Anaemia, or poor or watery blood, is a trouble from which most growing girls, and many young boys suffer. It comes at a critical period of the young person's life, and unless prompt steps are taken to enrich the blood and thus strengthen the system, decline, and most likely consumption will follow.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills not only cure all cases like the above, but also cure all other troubles arising from poor blood or weak nerves, such as rheumatism, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, indigestion, kidney and liver troubles, scrofula, and eruptions of the skin, etc.

THE death took place at his son's home North Cardigan, of Donald Maclean, in the ninety-fourth year of his age. He deceased emigrated from the Isle of Skye in the year 1840 and settled at Brown's Creek (now Heatherdale). In addition to farming he worked at his trade, boat-building, which he followed up to late years. He built the first vessel that was built at Montague Bridge, when there were only three houses there. A member of the Presbyterian Church, he lived an unassuming life and died in the full assurance of a glorious immortality. He leaves four children to mourn their loss, two sons and a daughter in Cardigan and a daughter in California. (Pat and Ex please copy.)
