Stop Cough

Those hard night coughs of the children! What shall you give them? Just what your mother gave you, and just what her mother gave her! In some families, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has been the only cough medicine for seventy years. Once in the family, it stays. Keep it on hand.

Ask your doctor if he endorses Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for the coughs and colds of children. Do as he says. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

The coal-boring operations in this province which have been in progress for nearly two years have been concluded. The last borings made were at Miminigash where a drill had been sent down to a depth of seventeen hundred feet. Work here was brought to a sudden termination a few days ago by the fact that there was a cave-in of about one hundred feet of the upper earth which buried the apparatus and prevented all possibility of continuing the work at that place However the depth was sufficient to satisfy Mr Stover that there is no possibility of finding coal there.

The people of South Melville learned with deep regret of the death of Margaret Monaghan, which occurred at her home on Thursday, Dec 23rd. Deceased was the wife of Thomas Monaghan, who predeceased her three years. She was favorably known for nearly half a century for many miles from her home and was loved and esteemed by all who came in contact with her. Cheerfulness, charity and thrift were the predominant traits in her character and they shone forth in her happy countenance and springy step up to November last when she was seized with a severe illness. Despite all the aid of medical attendance supplemented by the tender care of a kind family, she peacefully passed away; and her noble spirit that took its way into the unruffled haven of eternity. Her funeral, which took place on Sunday the 26th was largely attended, services being conducted by Rev Dr Curran. The pall-bearers were: George Dunsford, Thomas Malone, Charles Dunsford, James Gorman, Peter McGuigan, Peter Trainor. Deceased was sixty-three years of age and leaves to mourn a number of friends and the following family: Mrs Frank Monaghan, Kelly's Cross; Mrs John McAleer, Charlottetown; Mrs Francis Bagen, Tyrone, and Sarah, Aggie and Sylvester at home.

Over three weeks out from Montague, P. E. I., with her sails torn to ribbons and her deck and sides covered with ice, the schooner Circassian Capt. Skinner, arrived in tow of the steamer Dufferin Thursday afternoon at five o'clock. The Circassian sailed from Montague over three weeks ago for Halifax with a cargo of produce and since that time has been through several very severe storms, and her crew of five men have all been more or less frostbitten. From the time of leaving Montague the Circassian met with very heavy weather, and after being out several days put into Whitehead for shelter. Here she remained until the first of last week, when she again left for Halifax.—Chronicle.

New Wonderland has an excellent program for their patrons to night. The Mexican's Crime is one of those exciting Western pictures that are wished for by most everyone. Exciting horseback rides through swamp and river and the guilty party always brought to justice. This is the headliner and will be sure to be a winner. The others are equally as good, J. Austin Trainor, who is making an enormous hit will appear in new illustrated song and specialty. Don't miss the big program of three reels, four pictures, illustrated song and specialty all for five cents.

Many people of St John, St Andrew's and other parts of this province, and also of P. E. Island, will be interested in the story of a wedding which took place in Winnipeg on Jan 5, when Charles MacKelvie, manager of the MacPherson Fruit Co., Ltd, of Edmonton, Alta, was united in marriage with Miss Josephine E. Hibbard, of St Andrews, daughter of George F. Hibbard, registrar for Charlotte County. The officiating minister was Rev Charles W. Gordon, (Ralph Connor.) The bride was given away by R. R. Scott, secretary-treasurer of the MacPherson Fruit Co, Ltd, of Winnipeg. The bride and groom are visiting his family at Calgary, and the bride's sister, Mrs Dr Lamb, of Camrose, before proceeding to their home at Edmonton. Mr MacKelvie has very many friends in St John. He, with Messrs Morgan, Bogart, and Belding, a few years ago, made up a very popular young male quartette, singing in St Andrew's church and at many entertainments. Before leaving St John, Mr MacKelvie was with the International Harvester Co. He is a native of P. E. Island, but the members of his family followed him to the west, and are now living in Calgary.—St John Sun.
