IMPERIAL PREFERENCE ADVOCATED

Special to The Guardian. LONDON, Oct. 6.—Mr. Balour, speaking at Edinburgh failed to outline any definite conservative policy touching Imperial Preference. His speech unfortunately suffered by the writer interest displayed in the Portuguese resolution, vacated by Mr. Balfour argued that the Ministerial Commission on West Indies Trade composed of the opponents of Imperial Preference had been compelled to present a report based on the facts, which strongly supported such preference although contrary to their own private views. He urged the Government action along the lines of this report. Press criticism generally deplores Mr. Balfour's failure to sharply define the Conservative policy.

BAD SMELL CAUSES A WAGE RAISE DEMAND

VICTORIA, B. C., Oct. 4.—The bad odor arising from a cargo of whale oil and guano has caused a demand for more wages among the longshoremen employed on the steamer Amur. The men were receiving forty cents and hour for day work and fifty cents for night work, and claimed that it was worth ten cents above the regular scale of pay owing to the nature of the cargo, stating that the aroma of the whale oil and fertilizer stung to their clothes, making the work of discharging very disagreeable. The demand was refused and the cargo was discharged by the crew of the vessel.

PUBLIC FLEECED OF MILLIONS IN FAKE MINES.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Two hundred thousand dollars a day pour into the offices of the fraudulent mining stock brokers of New York. One hundred million dollars in the last three years. Thirty millions of this amount went into the coffers of one concern alone. Another hundred million went to all of them during the three years preceding the panic of 1907. A "suckers' list" of the names of 250,000 victims, used by all the large concerns, is their most cherished asset, resulting from the working "understanding" between them. These figures are furnished by Post-office Inspector Warren W. Dickson. And the figures are on the increase. The first named sum represents the average fraudulent operations of today, or a total for the year 1910 of $78,000,000.

Inspector Dickson says: "The fake mining schemers are nourishing in the financial district of New York like weeds in an unkempt garden. They have done more harm to legitimate investments than all the appeals for a sane conservatism have done good. The marvellous part of their insidious advance is that they use the same old 'bumco' talk, so shallow, it would seem to any average intellect, and yet the same victims are found biting again and again. 'Down in Pine street, the heart of the money section, there is today, in a well furnished office, most conspicuous in appearance, the 'Suckers' Directory' of the fraud gang. As soon as a concern puts out more literature, they consult the directory in order to get quick returns. Whenever a new victim bites his name is added to the list. 'It seems that all a person has to do is to have a full page in a metropolitan paper advertising a bonanza, then scatter smaller advertising through the country periodicals, usually reproducing the New York advertisement, with the heading of the paper and the statement, 'Look what New York thinks of our investment.' The money to begin to pour in. The 'Suckers' Directory' does the rest and secures the men with the larger amounts. 'The evil has now grown to unimaginable proportions. Branch offices are established everywhere and great quantities of mining shares are sold as a paper they are printed upon are unloaded upon a gullible public. They play no small part in the poor estimation in which American investments are held abroad, and have much to do with the serious difficulties now confronting legitimate enterprises. 'When I tell you that to my knowledge one concern has taken in over $30,000,000 since the panic from the pockets of women and small investors, it is safe to assume that the amount taken in before the panic has been equalled since that time.'"

THE FIRST METHODIST NEW ORGAN

The magnificent new organ of the First Methodist Church is now nearing the completion of its installation. There are yet a number of pipes to be placed which will be fitted after the tuning of the first section is over. This, it is anticipated will be done today. The new organ presents an imposing front to the congregation. It extends almost from one side of the church to the other and the splendid arrangement of the pipes has a very artistic effect. The coloring and decoration of the pipes are beautiful. The handsome mounting of the organ which is quartered golden oak, completes an arrangement, which, perhaps, is equal to any in Canada for attractiveness.

The console is situated in the center of the choir stalls and Prof. Wright will now have his choir before him. The console is beautifully finished in mahogany, the three manuals being covered when not in use by a roll top arrangement. There are quite a number of features which distinguish the new organ, which is the manufacture of the famous Karp-Morris Piano and Organ Co., Woodstock, Ont. First there are the chimés. These are scented from the choir swell box, another of the prominent features of the organ. The chimés are not found in any organ east of Montreal and the beautiful effect produced when these are played will give the keenest delight. Another is the Vox Humana, one of the most expensive stops procurable. The Karp Co. have a highly competent voicer and the tone of this stop when tuned will almost perfectly resemble the human voice.

Again there are the adjustable pistons which control the stops and swells. This is one of the most modern improvements in up-to-date organ constructions. By the use of these pistons, so situated as to be most convenient to the organist, any combination may be obtained, the organist preparing his required stops before the piece is played. There are thirty-two speaking stops and fourteen couplers, all of which may be controlled by the pistons. The pedal board is concave and radiating. It is being set up by H. A. Kern, the firm's builder, who has been engaged for the past two weeks in assembling the hundreds of parts. An idea of the immensity of the task can be conveyed when it is stated that there are about 2700 separate pieces. Another thing about the construction is that the organ was first built up and assembled in the factory then all taken down, shipped to Charlottetown and rebuilt. The wind is supplied to the pipes by an immense set of bellows in the basement which are operated by Ross automatic and noiseless motor. The congregation of the First Methodist Church of Charlottetown is to be congratulated on their new acquisition which will prove an addition which will attract lovers of good organ music.

It has been definitely decided to have the opening recital on Wednesday the 19th. It will be conducted by Prof. H. A. Wheelton, Mus. Bac. (Cantab.) F. R. C. O. organist of the Metropolitan Methodist Church, Toronto, who has the largest organ in Canada containing as it does 100 speaking stops. Prof. Wheelton was recommended to the organ committee as one of the best, if not the very best, organist in Canada today. He has produced many compositions of note which have been played throughout the British Empire and the United States, including Edwin Lemare, on whose programs Professor Wheelton's well known compositions have frequently found a place. The programme will also include solos by Mrs. Covey, of Halifax, one of the leading vocalists of the Maritime Provinces, and by several popular singers. This will be a great musical treat and the large audience no doubt will be filled to its utmost capacity.

SOPHS VS FRESHIES AT OLD MCGILL

The Guardian correspondent at McGill College has contributed the article following: From time to time during the College year the progress of the P. E. I. boys at McGill and any other occurrences in the college of personal interest will be furnished readers of The Guardian at short intervals. The McGill Science annual bandage "rush" for the students of the first and second years to the college campus morning. The sophomores undertook to initiate the Freshmen into the mysteries of the bandage "rush," but the latter this year have a large class, and with what they lacked in experience they made up in quantity. As a result the Freshies captured 53 sophs, and only lost 19 of their own men. A number of Island students were lined up on the opposing sides.

The Art students do not engage in a "rush," having last year adopted the method of testing their powers by means of a push ball. Their contest takes place Wednesday. Following the precedent of the last few years the sophomore medics have given up the old time "rush" and now permit the Freshies to have the honor of dining them.

PORTUGAL NOW A REPUBLIC.

LONDON, Oct. 6.—Portugal has been proclaimed a republic according to the latest Lisbon advices. Leopole Bragada, the noted Republican leader is the new President. The Portuguese Margulise is the new National Anthem and the emblem of Monarchy on the palace has been replaced by a flag of red and green, the colors of the Republican Party. That there was fierce fighting in the streets of Lisbon is evidenced by despatches from all quarters. "Disorders at Oporto" have been repressed by troops, many regiments of which are still loyal to the King. King Manuel, the Queen Mother, and Queen Dowager are reported to have taken refuge in the Palace at Matra, a short distance out of Lisbon. They may now be on British warships bound for Gibraltar—at least they are considered to have reached a place of safety.

SPLENDID DISCOVERY AT EDSON

Special to The Guardian. WINNIPEG, Oct. 6.—What is undoubtedly the richest discovery of mica ever made in western Canada, is reported from Edson, Alta. This is a divisional point on the main line of the Grand Trunk Pacific, in the foothills of the Rockies. The deposit was struck while the men were digging a trench for drainage and immediately afterwards a number of claims were staked. Samples have been received here and show mica of the highest grade and in large slabs. Already a large proportion of the men who camped at Edson, waiting the completion of the road into Peace River, are working on mica claims.

MITCHELL HANDS OVER REINS TO MAYOR GAYNOR.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—John Purroy Mitchell sent to the mayor today a voluminous report, detailing his stewardship as acting mayor and he again recommended the dismissal of Wm E. Baker as the commissioner of police. The much talked of letter by Commissioner Baker to one sent him by the acting mayor in which vice and gambling in the city and Coney Island were called to his attention, was made public with Mr Mitchell's report. It is a sharp reply, and Mr Mitchell, commenting thereon to the mayor, says its "general tone is insubordinate." Because of this and the failure of the police department to suppress vice and gambling, and because, as Mr Mitchell declares, "of the falsehood, of which the commissioner had been guilty," he recommends his dismissal. The mayor had no comment to make on the matter but has taken it under advisement.

BEWARE OF HIGH HEELS.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—Beware of the Louis heel! Dr. Von Koranyi of Budapest, says that study of a large series of statistics prepared from the experience of others confirmed him in the belief that high heeled shoes play a distinct part in causing displacement of the kidneys, especially in conjunction with the heavy drag of clothes above the constricted waist. The elevation of the heels causes an increase in the lumbar curve, says Dr. von Koranyi, and this entails displacement of the kidney even if that organ lies originally well back as a well behaved kidney should.

DIVORCE AND RE-MARRIAGE.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Oct. 4.—In his charge to the Anglican Synod last night, Bishop Richardson spoke plainly on the question of the sanctity of marriage. He said: "The re-marriage of a divorced person, during the lifetime of the other party to the former union, is not only repugnant to the church's sense of right and wrong, but it is absolutely prohibited by canon law. There are, then, no conceivable circumstances which would justify a priest in performing such a ceremony."

WHAT IS A "GENTLEMAN"?

A thorough gentleman is born as such; He's not produced by artificial touch. Such gentleman e'er courtesy displays; Politeness all his daily actions sways. But ill-bred man, who, by vile instinct led, With real delight will meekly bow his head. To upstart parvenus and millionaires, Has learnt his manners on the kitchen stairs. If on an act of courtesy he puts A wrong construction, or a jeer, or doubt, Then let him with his want of manners strut, And all idea to recognize his scout. If he is guilty of discourtesy, That, indeed, is scarcely worth the heading— It proves a flaw in mind's lucidity, And is surest sign of his low breeding. Born gentlemen should never take offence. At upstart parvenus' impertinence, And he should never heed a would-be slight. Of those who courtesy oft ill requite!

CANADA CRUISER MAKING SPEED

Special to The Guardian. OTTAWA, Oct. 6.—The Canadian cruiser Rainbow has safely turned the corner of South America, and is now on her way to North Esquimaut. The cruiser having passed Cape Horn, has reported from Coquimbo, Chili, a day ahead of scheduled time. Coal was taken on there and the cruiser headed for British Columbia.

KING MANUEL NOT FRIENDLY TO VATICAN.

ROME, Oct. 5.—The events in Portugal are being followed here with deep interest, especially at the Vatican, where the news of the revolution has distressed more than it has surprised. The pope particularly has been moved by the tragic events and has offered prayers that a solution may be found to avoid further bloodshed. The Vatican distinctly desires to contradict the statement that King Manuel has been too friendly to the clerical party. The recent religious troubles in Portugal and the speech from the throne a few weeks ago, it is pointed out, demonstrated the erroneousness of this statement. In that speech the king threatened war against the religious orders and the holy see expected a repetition in Portugal of the policy which Premier Canalejas is conducting in Spain.

FOUNDER OF NEW CHURCH.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Oct. 4.—The Rev. Dr. Geo. R. Lunn cares more for human beings than theology. That's why he shocked his wealthy and aristocratic congregation here with repeated attacks on grabbing corporations, then resigned his pastorate and organized a new, creedless people's church. Dr. Lunn began fighting early in life. He's young yet. He quit his theological studies to go to war with Col. Bryan's regiment, fought typhoid fever and won out, preached a while in Omaha and Brooklyn churches, then came to Schenectady. He began preaching a live gospel for live men and women—discarding some orthodox traditions and insisting that a man's life mattered more than his belief. Then Dr. Lunn turned on his oratorical galling guns. "Why not cut down the notoriously watered capital stock?" he asked.

Then he attacked the traction general manager, reached for his hat. The General Electric's monopoly was charging $1.50 a thousand. Next Sunday more news were hurriedly gasped when Dr. Lunn asked why gas cost so much more here than in other cities. Then this versatile parson invited Gov. Hughes to come and talk about the anti-race track gambling bill against which the local legislator had voted. Republican politicians said they could invite the governor if they thought it was really necessary. A preacher's business was to let politics alone. The General Electric bosses both parties here. But Gov. Hughes came and the gang lawyer had to make way for a real representative of the people. By this time most of the wealthy members who paid Dr. Lunn's salary were represented by empty pews, but there was a noticeable increase in the attendance of plain, ordinary folks. The preacher engineered an inspection of the books of the board of supervisors. It was very shocking to sensitive souls when he read from the pulpit some salient facts buried in the investigators' report. It showed that many leading business men had been paid large sums for supplies that couldn't be traced farther than the bills. Dr. Lunn then formed the People's church. He holds two meetings every Sunday in a local theatre—1500 people divided about equally as to sex—enthusiastic over the doctrine of democracy in religion.
