THE EDITOR'S MAIL

An Invidious Distinction.

Sir,—Presuming that your list of guests invited to the luncheon on the Jacques Cartier was correct, it was extremely gratifying to see that two gentlemen were invited who, in addition to representing their respective denominations, would add dignity to the occasion.

But who were invited to represent the other denominations? To an onlooker it certainly looks as if an invidious distinction had been made.

At a state function of this kind all sections of the Church have an equal claim to recognition. An explanation of the principle of selection would be very acceptable to a very large number in this Province.

Trusting that it may be given through the press. I am, etc.

Illegal Liquor Selling at Souris.

The following liquor dealers were convicted and fined (last week) before Mr. Blanchard: Capt. A. R. McDonald, R. McDonald, J. D. McCormack, E. Schongie, B. D. McLean, E. McKenzie all for first offence, but it is feared they are still selling. One dive is still running Sunday, night and day. Can nothing be done to stop this liquor traffic? Surely the Inspector Mr. Campbell will pay us another visit right away and try and close up these dives. He has made a good start; let him continue it. It is a common sight to see young and old staggering on our street at mid-night.

Yours truly
WIFE.

BRITISH AUDIENCE MAY THROW STONES AT STAGE.

LONDON, July 23.—According to the latest interpretation of the British law the audience in a theatre may throw stones at the stage with impunity. A rowdy has been hauled up in a police court charged with throwing stones in a music hall at Hoxton. Six or seven stones were produced in court but the magistrate held that in the absence of any witness having been struck with stones or individually pelted by the thrower the prisoner must go free.

NEWSPAPERS EXCLUDED.

PITTSFIELD, Mass., July 23.—At the opening of to-day's session of Fosburg manslaughter trial Judge G. Stevens excluded from the court house two men and two women representing newspapers for articles published in those papers bearing on the case which were objectionable to the court. The sheriff requested the correspondents to leave the court room and those representing the papers named by the judge went out in a huff.

Lord Rosebery has notified the Liberal party in Britain that the party is in a hole and can't get out.—Ottawa Journal.

KUMFORT Headache Powders are safe, pleasant, and effectual. They contain no opiates or any harmful drug. They create no habit from continued use.

THE INORDINATE PIANIST.

A Washington barrister has applied for an injunction to restrain a neighbor from playing inordinately on the piano. He admits that there can be a legitimate use of pianos, but claims that it should be restricted to certain specified hours in the day.—Toronto Globe.

When you ask for Headache Powders be sure you get KUMFORT. Never accept a substitute. It is better to be safe than sorry and you may be sure that KUMFORT are the best. All Druggists.

A SAMPLE OF POETRY.

There are all kinds of poets now-a-days. Here is an American aquatic effusion: "Yankee Doodle built a yacht, to be the cup defender; every time she sailed a race it took a week to mend her."

Don't Judge Them by the Price

These ladies' Sailors, children's Sailors and Tams in our big window to-day are not to be judged by the price.

We are selling them for 15c.

But that in many cases does not represent 1-4 their real value. The original prices ran as high as 75c each, but they have all come to one common level 15c.

Just now too we've added about 20 dozen more men's and boy's caps to the bargain furnace mostly worth 75c some only 50c but now they all go at 25c. Any one staking their money on their bargains will surely win.

Your Piano Wants

Can't be filled as well by any piano has by the MORRIS.

Do you know about the mechanism of a piano—the hammers, strings, dampers, etc., etc.? Can you determine between cheap, unseasoned materials in the hands of poor workmen and high class, expensive materials moulded by the most skillful mechanics that ever built a piano?

You must trust a house with a reputation: That is why so many pianos of the MORRIS make find a place in Canadian homes from one end of the Dominion to the other.
