one of the four were in charge of both wards?

A.—There was, if we were called down to the office or went down on duty. Say I would be alone in Ward 2 and I had to go down to the office if I was sent for, I would tell the attendant in Ward 1 that I was going.

Q.—That would be only for a few moments?

A.—For a few minutes?

Q.—But never was there an occasion when for two or three hours anything like that happened?

A.—No.

Q.—Inquiry adjourned until Monday

CHRISTMAS CONCERT—The Christmas concert by the Sunday School children of Trinity United Church, Summerside, was held on Tuesday evening in Epworth Hall. The performance was attended by parents and friends of the little ones. After a piano solo, the Christmas carol "The First Nowell" was heartily sung by the children, the audience joining in the chorus. This was followed by recitations and songs, delightfully carried out by the little ones and very much enjoyed by the grown ups. During an interval the children brought their gift-envelopes and placed them on the tree. At the close of the concert, Santa Claus came in and was greeted with three cheers, candy and prizes were distributed by the jolly old elf to the pupils. The beautiful carol "Silent Night" was a fitting close to a most enjoyable evening.

ST. MARY'S CHRISTMAS TREE—The Children of St. Mary's Sunday School held their annual Christmas tree concert on Tuesday evening in St. Mary's Hall. The interior was very gay with Christmas trimmings. The stage was softly lighted with coloured foot lights. A prettily decorated Christmas tree stood to one side of the stage and was loaded down with gifts and candy. Rev. Dr. White presided in his usual happy manner. The performance of songs, recitations, dialogues, and readings was charmingly carried out by the children. Two little plays by the older children were very much appreciated. The performance opened and closed with a chorus by all the pupils and received well merited applause. Santa Claus made his appearance at the close, and presented each child with a bag of candy and prizes for attendance. Miss Marion MacLellan received first prize for attendance. After a few closing remarks from the chairman all joined in singing the National Anthem. A vote of thanks was extended to the ladies, who had instructed the children in their parts for the concert.—S.

DEATH OF MRS. WILLIAM ROGERS—There passed away on Christmas Day at Chelton, Mrs. William Rogers, at the age of 76 years, after a long illness. Mrs. Rogers had resided for 45 years at St. Eleanors and will be kindly remembered by many old friends there. Of late years she has lived with her son, Coleman, at Chelton, where she passed away. Her husband predeceased her about 8 years ago. There are left to mourn, three sons and one daughter, namely, Coleman, Arthur and George, at Chelton, and Mrs. Howard Perry at St. Eleanors; also three brothers, Hubert Oatway, of St. Eleanors and William and John, of Freetown, Lot 11; and one sister, Mrs. Julia Philoer of Charlottetown, to all of whom much sympathy is extended. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon. The service at the house in Chelton was conducted by Rev. Mr. Archibald and at St. John's Church, St. Eleanors, by Ven. Archdeacon White, D. D. Interment was in the cemetery adjoining the church.—S.

ST. JOHN'S DAY FITTINGLY OBSERVED—Members of Hiram and Lebanon Lodge, No. 3, A. F. and A. M., fittingly observed St. John's Day with a service of Divine Worship in their lodge rooms on Sunday. Rev. L. B. Campbell, of Trinity United Church was the special speaker and preached an inspiring sermon on their patron saint.—S.

FUR BUYER—Mr. Feder, who was here a few weeks ago, returned to Summerside Saturday night and will be buying silver fox furs at B. Graham Rogers' office until December 31st. Bring in your furs as early as possible this week and receive good cash prices for them. Mr. Feder bought a large number of pelts on his last trip and is open to buy equally as many this week. 11184-41

MID-NIGHT MASS: Christmas was fittingly observed at St. Simon and St. Jude's Church, Tignish, in the celebration of Mid-Night Mass by the Pastor, Reverend J. A. MacDonald. The full

Choir began the Christmas Carols at 11.30 p. m. and continued while throngs of parishioners and visitors were being seated. Every seat in the large edifice was occupied. The Altar was handsomely illuminated with hundreds of candles, vari-colored and lights and flowers, while the Crib, with the Child Jesus, His Mother, St. Joseph, representing the Nativity, was also beautiful with lights and decorations. Confessions were heard all day Thursday and late that night and an immense number received Communion. During the Communion the following solos were particularly well rendered, "O Salutaris" by Henry Gallant, "Ave Maria" by Adrien Richard and "Adore Te Devote" by Jerry Gaudet.—T.

FEES REDUCED—In order to promote Intermediate hockey on Prince Edward Island the usual M. A. H. A. affiliation fee which has been ten dollars for intermediates is reduced to two dollars for this season. The reduction will no doubt enable those teams who are withdrawing to continue. It is asked that all teams wishing to affiliate will notify the chairman of Intermediate hockey at once. C. E. Jones, Summerside, Chairman for the Maritimes. 11260
