RECENT PROMOTION — Mr. Gilbert R. Henry was recently appointed by the Head Office of the Bank of Nova Scotia to the position of Accountant in the Charlottetown Branch. Mr. Henry, who has been with the bank for 20 years, started his banking career in Fredericton, N.B., near his home community of South Devon. In 1929 he joined the accounts section of the R.C.A.F. and during his six-year stay in the service rose to the rank of Flight Lieutenant. On returning to the bank in 1946 he acted as First Assistant Accountant until his recent promotion. The position of Accountant was left vacant by the retirement of Mr. J. M. Logan.

MURRAY HARBOR — Special services were held in the Murray Harbor United Baptist Church on Sunday April 13th. The occasion of the service being the re-opening of the Church after complete re-decoration of the interior. The work which was done by Mr. H. White and Mr. E. Colquhoun, has been very pleasing to the church members, and all feel deeply appreciative of the thorough job done. The services were conducted by the Pastor, Rev. H. Blois Crawford, speaking to a large congregation at both services. In the afternoon his text was taken from Psalm 110:3. "The People shall be willing in the day of thy Power." In the evening "Faith" was the subject of his message, based on Hebrews 11:24-28. The special choir, composed of members of the four Protestant Churches of Murray Harbor, under the direction of the Church organist, Mrs. Wallace White, added much to the spiritual feast enjoyed at these services. Special numbers were sung by the whole choir as well as solos and numbers by a quartet and also a double quartet. Offerings of the day amounted to $45.00. Plans are now being made for the installation of a furnace in the church building. A great portion of the cost for same being already in the church treasury.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS—

What does he expect of a wife, that she will always be young, beautiful and dressed in pink chiffons with flowers in her hair? What about the times when she will have a cold in the head and be sick and miserable? How is she going to cook, wash and iron and baby-tend in her best clothing? And how is he going to look with a two days' stubble of beard?

A marriage has to be founded on something more stable than beauty if it is going to last and be any comfort while it does last.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I am 35 years old and have been married twice. Since I divorced my first wife, I have found out that I love her and that she loves me. I have one child who is her son. My present wife won't let me do anything for this child. She won't even let me go to see him. If she would only let me do that, it would help me some.

My second wife refuses to divorce me in order for me to go back to my first wife. If I knew what to do so that God would be pleased with it, it would add 20 years to my life. Please tell me what to do? B. L. S.

ANSWER: Unfortunately, I am not one of the people who feel that they know the things that God knows, so I cannot tell you what would be the right thing for you to do in your present predicament. According to the Bible, which is the word of God, He intended marriage to be a sacred and binding contract, and that when a man took unto himself a wife, he should be faithful to her until death parted them. So far as I know, no provision was made for men like you, who thought they got tired of their wives, divorced them and married some other women they thought they were in love with. Some other women they thought they were in love with, only to find out afterward that they really loved Number One.

So, inasmuch as you brought your misfortune on your own head by breaking one of God's commandments, you will have to suffer the penalty. But you should be man enough not to let your current wife keep you from going to see your son. You owe the little chap at least, that.

DEAR MISS DIX: I am married to a very good man and love him very much. He is kind to me. The only trouble is that he always jokes with other women and the girls where he works. Also, he sends them cards at Christmas. I don't mean that he runs after women because he seldom goes anywhere, but I don't like his joking and I have thought of leaving him.

ANSWER: Well, for crying out loud! To think of any wife having little enough sense to leave a good husband whose only fault is that he is jolly and friendly with the women he is thrown with. Sister, you need to have your head examined.

all its contents—gone likely to counteract the effect of some jail or other of feed used at stables or sties. Consequently, I had to use other leavening with, in this case, not so good results. We had cherry jam too, made from those we had gathered from the mavericks of trees down in the garden, and if perhaps not so sweet as that which we once dug from a bottle, at the same time, tasty on an evening like this. This was the best time too, to present James with the cigar. I had fetched on a trip from the corner store, for just such an occasion. Yes, I might have perhaps have brought more. Indeed I would have, had not the wraith of James himself have suddenly appeared to remind me perhaps of leaner times to come. James really had not the time to finish the one then. Reilly, he smokes it comfortably now, so contentedly, that as the rain continues to tumble noisily from the roof to the rain-barrel below an reminded of, well, "a woman is a woman, but a cigar's a good smoke!"

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear son, Lemuel F. Burns, who passed away May 7th, 1941. Sweet are the memories that never fade.

Of one we loved but could not save. Always so true, unselfish and kind. Few in this world, his equal you'll find. A beautiful life that came to an end.

He died as he lived, everyone's friend. God is good; He gives us strength To bear our heavy cross; He is the only one who knows How bitter is our loss. Inserted by his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Athol Burns.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear mother and grandmother, Mrs. James Alcorn, who departed this life May 7th, 1937.

Memories are all we have, Of one who was so dear. All we can do, is think of her, Each day of every year.

Until at last, in God's good time, With her we shall abide And the one who was so dear to us, Will be ever by our side.

Lovingly Remembered, but Sadly Missed, by her Sons, Daughters and Grand Children.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of Mrs. Edison Wood who passed away May 5, 1942.

Your gentle face and patient smile With sadness we recall. You had a kindly word for each, And died beloved by all.
