SOCIAL GATHERING.—On the eve of October 1st, inst. the members of the Ladies Aid Society of Port Wood Hall, the Sabbath School Scholars with their teachers and a number of invited guests, met at the home of Mrs. A. Blue, Little Sands to spend a social hour Graphophone selections and piano music by Miss May McLean were much enjoyed as well as the singing of the old Scotch songs. A gift of money with a pleasing address, read by Miss Verna Dixon was presented to Mrs. A. J. McDonald who acted as organist at the Sabbath services, Mrs. McDonald fittingly replied thanking the friends for their kindness. Not the least of the enjoyment was the bountiful supper provided by the lady members The gentlemen also gave their united aid in partaking of the refreshments which they pronounced to be superior quality. A vote of thanks moved by Mr. H. McNeill, and responded to by Mr. A. Bell, was tendered to Mrs. Blue and family, also to the members who helped to make the evening an enjoyable one. After the exchange of good wishes and the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" the happy evening came to a close.

IN MEMORIAM

THE LATE HECTOR McKAY

The funeral of the late Hector McKay took place on Wednesday 13th instant from the McLean Undertaking Parlors where service was conducted by the Rev. E. Mac Dougall. The remains were taken to Tryon for interment, the service being held in the United Church, the Rev. Mr. McDougal again officiating. There was a large attendance of friends and neighbors of the deceased who had lived in Tryon for the past fifty years and where he was highly esteemed by all.

He was born in DeSable 76 years ago, a son of the late John McKay and his wife, fromerly Florence McNevin. He leaves to mourn two brothers, Alexander McKay of Summerside and Colin McKay of East Bideford, also four sisters Mrs. Donald McKinnon, Summerside; Mrs Neil McNevin, Victoria Mrs Donald McFadyen, Boston and Mrs Leonard Rogerson, Milo, Lot

To the bereaved The Guardian tenders sincere sympathy.

MRS. MURDOCK GRAHAM

A gloom was cast over the community of Bradalbane on the morning of October 4th when it became known that Mrs. Murdock Graham had passed to her eternal home after a severe illness which she patiently endured. She will be much missed in her hospitable home as she made one and all welcome by her cheerful smiles. She was a daughter of the late Alexander Mc Pherson of Glen Valley. She leaves to mourn besides her husband four sons and four daughters, Kennetl and Alexander of West Sommerville, Mass, Angus and William of Winnipeg, Man., Mrs. James Todd of Manitoba, Mrs. H. B. McLeod of Hartsville, Miss Julia of Charlottetown and Miss Marie at home. Her youngest son, Loughlin has been missing since the Great War. The surviving members of her family are Mrs. Donald P. McLeod, Inkerman, Malcolm of Glen Valley, her brother, Willia, of Bradalbane having predeceased her in September.

The funeral took place on Wednesday, October 6th when many assembled from far and near to show their respect for the departed and their sympathy to the bereaved family.

Mr. W. E. Robertson, student pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Canada assisted by the Rev. David Coburn, conducted the service.

The pall bearers were: Hugh McClure, Robert Todd, Malcolm Buchanan, Sr., George Morrison, Robert McLeod, Malcolm Buchannan, Jr.

In a recent issue of a Detroit Daily appears an account of a contest conducted by Lever Bros. Ltd., famous Lux and soap manufacturers, which was keenly contested by their salesmen in every division in the state for highest average sales. It extended over one year and in the final count, the prize, a beautiful silver cup, was awarded the Detroit branch, and won by Messrs. H. A. Matchner, L. H. D. McLeod and B. E. McDonagh. Photos of those men and of the trophy appear with the article.

The annual Rally Day service in connection with the United Sunday School was held in the church on Sunday evening. A large congregation listened to and enjoyed the splendid program as it was admirably carried out by the young people. A recitation by Lila Thompson, an exercise by four juniors—Howard Wedlock, Eric Brown, Dannie Whitlock and Hilton McMillan; a solo by Allan Wedlock; a duet by Lila and Herbert Thompson and the reciting of the 13th chapter of Corinthians by the boys of the intermediate class were all excellently given and interspersed with congregational singing and responsive Scripture reading, added much to the interest and impressiveness of the service. Rev. Mr. Baxter's address on "Rallying for Service" was likewise listened to with rapt attention and made a deep impression. At the close of the address, a very sweetly rendered double duet without accompaniment was sung by the Misses Janie Andrews, Reta Pickering, Hazel Sellar and Beatrice McLeod. The offering goes toward the Maintenance and Extension Fund and was a large one.

NORTH SIDE HOME SCENE OF WEDDING

The home of Dr. H. F. Keltner and Mrs. Keltner, 420 North 49th street, was the scene of a very pretty wedding Saturday evening September 4, when their niece, Miss Evelyn Winningham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Winningham, was united in marriage with Mr. William Henry MacLean, Rev. Elbert H. Hicks, pastor of the Fremont Baptist Church, read the ring service in the presence of immediate relatives and close friends of the family.

In a white taffeta gown of bouffant style and fitted bodice with a shadow hem of georgette, and wearing a wreath of orange blossoms in her hair, the bride made a most charming picture. She carried a shower bouquet of Orphelia roses, white gladioli and valley lilies. Mrs. H F. Whitford of Mobride, South Dakota, who was matron of honor, wore a becoming gown of pale pink satin back crepe which had bell-shaped sleeves and a circular skirt banded with white crystal beading. She wore pale pink satin slipers to match and carried an arm bouquet. Miss Glee Bates of Chehalis, who was bridesmaid, was attired in a dainty frock of yellow georgette trimmed with ruffles of black lace, and carried an arm bouquet to harmonize with her gown. One of the little flower girls, Carol Smith, wore a ruffled taffeta frock while the other, Constance Helen, was like a pretty rose in her dress of rose taffeta with lace ruffles. Little Bobbie Farmer, ringbearer, wore a black velvet suit. Mr. Charles H. MacLean, brother of the groom, acted as best man.

The room was tastefully decorated with the season's flowers, with gold and yellow predominating. The ceremony took place before an improvised altar of evergreens and autumn flowers, and the lighting was so arranged that a subdued glow illuminated the beautiful setting.

Preceeding the ceremony, Mrs. Jay Smith, cousin of the bride, sang "Oh, Come with Me" and "Because," accompanied by Mrs. Pearl Bowers Collier at the piano. Miss Eleanor Peterson of Chehalis played the march for the wedding processon.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. MacLean will be at home to their friends in Seattle.

The groom is a son of Mrs. Donald McLean, Crapaud, P. E. I.
