charge of same.

All business being completed the motion to adjourn was called after which the members were introduced to Father Keefe.

Sea View and Vicinity

February has come reminding us all that the winter is half gone. January has passed and all through the month we only experienced the one snowstorn and that was only a slight storm. During the past week the cars have been very much in evidence in a great many cases taking the place of the horse and sleigh. The sleighing on the land is very poor but the ice in the rivers and bays is exceptionally good.

The funeral of the late Mr. James M. Thompson was held from his residence in Darnley on Thursday afternoon. Many friends were present to pay their last tribute of respect. The service at the home and grave was conducted by Rev. Mr. Rhoad's, Kensington, and his message was much appreciated by all. He left many comforting thoughts to all bereaved friends. Favourite hymns of the deceased were sung at the close of the service the remains were bourne to the cemetery at Malpeque and tenderly laid to rest in the family plot there. The pall-bearers were Caisley Adams, Hurtol McLeod, Frank McNutt, Alexander Champion, James Champion and Colin Mountain. There were several beautiful floral tributes from sympathizing friends. The funeral was under the direction of Mr. Joseph Davison, undertaker, Kensington.

A most successful variety concert was held in Darnley Hall on Friday evening, Jan. 28th under the auspices of the Darnley W. L. There was a large crowd present and the best of order prevailed. Mr. Bruce Crozier capably presided and after a neat speech the following program was carried out: Quartette, Put Me In Your Pocket; Dialogue, Cora's Callers; Monologue, Mrs. Harry Crozier; Step-dancing, Joyce McKay; Duet, Louise McKay and Mary E. Thompson; Solo, Mrs. Josie MacGregor; Intermission and sale of candy. Monologue, Jean McKay; Duet, Joyce McKay and Elmer Mickey; Dialogue, Making Jelly For the Minister; Duet, Joyce and Louise McKay. Fish pond was then introduced and created much merriment as well as added to the funds. God Save The King brought this splendid entertainment to a close All taking part deserve special mention for the way the program was carried out, a creditable sum was realized.

Miss Ellen Harrington who has been laid aside from her duties as principal of Darnley School has returned to resume her duties much improved in health. Her brother Keith Harrington supplied for her during her illness.

A host of friends are indeed sorry to learn that the condition of Mr. John S. Cousins was such that it was necessary for him to enter Prince Edward Island Hospital for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sutherland are receiving congratulations these days on the arrival of a baby boy to their home on Tuesday, Jan. 25th.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Burt, Summerside, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Burt recently. They made the trip by auto.

Mr. John E. Cousins was a recent visitor to Saint John, N.B., on business.

Dr. R. D. MacNeil, Kensington, was a recent visitor to Sea View on professional duties.

Many friends in this community were sorry to learn of the passing of Mr. Herbert Paynter at his home in Long River. The late Mr. Paynter was well and favorably known in this community. The funeral services were held from his late residence on Friday afternoon and was very largely attended by friends from far and near. The service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Somers assisted by Rev. Mr. Detlor. Rev. Mr. Somers gave a most comforting message of hope to all bereaved friends. The hymns sang were all favorites of the deceased led by the choir. Mr. Murdock MacLeod sang with deep feeling the hymn Face to Face. At the close of the service the remains were taken to the cemetery of Geddie Memorial Church and tenderly laid to rest. There are left to mourn the passing of a kind and loving husband and father his sorrowing widow besides a family, Mrs. Philips, Summerside, Mrs. Hiscott, Stanley, Mrs. Earle Adams and Mrs. Lloyd Adams both of Darnley, Everett, Long River, George, Long River and Frances on the homestead to all sorrowing friends kind sympathy is extended in their sad bereavement.

Many are indeed sorry to learn of the illness of Elsie, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ansel Champion, Darnley.

Mr. William Champion, Kensington, motored to Darnley recently the guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Champion.

In spite of the thaw of the early part of last week the ice on the skating rink here was in good condition for the league game on Saturday evening between the Nationals of French River and the Maple Leafs of Sea View. There was a large crowd present and watched the game with keen interest which finally ended in a score 15-0 in favor of Sea View. The Maple Leafs so far have been winning honors on all occasions and the people of this community are indeed proud of the Sea View Maple Leafs.

Miss Cora McGougan, Malpeque, spent the week-end in Baltic the guest of Miss Margaret Cousins.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Burt are the happy parents on the arrival of a baby boy to their home on Jan. 26th.

Mrs. McArthur, Elmsdale, is visiting in Darnley the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Herbert Coulson.

The half-yearly examination of Sea View School was held on Thursday afternoon. There was a large number of parents present. The Principal, Mr. James R. Murphy, with the help of the assistant teacher, Miss Marjorie Bryenton conducted the examination which was in the form of contests. This was most interesting and greatly enjoyed by the visitors. The ready answers of the pupils to all questions testified to the careful training by both teachers. Several present expressed their appreciation The teachers then treated the pupils and visitors to a generous treat of candy. The National Anthem brought this interesting gathering to a close.—V.
