APPEARANCES COUNT

People are quick to judge a man by his appearance. Clothes often condemn a man before he has an opportunity to speak. Men who have to do with other men should be careful that their clothes are neat—in style—perfect fitting.

The Question of Cost

The question of cost bothers many a man—custom tailors are so expensive. That's what brought high-class, ready-to-wear clothing into existence.

Progress Brand—Fit Reform and W. R. Johnson Clothing

We offer discriminating buyers all the style, fit and quality for which custom tailors will ask $5 to $10 more the suit.

PROVE OUR STATEMENTS

by letting us show you the goods—by thorough inspection—by actual trying on.
And your money is not ours until you're satisfied.

Reliable Furs

Probably you've read about the Montreal Man who offered what purported to be $100 Persian Lamb Jackets for $50? Needless to say, the quality was at there—the jackets were made of cast off bits skillfully stuck together! Yet those who purchased them probably thought they knew enough about furs to be able to judge fur quality.

The point is here—Fur quality is most difficult to judge—even the most experienced are sometimes deceived. That's why it pays when buying furs, to buy of a respectable firm who have sufficient confidence in their goods to guarantee them.

We guarantee every Fur we sell—have done so for years. That's our reason for our immense and growing fur business—now the largest on P. E. Island.

Much the largest variety to choose from.
Guaranteed Fur Jackets ..... $30 to $175.00
Guaranteed Fur Neckpieces ..... $4 to $75

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

THE Charlotte's own Kindergarten re-opens this morning at the usual hour.

E. H. DUCHEMIN has disposed of his residence at head of Prince Street to G. A. B. McDonald of McDonald & McKinnon of this city.

Miss ANNIE NICHOLSON, of Bradabane, who has been visiting friends in Charlottetown for the past few days returned home yesterday.

REV. JAS. McDUGALL will preach (D. V.) at Argyle Shore on Saturday the 5th, at 7 p. m.; and on Sabbath the 6th, at Canoe Cove at 10.30. DeSable at 3, and Hampton at 7.

Spring Valley Division is rapidly progressing. The meetings are largely attended, and its excellent programmes well prepared. The following are the officers for the ensuing quarter:—W. P., Nellie Lockhart; W. A., Mrs. John McKay; R. S., M. L. Ramsay; A. R. S., Mrs. Art. Leard; T. S., Andrew Bryanton; Chap. George Lockhart; Treas. Wm. Sudbury; Con., Robt. Hillman; A. Cos. Benj. Champion; I. S., Charles Lockhart; O. S. Guy Hillman; P. W. P. Isaac Bryanton.

THE death occurred Sunday night at French Fort, after a lingering illness, of Charles Webster, aged 70. Mr. Webster was a consistent member of the Methodist Church, a good citizen, enjoying the respect and esteem of the community. He leaves to mourn a widow and the following sons and daughters: Mrs. Edward Moore, in Charlottetown, Jane in the United States, Eliza, Albert and Joseph at home, and Robert in York. The funeral took place Tuesday to the Marshfield cemetery.

In the case of the schooner Alexander R. against the steamer Aranmore for damages for collision and sinking, the appeal of the Aranmore from the decision in favor of the schooner has been dismissed. The Alexander R. is at anchor again, having been purchased and raised by Capt. Farquhar, and has made a trip to Bay of Islands since. The Aranmore, which was running the Plant Line service at the time of the collision, arrived in Halifax a few days ago. The Aranmore made regular trips to this port last season, and her officers became well acquainted.

MANY friends in Charlottetown will learn with regret of the death of Henry Watken, Jr. which took place Sunday morning at the home of his sister, Mrs. Thurbur, Harcourt, N. B. He was a son of H. Watken, I. C. R. postal clerk, Harcourt. Mr. Watken was in the employ of the I. C. R. on the Northern division for many years and was well and favorably known. His age was 37 years and 7 months and death was due to lung trouble with which he had been ailing for some time. Besides a wife and three children Mr. Watken leaves a father, mother, five sisters and one brother.

A MILL VIEW Correspondent of The Guardian writes:—The Temperance Lodge at Mill View is doing excellent work. The entertainment on Lodge nights can't be best. Joseph Duggan has returned from Summerside—George A. Adams of Charlottetown is spending his Xmas holidays at Mill View the guest of Joseph and Mrs. Storey. Everet Jenkins, who had the misfortune to cut his foot very badly is recovering as well as could be expected. Charles Acorn will shortly move into his new dwelling house which he has recently constructed and finished in the latest fashion it will add greatly to the beauty of Mill View.

THE Dominion Coal Company's tug Douglas H. Thomas is on her way from Halifax to St. Pierre-Miquelon to endeavor to save the wrecked steamer Garibaldi, Capt. Evjle, which ran ashore there in a heavy gale Sunday night 23rd inst. The Garibaldi left Port Morien on Saturday morning last with a cargo of coal for the Gorie & Blockhouse Coal Co., for the Dominion Iron & Steel Co. at Wabunan. The Garibaldi is a comparatively new boat, but four years old, her registered tonnage is 1185 and she carries a crew of 16 men, she had been on time charter with the Gowrie & Blockhouse Collieries Co. the past season. She made many trips to Charlottetown, last summer with coal for the Railway.

ON Dec 24th, 1906, an interesting event took place at the home of D. A. Bruce of Charlottetown, when Miss Mary McLeod, formerly of Kinross, but lately of Brooklyn, Mass was united in marriage to Donald Livingstone, of High Bank. After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev Geo. Ross, of Zion Church, the happy couple left by train for Kinross where a reception was held at the home of the bride's brother Angus A. McLeod, at which about twenty persons were present and spent a very enjoyable evening. The presents were very numerous and beautiful, including a great deal of silver and other beautiful gifts from friends in Brookline, and at home. Many friends wish them a long and happy life.

THERE will be a meeting of the W. C. T. U. at the home of Mrs. James Desbrisy, at 3.30 p. m., to-day.

YESTERDAY was declaration day for the First District of Queen's. Mr. Kennedy is declared elected by a majority of 30.

Miss EDITH STEWART, daughter of T. A. Stewart, Westville, P. E. I. has taken up the study of nursing in the Elizabeth Burton Hospital, Newport Virginia. In this institution her sister, Miss Beesie, is matron.

THE memorial service for the late Mrs. Bottome, founder of the Order of King's Daughters, was held recently in the parlor of the First Methodist church and was well attended by representatives of the different circles of the Order in this city.

THE third battalion, second regiment, Massachusetts Volunteer Militia, will visit Montreal, St. John and Halifax next September. The battalion is made up of companies from Springfield and Worcester. Why not try to have these troops of Uncle Sam pay a visit to this Province when they come so near to it.

FRANBY JENKINS, butcher, Cherry Valley, a few days ago shipped a large cargo of geese, and poultry to A. M. Jenkins, North Sydney, C. B.; with whom he is doing an extensive shipping. Mr. Jenkins has had a very successful fall, shipping many hundreds of geese, turkeys and poultry, besides meats of all kinds.

THE case of Mrs. Eliza McIntyre, charged with the larceny of a fur ruff from the store of Moore & McLeod, was before the Police Court yesterday. Mrs. McIntyre swore that she had not been in the store the day the ruff was stolen. Her evidence was in direct contradiction to the evidence of a number of employees of the firm. She was sent up for trial at the next term of the Supreme Court.

THE Annual Meeting of Sentinel Lodge, No. 206, Loyal True Blues was held in Rose Valley Hall on December 26th. The following are the officers for the year 1907: W. M., Angus M. MacDonald; D. M., Amelia J. MacDonald; R. S., George Trowsdale; F. S., Belle McKinnon; Treas., Donald McKinnon; Chap., Donald J. MacDonald; D. of C., Kenneth H. McKensie; Con., Duncan K. Matheson; I. T., Frank Nicholson; O. T., John Stuart; Ist Com., Hugh Gillis; 2nd Com., Mary A. Matheson; 3rd Com., Annie McDonald; 4th, Boetieck Nicholson; 5th James R. Todd.

THE schooner Eva May sailed yesterday afternoon from Crapaud for Glouce Bay. This is rather a record-breaking trip, as few schooners sail from that port at this time of the year. The crew of the Eva May consists of Captain James Farrow, Captain Charles Straight, Captain Johnson Lord, and Wilfred McQuarrie, all good men and true and thoroughly able to navigate the schooner to her destination unless unexpected difficulties arise. The schooner was loaded by Wright Brothers of Victoria, with 1500 bushels potatoes, 1500 bushels turnips, 1000 bushels oats and a quantity of hay, pork, and butter. Crapaud harbor was almost thoroughly clear of ice and very little could be seen in the straits outside.
