Golfer Sliced Watch Repaired

Driving off the first tee at the Bell Park Club, Geelong, Australia, the strap of F. J. Walker's wrist watch broke, and the watch fell on top of the ball at the exact moment at which the club head struck it. But, the record shows, the watch glass was not even broken. Had the timing varied a split second, or had the watch fallen the slightest degree right or left of the ball, it would have received the full force of the drive.

Three Windjammers Sail Seas Again

After a brief spell in their picturesque home port, Marlehamn, Finland, three windjammers are reported to have sailed again for Australia. They are the barques L'Avenir, Passat, and Pommeri, three of about 17 sailing vessels which will take part in the Grain Race from South Australia next summer.

Australian Fossils Of Amazing Age

Discovery near Goulburn, Australia, of fossils said to be 300,000,000 years old was mentioned in a paper on the geology of the Goulburn district read to the Royal Society by G. F. K. Naylor. Mr. Naylor explained that a careful study of certain minute fossils had enabled the discovery of a group of rocks not previously known in New South Wales. They were found near Bungonia, and were more than 300,000,000 years old.—Australian Press Bureau.

HAMILTON THIEVES TAKE CHURCH SAFE

HAMILTON, Ont., Nov. 27—Police today searched for thieves who removed a safe from St. James Anglican Church, Barton and Ottawa streets, during the night, but found no cash and only the communion vessels. These were not taken. The robbers took the safe to a lonely spot near the city where it was opened.
