Howlan

Mrs. Bruce Caruthers has her mother, Mrs. Thomas Cook of Cape Wolfe, visiting her.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Finnan and family had as a recent guest Miss Blaquiere of Summerside.

The Rev. Russel Webb of Belle Isle Creek, N.B., arrived in Howlan on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Lester Wallace of Fortune Cove visited with her daughter, Mrs. Burton Stewart and Mr. Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. E.J. Dalton of Summerside along with Mr. Craswell were at the Dalton's farm in Howlan on Wednesday.

There was a good attendance at the show and entertainment in O'Leary Hall on Friday evening put on by the International Farming Implement Company of Canada with Mr. Don Campbell of Alberton as agent. Several 21.1ns were shown demonstrating the tractors and other implements.

Friends here of Mr. Joe Blanchard of Lot 6 regret to hear of his serious illness at the home of his sister (Mary), Mrs. Emanuel Peters of West Bubuk, Me.

Mr. Leo Arsenault has received word from his sister (Sophie), Mrs. Rudolph Beaudin of Providence, R.I. that she is again seriously ill in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Arsenault and sons Edward and Donat of Charlottetown and Miss Louise Pineau spent last Sunday at their old home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis MacQuarrie and sons of Wilnot were visiting in Howlan on Tuesday returning to their home on Wednesday morning.

A miscellaneous shower in honour of Mr. and Mrs. Erble Gallant, newlyweds of Mill Road, was held on Friday evening Nov. 18 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Peters of Fortune Cove.

St. Thomas meetings were held on Sunday in the following districts in this parish, Howlan and Roxbury at 2.45 p.m., Duvar and Plusville at 7 p.m. with guest speakers in each place

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gallant of Howlan were in Plusville on Sunday afternoon at the home of his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Gallant. His two sisters from the U.S.A. were also present at their old home.

On Sunday afternoon Nov. 20, a special meeting of St. Thomas Aquinas Society of Howlan was held at the home of Mrs. Joseph B. Arsenault with only six of the members present, there being four visitors including the guest speakers. The president, Mrs. J.B. Arsenault opened the meeting by prayer by the Rev. Fr. Biote of Mont Carmel. The minutes of last annual meeting were then read by secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Jerry Gallant and were approved as read. Mr. Edmond Arsenault of Charlottetown and Rev. Fr. Biote spoke at the meeting.

Elmsdale and Vicinity

Miss Beatrice O'Brien, teacher at Albany, spent the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A.D. O'Brien.

Miss Mary McKenna, Dock Rd., is a patient in the Western Hospital at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Currie accompanied by Mr. Clive Hardy left by motor last week for Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward McKenna and family have left the Dock Road and have taken up residence at Bloomfield Corner.

While Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson were driving in their car on Sunday on the Western Road pavement, the car skidded and overturned causing Mrs. Johnston minor injuries which necessitated medical treatment. Luckily both escaped serious injury.

Friends and relatives in this community were shocked and saddened to learn of the death of Mr. James Murray on Friday Nov. 18, at the age of fifty-two years. The late Mr. Murray had entered the hospital for treatment a few weeks previous and his sudden death was quite unexpected. He was a highly respected citizen and his loss will be keenly felt in the community where he spent his life. The deceased was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Murray and is survived by a widow and four young children; also two brothers, William and Everett, to whom the sincere sympathy of all their friends is extended. The funeral which was largely attended took place to Alberton Anglican Church on Monday November 21 where funeral services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. McMahon. Pallbearers were six cousins: Messrs. Jacob Sr., Jacob Jr., and Warburton Murray, George and Frank Hardy and Murray Sweet.

SUMMERFIELD C. W. L. MEETING

On Sunday Nov. 6 the monthly meeting of the Summerfield subdivision of the Catholic Women's League was held at the home of Mrs. C.W. Croken with a very good attendance. The president, Mrs. Alfred Curley occupied the chair. Rev. Father Murray opened the meeting with the League prayer. The secretary, Mrs. John Cash read the minutes of the last meeting which were approved.

A card of acknowledgement with sincere appreciation was received from Mrs. J.A. Murphy on the death of her brother, Mrs. A.C. Hughes gave her report on the St. Dunstan's girls' annual scholarship association to which she and Mrs. Emmett Clow were delegates. A discussion took place on the annual gift box to the St. Vincent's orphanage. It was moved and seconded that all bills be paid up to the present. The treasurer gave her report on the bar-sar which was very satisfactory. It was suggested that the card parties be resumed. Plans for same are to be made at next meeting.

Mrs. A.C. Hughes kindly invited the members to her home for the next meeting which was very much appreciated. Meeting adjourned. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Maurice Croken after which a social hour was spent.

FILMS ENJOYED — On Friday night Mr. Charles Praught entertained the patients and staff of the Provincial Infirmary with several interesting films; at the close treats of ice cream, candy apples and cookies were enjoyed by all, and all voiced their appreciation of Mr. Praught's kind gesture.

LODGE MEETING — Rev. S. J. Davies of Kensington was guest speaker in the Orange Hall, Summerside, when the Grand Lodge officers and members of the Bedque district were guests of the local L.O.A. and L.O.B.A. Lodges on Tuesday evening. Mr. Willard Muttart, P.G.M. was master of ceremonies when the following program was presented to a large and appreciative audience: A selection from a male choir; vocal solos by Mr. J.H. Leuty with Miss P. Saunders as accompanist; vocal duet by Mrs. A.R. Woodside and Mr. James Phillips with Mrs. Milton Mellish as pianist; an interesting and instructive address by Rev. S. J. Davies; several selections from a male quartet comprising Messrs. Gerald Sheen, Herbert B. Schurman, Roland Sheen and Alan Wedlock. This included tap dancing by Mr. Roland Sheen; a humorous reading by Mrs. Chester Palmer. Mrs. Margaret MacKenzie, Grand Mistress, on behalf of the Edith Cavell Lodge, welcomed the large gathering and extended cordial greetings. Merit pins for twenty-five years continuous service in the Orange Order were awarded to the following: Mr. and Mrs. A.P. Wells, Mrs. Archie Sharp, Mrs. L.R. Allen, Mrs. George MacPherson and Mrs. Chester Palmer. The first four being charter members of the Edith Cavell Lodge. Among those who gave brief addresses were Mr. C.D. MacPhail, Grand Master; Mrs. Annie Darrach, Grand Secretary; Rev. Blair MacPhail, and Mr. Arthur Cudmore, Grand Deputy Master. After the singing of the National Anthem delicious refreshments were served by the ladies of the local lodge. A vote of thanks was extended to all those who contributed in any way to the splendid entertainment of the evening. — S

CAMEO THEATRE KENSINGTON

Thursday: Matinee 4 p.m.; Evening 7:15-9:15. The beautiful scenery of Paramount's technicolor musical-comedy-romance picture, "THE EMPEROR WALTZ", was actually taken at "Jasper National Park" in our beautiful "Canadian Rockies", co-starring Bing Crosby and Joan Fontaine, with "Bing" singing, whistling and yodeling too, and he has the cutest dog, "Button" by name. If you like laughs, a little romance and music, color. You'll enjoy this.
