A very pretty wedding occurred, Tuesday evening, July 21st., at the residence of S. and Mrs. VanIderstine near Watatic mountain, Mass., formerly of Vernon River, P.E.I., when their daughter Eva was married to Robert A. Winsloe of New York city. A bower of wild flowers was constructed, under which the happy couple stood when Rev. C. W. Loomis pronounced the words which made them husband and wife. The ring ceremony was used and the bride was given away by her father. Among the presents was a case of silver from Tiffany's, from the groom's parents; a full set of embroidered table linen, by the bride's sister; cut glass and many other gifts. A wedding luncheon was served immediately after the ceremony. Among those present were Robert and Mrs. Winslow of New York, parents of the groom, and Miss Ethel VanIderstine of Dorchester. The groom is a talented civil engineer. The bride is a charming young lady with usual qualities of mind and heart, and will carry the hearty good wishes of her Ashby friends to her new home in the great metropolis.

The marriage at Milburn on Tuesday last of Miss Maggie Macdonald of that place to George Ployer of Corraville proved a very pleasing event. The bridesmaid was Miss Beatrice Pyke of Milburn and the groom was supported by John Macdonald, brother of the bride. At two o'clock the bridal party reached the St. Andrew's Church, Cardigan, where the ceremony was performed by Rev. Edwin Smith in the presence of a number of friends. Returning to Milburn the party reached the bride's home at 4 o'clock. Dinner was then served in first class style after which the guests who preferred to dance retired to the pleasant orchard where a dancing booth had been erected for the occasion. It would be a mild statement of fact to say that every one enjoyed themselves. The maple covered booth cooled by soft breezes that were laden with the scent of the clovers was an ideal place for dancing. The star lit heavens and "lady moon" bathed the festive scene with light and nature herself was glad amid the general rejoicing. Mrs. Macdonald, as hostess, had a reputation to sustain and in this she succeeded well. Good cheer prevailed throughout the festivities and everything passed off happily with laughter song and speech. Auld Lang Syne was heartily rendered at the close. Upwards of fifty guests expressed their good will in a tangible way by presenting the bride with gifts which for costliness and beauty are seldom excelled. And they were not given merely in a perfunctionery spirit but were expressions rather of the deep respect which the givers felt for the young bride. Milburn loses one of its most popular young ladies and she will be missed from our company. She goes however to gladden another home and her many qualities will be appreciated by the people of Corraville. Some of the presents were:—Set of berry dishes, 3 silver tea sets, tea pot, cheese dish, table cloth, three sets towels, pitcher and bureau cover, three sets of glasses, butter dish, four glass pitchers, set of vases, berry dishes, two syrup dishes, china berry set, lemonade set, glass berry set, glass berry dish, salt dish, pair kid gloves, parlor lamp, picture, two bed room sets, set of dinner knives, pitcher, pepper and salt set, silver set, tea dishes.

Dr. Darrach, returned home to Kensington yesterday.

Rev. E. J. Rattee, Malpeque, left this City yesterday for home.

Miss Ida Sellar of this City is visiting friends in New Perth.

Miss Alma Yeo, city, left yesterday afternoon on a short trip to Union Road.

There is a good opportunity for a right boy to learn the printing at The Guardian office. Apply at once.

There was a large attendance at the market yesterday. Raspberries and cherries were plentiful selling from 10 to 12c per qt. Hay (new) per cwt. was quoted at 32 to 35c and hay (old) at 45 to 50c, oats per bus. at 45 to 50c and potatoes 26c.

Among those leaving the city yesterday were, Contractor Hugh McDonald for Pictou, Miss Marion Crockett and Leslie Crockett, for New Glasgow, E. G. Vroom for St. Stephen, N. B., Miss Tillie McNeill for Summerside, George and Mrs. Worth and son Lee for Colorado Springs.

Mrs. Charles F. Atkinson, head of the Clark Publishing Co. of Boston, who has spent the past two weeks at York Point enjoying a vacation, was in the city yesterday. Mrs. Atkinson is much pleased with the cool air, fine summer climate and pretty pastoral scenery of the Island. She leaves in a few days on return to Boston.

Persons sending advertising to The Guardian will confer a favor on the management if they will state whether they want it in The Morning Daily or Rural Daily, how long and how frequently they wish it inserted in each, and whether as a business local, display ad, or classified ad, bearing in mind that if for the latter it can run but for consecutive insertions. All ordinary amounts under one dollar are accepted on a cash in advance basis and ten per cent discount given, except to those who have a regular advertising account.
