The Lecture and pie social held under the auspices of Mount Joy L. O. L., No. 1572, at Commercial Cross in the Orange Hall there, on Thursday 19th inst., was a decided success. The learned lecturer, Rev. A. P. Wightman of Montague, taking for his subject "Our Country" delivered a very able and instructive address. At the close of the lecture a hearty vote of thanks was moved by Wellington MacLaren to the reverend gentleman. It was conducted by R. G. Macdonald and carried unanimously. Daniel Beaton presided, and though the hall was crowded, the best of order prevailed. The auction followed and under the management of Benjamin Davey realized excellent prices. During the evening the singing of the choir was appreciated by those present. The proceeds amounting to over $25.00 are in aid of the Orange O. P. a Home at Mt. H. H. H.

THE Guardian's Eastern correspondent writes: "The late storm struck severely on the shores, no damage is reported from sea broken down and fields grain field marked its track on land—immense fields of green grain are seen on every hand the last week in September when the cool and damp season keeps from ripening. Not such a late crop since 1872, and in that year a large crop was harvested in October in good condition. Few mackerel have been caught the last week of West River and South Lake, the stormy weather preventing fishing. Very few hake in the waters at present, the hake dogfish are in abundance—The hake is said to have finished his bridge building contract has again turned his attention to building, and is doing crushing business.—Rev.
