As a Food For the Skin

Powders may cover up the disfiguring eruptions, but can never cure them, and are positively injurious, because they clog up the pores of the skin. Dr. Chase's Ointment is a food for the skin. It is readily absorbed, and thoroughly cures each and every skin disease, making the skin smooth, soft and clear. No woman's toilet is complete without Dr. Chase's Ointment, for, besides being the most perfect skin beautifier obtainable, it can be used in a score of different ways. It absolutely cures eczema, salt rheum and the itching to which women are especially subject. When the feet are sore and chafed with walking an application of Dr. Chase's Ointment takes out the smarting and allays the inflammation in a surprisingly short time. Then for burns, scalds and every sort of chafing, irritation or eruption of the skin, Dr. Chase's Ointment affords a safe and certain cure. It has come to be indispensable in scores of thousands of homes; 50 cents a box, at all dealers', or Edman, Bates & Co., Toronto.

KINGSTON is going to have a grand entertainment and basket social on Wednesday evening, the 20th. inst. The program will be choice and suit the tastes of all parties wishing a good evening's enjoyment. All will do well to attend. Proceeds in aid of Kingston Methodist Church. Admission 10 cents. Ladies with baskets free.

The congregation of West River and Green Hill celebrated the silver wedding of their minister and his wife at the Durmanse on the 8th inst, and a right royal celebration it proved to be. It took the form of a surprise party and was indeed, a real and glad surprise to the pastor and his house. A committee of ladies entered and took possession of the manse in the afternoon, and upset things generally in preparation for those who were to follow later on. Tables were spread and loaded down with all the good things that kindness could suggest and cookery supply. Seats were provided, lamps trimmed and decorated, and everything made ready in the home. Outside, the sleigh-bells early began to jingle, and the filled and the neighboring barns, and the roads lined with blanketed horses, and soon the manse was packed more closely than ever before with a happy, hearty people from every part of the large congregation. At eight o'clock, Rev. A. W. Thompson, on behalf of the committee, called the audience to order, and in a humorous and exceedingly felicitous address, told the business of the evening, and offered kind congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Coffin, and then presented them with appropriate gifts to the value of more than one hundred dollars as mementoes of twenty-five years of happy marriage life, and as token of kind feeling and appreciation of the whole congregation for their minister and his helpmate, after six years residence and labor in their midst. To this Mr. Coffin for himself and family, replied, expressing thanks and bidding a welcome to all, and with evident feeling, he referred to the happiness of his pastorate hitherto, an expressed the hope that the future of his ministry, with all its short-comings, might be more worthy of so considerate and generous a people, and be attended with larger success than ever before. Personal congratulations followed and many cheering words were spoken, and good wishes expressed; and after the invocation of the divine blessing, the whole company sat down to partake, together of the good things provided and a genuine "love feast" was enjoyed by all. The evening was spent in conversation with instrumental music and song, and parting with "God be with you till we meet again", everyone went away satisfied that Christian good-fellowship means more than a name.—Picton Advocate

THEORIES ABOUT FOOD.

Also a Few Facts on the Same Subject.

We hear much nowadays about health foods and hygienic living, about vegetarianism and many other fads along the same line.

Restaurants may be found in the cities where no meat, pastry or coffee is served and the food crank is in his glory, and arguments and theories galore advanced to prove that meat was never intended for human stomach, and almost make us believe that our sturdy ancestors who lived four score years in robust health on roast beef, pork and mutton must have been grossly ignorant to the law of health.

One forefather had other things to do than formulate theories about the food they ate. A worm welcome was extended to any kind from bacon to acorns.

A healthy appetite and common sense are excellent guides to follow in matters of diet, and a mixed diet of grains, fruits and meats is undoubtedly the best.

As compared with grains and vegetables meat furnishes the most nutriment in a highly concentrated form and is digested and assimilated more quickly than vegetables and grains.

Dr. Julius Remmon on this subject says: Nervous persons, people run down in health and of low vitality should eat meat and plenty of it. If the digestion is too feeble at first it may be easily corrected by the regular use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal. Two of these excellent tablets taken after dinner will digest several thousand grains of meat, eggs or other animal food in three hours, and no matter how weak the stomach may be, no trouble will be experienced if a regular practice is made of using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets because they supply the pepsin and diastase necessary to perfect digestion, and every form of indigestion will be overcome by their use.

That large class of people who come under the head of nervous dyspeptics should eat plenty of meat and insure its proper digestion by the daily use of a safe harmless digestive medicine like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets composed of the natural digestive principles, pepsin, diastase, fruit acids, and salts, which actually perform the work of digestion. Cheap cathartic medicines, masquerading under the name of dyspepsia cures are useless for indigestion as they have absolutely no effect upon the actual digestion of food.

Dyspepsia in all its many forms is simply a failure of the stomach to digest food and the sensible way to solve the riddle and cure the dyspepsia is to make daily use at meal time of a preparation like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which is endorsed by the medical profession and known to contain active digestive principles.

All druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at 50c. for full treatment.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS

Mr. Andrew Duffin of Aultsville, Ont., writes:—"I was troubled with Bright's disease of the kidneys for five years. I tried a number of doctors and preparations, but got no relief. My son advised the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I got a box, and to my surprise, I got relief at once, and am now thoroughly cured." One pill a dose 25 cents a box.
