2-21d2i DRUGGIST

Ringworm

STUBBORN CASE

HEALED BY ZAM-BUK.

The most troublesome and obstinate of all scalp troubles is Ringworm. Mrs. H. Girdleston of 106 Rawdon St., Brantford, Ont., says: "My daughter had ringworm very bad, so bad that I was compelled to have her hair cut off. I obtained a preparation from the drugist to paint the sores, but instead of curing the ringworm developed into nasty sores matting and smothering badly. I saw Zam-Buk advertised in the newspaper and immediately sent for a box. After several applications I could see a great improvement. And as I kept up the Zam-Buk treatment daily the disease was soon checked. The nasty sores were thoroughly cleansed and healed and all trace of Ringworm banished from the child's scalp in a few weeks after commencing with Zam-Buk. I cannot overpraise Zam-Buk too highly."

A cloud of sadness was cast over Bay Fortune recently when Mrs. William Coffin passed away at the age of sixty-three years. The deceased was a daughter of the late Alexander Dingwell of Bay Fortune. Her loss will be greatly felt. In matters pertaining to the church, or otherwise tending to the public good, Mrs. Coffin was always marked as keen and unselfish. At home she was always kind, cheerful, entertaining and hospitable. In the family circle she was a mother to all, one that consoled the troubled, and rejoiced with the happy. There friend and stranger partook of her genial hospitality. She leaves to mourn a loving husband, five sons and three daughters, namely Seymour, William and Clinton of East Boston, Mass.; Leroy residing in N.S.; Cameron at home; Susan, and Prilla of East Boston; and Lettie at home who tenderly nursed her mother in her last illness. Also two brothers and two sisters—William B. of East Boston; Charles E. of Fortine Bridge; Mrs. James E. Aitken, and Mrs. Daniel Burke, of Rollo Bay. On receipt of a telegram telling them the sad news of their mother's death Seymour, William and Clinton immediately left for home to pay her the last tribute of respect. The funeral services were conducted by her pastor Rev. Mr. McLeod, and her remains were laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery.
