On Wednesday evening July 4th, the residence of Fraser MacDonald, Hampton was the scene of a very interesting event when his sister Isabella, was united in marriage to George A. MacFarlane of South Melville, in the presence of a large number of guests. The bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, which was very sweetly rendered by Miss Elith MacDonald. The bride was attired in a charming costume of white lustrous silk and lace trimmings and carried a bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair fern. The groom was ably supported by his brother, William MacFarlane. The rooms were tastefully decorated for the occasion with white brier and cut flowers. The bride is the recipient of many beautiful and costly presents which testify to the popularity and esteem in which the young couple were held.
