Crop Report

WINNIPEG, Man., June 21—Gradually rising temperatures with light to heavy showers generally over the Prairie Provinces have improved crop and pasture conditions during the past week. Isolated reports of worms, soil drifting, excessive weeds and lack of rainfall in some sections constitute the chief crop damage to date. Crop growth is generally from one to three weeks later than normal according to the weekly crop report of the Department of Agriculture of the Canadian National Railways.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND AUXILIARY

The world is in desperate need of dependable guidance. Vision and steadiness and unity are required and whence shall these qualities of leadership come? The psalmist asserted: "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path." Jesus Himself said: "I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness but shall have the light of life." How shall we get this light except through the Bible?

Warm Tribute Paid By Fellow Teachers To Miss M. Irving

Miss Mary Irving, of the teaching staff of Prince Street School, who is retiring this year, was given a pleasant surprise yesterday afternoon when on driving with friends to the summer home of Miss Lillian MacKenzie, she was met by her fellow teachers and found herself the guest of honour at a delightful supper party, which included games and a sing-song.

After supper an eloquent address of appreciation was read by Principal Hynes, followed by addresses in a lighter vein by Miss Jacqueline Macdonald and Mr. Stewart Williams. These were accompanied by a volume of poems by Alfred Noyes autographed by the teaching staff.

On returning to the city, the teachers met at Miss Irving's home and presented her with a handsome chesterfield chair, accompanied by warm expressions of their regard and good wishes.

One of the best known and most popular teachers in the Province, Miss Irving entered on her career as a girl and from the start showed an aptitude for handling children and winning their confidence and esteem. Her faithful services over a long period of years have been an inspiration to parents as well as teachers and pupils; and it is the hope of all her friends that she will have many years of health and happiness in which to enjoy her well-earned retirement.

Mess Room Chatter

WITH THE R. C. A. F. OVERSEAS, June 21 — (CP) — Name and number of the All-Canadian No. 6 Bomber Group based in Britain will be reserved in perpetuity for Canada, Air Vice-Marshal C. M. McEwen, chief of the group disclosed. R. A. F. Bomber Command has decided never to issue the number to any other group.

The A. O. C. declared that the team-work shown throughout was responsible for the high regard in which the R. C. A. F. group was held by British airmen, and this was not brought about by driving discipline but by spontaneous combustion on the part of all personnel.

Flt. Lt. J. E. Abbots of Owen Sound, Ont., was one ex-prisoner who had to thank his lucky star that he got back to England. While awaiting repatriation at Bournemouth, he told his story.

In July, 1943, he was shot down over Europe. Wounded in the right leg, he turned his aircraft on its back to bail out but something went wrong. Instead of falling clear he was blown back along the fuselage and his parachute became entangled with the radio mast. He struggled madly to free himself but failed. He lost consciousness just before the crash.

"When I awoke," he said, "an English-speaking German doctor was bending over me. He was shaking his head and muttering 'you're one in a million, you're one in a million'."

After two weeks of treatment for lacerations, a dislocated shoulder and a shell wound, Abbotts was transferred to prison camp and liberated by the Allies a few days before VE-Day. Before the war he was learning to run linotype on the Owen Sound Sun-Times.

More than 240,000 cigarettes, contributed by members of the R. C. A. F.'s Burma-based "Elephant" transport squadron, were flown to the advancing 14th Army between the capture of Meiktila and the occupation of Rangoon.

"It's the least we can do for the boys of the 14th," said Wing Cmdr. Ralph Gordon of Bobcaygeon, Ont., officer commanding the squadron.

R. C. A. F. jump-masters and armorers took part in the first paratroop invasion of the India-Burma campaign which eventually led to liberation of Rangoon and were praised by Brig.-Gen. F. W. Evans, U. S. Army Air Force who commanded the operation. "They're part of an all-star team," he said.

A Burma-based and an India-based R. C. A. F. transport squadron contributed 90 per cent of jump-masters and armorers on the job. The other 10 per cent were R. A. F. and R. A. A. F. men, while Americans flew the aircraft from which tough Indian paratroopers dropped.

They did the job well — every paratrooper was dispatched and landed. "It was a piece of cake," commented two senior R. C. A. F. jump-masters, Flt. Lt. H. N. Whitewood who comes from near Regina, and Flt. Lt. C. N. Your of 1307 Second Avenue, N.E.) Calgary.

MacKinnon-Sentner Nuptials

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized Monday evening at 7 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Fred Hamilton, 13 Walker St. when Rev. Ross Eaton united in marriage Sarah Jane MacKinnon, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John D. MacKinnon, Canoe Cove, P.E.I. and Preston James Sentner, of Charlottetown, P.E.I.

The bride who was given away by her brother-in-law, Malcolm McFadyen, wore a white sheer floor-length dress with long sleeves and sweetheart neckline, a Mary Queen of Scots finger tip veil, with head dress of orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses and white streamers dotted with sweet peas. Her only ornament was a string of pearls.

Her sister, Mrs. McFayden, matron of honor, wore a street-length dress of pink taffeta and head dress of pink flowers. She carried a colonial bouquet of Snap dragon.

Little Sadie MacFayden, niece of the bride, was adorable in a mauve organdy floor length dress, and carried a basket of sweet peas.

The best man was Frank Van Iderstine, of Charlottetown.

To the strains of Lohengrin wedding, march, played by Miss Anne Murphy, the bridal party took their places on the lawn. As the evening sun flooded the garden gaily bedecked in June flowers, the bride and her attendants made a delightful picture.

After the ceremony the guests were ushered into the house by Misses Shirley Emmett and Kathleen MacFadyen. During the signing of the register, Miss Lillian Bruce sang, "O Promise Me" after which Rev. Eaton proposed a toast to the bride. Lunch was then served to about 50 guests.

Mrs. Donald Tedford and Mrs. Hamilton presided at the table which was tastefully decorated with Lilies of the Valley and tall white tapers. A three-teir wedding cake graced the centre of the table.

Those assisting were Mrs. Douglas Murphy, Mrs. Leo Duguay, Mrs. Chester Tattrie, Miss Marion Crockett. Mrs. A. E. Emmett, Miss Bertha Witt, Mrs. John R. MacLean, Miss Margaret Woodworth, and Mrs. Rene MacCallum.

The bride's gifts to the flower girl and portresses were silver bracelets to the pianist and soloist —gold band earrings and to the hostess, Mrs. Hamilton, a gold pin.

The groom's gift to the bride was a mink stole and to the groomsman, a silver tiepin.

The bride's travelling ensemble was a brown tailored suit with brown accessories. She wore a corsage of white and orange gladiolas.

The bride, who was a member of the staff of W. B. Murphy for a number of years is very popular and was guest of honor at many showers and teas previous to her marriage. Her wedding gifts were many and beautiful.

The happy couple left by train for Montreal for a few weeks after which they will reside in Charlottetown.

They have the best wishes of a host of friends.

Among those shedding no tears if Adolf Hitler is dead is Frau Rosa Horl, above 83, midwife who brought the one-time fuehrer into the world 56 years ago. A resident of Braunau, she says she has no sympathy for the man who led Germany and Austria to ruin.

Protestant Orphanage

boys paid the supreme sacrifice while one was a prisoner of war for several years. Their courage and sacrifice should inspire us to still greater efforts for our Orphanage.

Again this year we report success in every department. Financially we had a splendid year. The children have been in excellent health and again we wish to pay tribute to Dr. Tidmarsh and the members of the Orphanage staff.

Various societies and many friends have remembered the children in many ways and they have been quite happy and contented.

As many of you cannot attend the annual meeting tonight and as some may not be familiar with the work of the Trustees, I am sure you will pardon me, if very briefly, I bring this work to your attention.

Meetings are held regularly, meetings characterized by splendid harmony and by the greatest desire on everyone's part to assist to the best of their ability.

They have at all times employed a capable and efficient staff and they have been most solicitous of the welfare of the staff as well as of the children. In this connection the car has helped greatly and when the car was laid up for the winter, extra transportation was supplied. The finance committee has worked hard but very successfully due entirely to the wonderful co-operation and magnificent work of you ladies, and many not present today, who, endued with high ideals, have been untiring in their efforts.

Other Committees

The adoption committee has given careful consideration to requests for the placing of children in the Orphanage and to the sending of children to foster homes, always putting the child first.

In looking over the grounds and building you will readily see that the property committee has been especially active.

The home committee and the buying committee have exercised care and guarded expenditure closely but never have they deprived the children or the staff of pleasant living conditions.

As we look back through the years and see how our efforts have been blessed, we realize that the work of the Trustees and of the Auxiliary has not been in vain.

During the past year a number of our members have passed through deep sorrows—to them we extend sincere sympathy.

At this time I wish to pay tribute to three former members who have passed on to hear "Well done good and faithful servant", Mrs. F. T. Dillon, Charlottetown, Mrs. J. F. Fraser, Charlottetown and Mrs. Walter MacKenzie, Springfield.

Gifted with exceptional talent they gave of their talent freely. We shall always miss them and always remember their good works.

I am sure we will be pardoned if, as an auxiliary, we feel considerable pride over the success attained during the past year. Net receipts were over $8,000 while many gifts of clothing, etc., were sent to Orphanage.

Again I want to thank you from my heart for your kind friendliness and your loyal co-operation.

May our work still be blessed and in the days ahead, during the re-construction period, may we be prepared to do still more for the under-privileged children of our Province.

KATHLEEN HENDERSON,
President Provincial Auxiliary
Protestant Orphanage
