No. 2 Siege Battery Entertained

F. H. Littlejohns; solo, Miss Helen Hughes; comic song, Gunner Hilchey; solo, Miss Holmquest; solo, Gunner Williamson; solo, Miss Kathleen Moore. The accompaniments were well played by Miss Stanley and Professor Thompson. During the rendition of the programme Colonel the Hon. Dr. Jenkins was called upon by the Chairman to address the gathering. The men, he said, were soon to go overseas, and they would then undertake duties which would be a great deal harder than anything they had thus far been called upon to perform here. They were going to fight, and if need be to die, for the Empire of which they were all justly proud. He had not the slightest doubt that every man would willingly lay down his life for the Empire; and although he hoped that dangerous as their undertaking might prove, they might not lose their lives, yet if they were called upon to make the supreme sacrifice he was sure not a man of them would flinch for a moment. They would go to France with one powerful incentive to duty before them, and that was the barbarous murder of Miss Cavell, the heroic English nurse. If they bore her case in mind, he was sure that every man behind a gun would be inspired with patriotic fervour and an overwhelming desire to do his best to assist in the overthrow of the enemy.

Dr. Jenkins also said that the citizens, while honouring the men who were going to the front, should remember, with sympathy, the sad case of those who had been "turned down" through physical unfitness. They were just as keen, every one of them, to do their duty as those who had been accepted, and that they were not in khaki was only their misfortune. He thought their patriotism and heroism in offering themselves to their country should be recognised, even though they were not accepted. Col. Jenkins closed by thanking the ladies of the First Methodist and Grace Churches, on behalf of the Battery, for their kindness and expressed his appreciation of their splendid efforts.

Captain Prowse also made a few remarks in which he thanked the ladies for the magnificent supper and entertainment which had been provided them. He was sure that the men, when they arrived at the firing line, would be cheered and stimulated by the recollection of such happy incidents as the present entertainment. He expressed the hope that similar treatment might be extended to the Infantry when they were about to leave. He moved three hearty cheers for the ladies, and these were lustily given.

With the singing of "The Maple Leaf" and the National Anthem a highly successful evening's enjoyment was concluded. The ladies of both Methodist Churches are to be congratulated on the efforts which they have put forth, not only on this occasion, but at other times, to show in a tangible manner their partiotism and loyalty.

Puts Another Face on It

Many a man jauntily takes his cup or two of tea or coffee at a meal and declares that it doesn't hurt him!

But wait until the poisonous drug, caffeine, in tea and coffee begins to show its cumulative effects, and puts a different face on the proposition.

It's a fact anyone can verify, that caffeine hardens the arteries, brings on premature old age, and sallows and wrinkles the skin. Some of the signs are headache, irritability, biliousness, heart flutter, sleeplessness, dizziness, "fag" and so on.

The way out is to quit both tea and coffee, and for a pleasant. healthful beverage use

INSTANT POSTUM

—the pure food-drink.

This delightful beverage is made from finest wheat, roasted with a bit of wholesome molasses. It has a fine colour and a delicious, snappy taste, but contains no caffeine nor any other harmful substance.

Postum makes for health, happiness and vigor.

CHURCH SERVICES.—Presbyterian Church services, Lot 14, Nov. 21, at 3 p.m. and 7 p.m.

SOLDIERS, don't miss the Goose supper at the Kozey Korner this evening. 3949.

DANCING CLASS.—The Princess Patricia Dancing Class will hold their dance on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock in Miss Gorman's Hall. 3948

NO MORE PARTRIDGES.—The partridge season closed Monday and it is earnestly hoped that everyone will do his part in helping to protect these valuable birds, which are reported to have been very scarce this fall owing to the very cold and wet spring.

A SOUVENIR.—Interest in the war is becoming so intense that it is scarcely safe to leave even a war map lying around loose. The other day a large and valuable war map was taken out of Professor Earl's studio and it had been tacked to the wall too. The enthusiast who took it is no doubt going to the front and is studying the situation. When he gets through and makes himself thoroughly sure of the different localities he intends to operate in the Professor would be delighted to accept the map from him again as a souvenir.

SOUTHPORT SCHOOL.—The following is the standing of the pupils of Southport School for October:—Grade VI.—1st, Tena Crosman; 2nd, Alice Crosman; 3rd, Lilian Smith. Grade V.—1st, Harry Stewart; 2nd, Maria Aylward; 3rd, Blanche Gaudet. Grade IV.—1st, Herbert Bell; 2nd, John Aylward; 3rd, Victor Crosman. Senior—1st Janie Smith; 2nd, Ilene Carver; 3rd, Lena Chappelle. Grade I. Junior—1st, Gesty Chappelle; 2nd, Regie Bell; 3rd, Richard Carver. Regular attendance—Alice Crosman, Jos. Trainor, Margaret McDonald, Maria Aylward, Lorney Flood, Katie Aylward, Florence Shea, Lilla Wood, Mary Smith, Janie Smith. Harvey Christopher, teacher.

MAMMOTH OIL PAINTING.—A remarkable work of art of huge dimensions is presently being shown in the big show window of Messrs Beer & Weeks, Grafton Street. This magnificent oil painting is unique in its way. Although no name is discernible on the work of a master hand. It takes the form of a huge map or rather bird's-eye view of the whole extent of the Maritime Provinces, with the blue waters of the Atlantic stretching to the far hozizon. The "Garden of the Gulf" nestles in a golden glory, while the bleak shores of Anticosti stand out on the northern sky-line. The map clearly shows the various railway lines of the Canadian Government Railways through the vast expanses of mountain, forest and field in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island. Through the neutral tinted clouds above break the beams of the Northern sun. Here and there on the map are introduced a number of charming little framed sketches of local scenery. The picture is valued at $400 and is enclosed in a massive ornamental frame.

ONLY POSSIBLE TERMS OF PEACE

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Right Hon. C. F. G. Masterman, in an article entitled, "The only possible peace terms," published in the Daily Chronicle, believed to represent the Government's view, says:—

"Belgium will be restored to independence, with indemnity adequate to rebuilding her cities and industries and compensation for her disabled and her dead.

"France will receive Alsace and Lorraine, indemnity for all the damage done in the present conquered provinces, but also a natural boundary, which would render Germany's attack forever unrepeatable alike upon Belgium and France, is the boundary of the Rhine.

"Let Germany remain there, for the Rhine is its natural boundary.

"Denmark shall receive Schleswig, which is purely Danish.

"German, Austrian and Russian Poland shall be united under the Czar, or a King appointed by him.

"Italy would receive the Trentino and the whole of Italy irredanta.

"The Turkish Empire would be torn to fragments and Armenia, Syria, Palestine, Mesopotomia and Thrace divided amongst those who would develop and revive these once fair places now desolated under alien rule. The Turks would generally be penned up in Central Anatolian.

"Serbia will be restored with heavy indemnity from Austria-Hungary to repair the vast damage done. She will receive Bosnia and Herzegovina, full and adequate access to the Adriatic and all of Austria that is Serb.

"A united Roumania, a united Greece is possible, if the nations can rise to the height of their opportunity. If Greece or Roumania consider Greece irredenta or Translyvania not worth fighting for, they shall never receive them.

GOOSE SUPPER will be served to the soldiers at a special price this evening at the Kozey Korner. 3949.

CHURCH OF SCOTLAND.—Rev. Ewen McDougall will preach Sabbath 21st at Bangor at 10.30 and Dundas at 5 p.m.

SALE.—To-day is the day to get a bargain in trotting stock. We will sell for Duncan Robertson, North River, to-day, commencing at 1.30 p.m. sharp, ten of the best bred horses on the Island, also cattle, pigs and crop. Benj. Carter, Auctioneer. 3947

IN MEMORIAN

MRS ANGUS MCISAAC.

The community of Glenwood Lot 8 was deeply saddened on Monday night, Nov. 8th by the death of Mrs. Angus McIsaac. Deceased had been in declining health for the past year and gradually became weaker until she passed peacefully away. The late Mrs. MacIsaac was a model woman, gentle and pious, and during her long illness was ever cheerful and uncomplaining In her home she was the soul of hospitality, a genial hostess and a generous giver to all charitable offerings. She died strengthened by the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church of which she was an ardent worker and a devoted member. The funeral took place Thursday morning to St. Mary's Church Brae where a Requiem High Mass was sung by the pastor, Rev. R. J. McDonald. She leaves to mourn a sorrowing husband, one son, Preston at home, and one daughter Alice, teacher at Glenwood, besides a large circle of relatives and friends to whom the sincere sympathy of all is extended in their sad bereavement.

MRS HARRY H. COX, MORELL.

It is with deep regret the Guardian has to record the death of Mrs. H. H. Cox, Morell, (nee Lottie MacLaine) who passed away Sunday morning (13 th inst.) after a short illness of about 24 hours, of acute kidney trouble. The news of the death was heard with univeral regret for she was a general favorite in the community. Her genial disposition, her kindness and hospitality endeared her to all her acquaintances. Her death at the early age of 32, has cast a gloom over the surrounding country, and is an irreparable loss to the home over which she presided so competently, and a great loss to the church and community. Deep sympathy is felt for Mr. H. H. Cox and his young son Herbert in their great bereavement and for her mother Mrs. MacLaine of Bay View House, St. Peter's, who has had "sorrow upon sorrow" The funeral which took place the following day, was one of the largest ever seen in the community. The service at the house and grave were conducted by her pastor Rev. J. M. MacLeod. The beatiful floral wreaths from many friends, the sincere expressions of sympathy and sorrow, on every hand, testified to the high esteem in which Mrs. Cox was held.

MRS. JOHN E. YEO.

The residents of Northam were appalled on Tuesday morning last, when it was learned that Mrs. John E. Yeo of that place, had passed away during the night. Deceased was in her usual good health when she retired on Monday evening. At eleven, she became alarmingly ill. A doctor was hastily summoned, and everything that mortal hands could do was done to stay the destroyer's hands, but hemmorage of the brain was speedily accomplishing its dread work and at two o'clock she had breathed her last. Words fail to describe the anguish of the stricken family and the great sorrow felt throughout the entire community, as she was a universal favorite, loved and trusted by all. Happy in disposition, refined in manner, and tender in heart, she was ever ready to comfort the bereaved and sorrowful, or lend a helping hand to those in need. She leaves a sorrowing husband, two sons, and six daughters. The sons are Arthur in Victoria, B. C., and Horace of the 55th Battalion now in England. The daughters are Mrs. (Dr.) G. C. Read of Kaslo, B. C.; Mrs. Daniel MacArthur of Northam; Pearl, teacher at Spring Hill; Myrtle of R. T. Holman's Summerside; Lulu, who has been teaching in Western Canada, but who is now at home, and Lizzie at home; also five brothers and five sisters. The funeral took place on Thursday the 11th inst., to Port Hill Cemetery, and was very largely attended, many having come by train from Charlottetown, Summerside, O'Leary and other places. The services were conducted by Rev. J. J. Bamford and Rev. T. A. Wilson. The bearers were Edmund Maynard, Hugh Maynard, Herbert Rodd, Daniel MacLean, Cornelius McLellan and William B. Hayes. There were many beautiful floral tributes among which were the following: Wreath from the family; Dr. and Mrs. H. E. MacEwen, O'Leary, wreath; Hon. Senator Yeo, wreath; Hon. and Mrs. John Richards, wreath; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wyatt, Summerside, wreath; James Squarebriggs and family, Miscouche, pillow; Maple Leaf Rebecca Lodge, Summerside, spray; Dr. and Mrs. George Carruthers, wreath; Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius McLellan, cross; Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Bamford, cross; Mr. and Mrs. R. Silliphant, Summerside, wreath; Employees of Messrs Holman, Ltd., crescent; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McNally, Summerside, crescent; Miss Winnie Schurman, Summerside, spray.

Darling mother, thou hast left us,
And thy place cannot be filled,
For those lips that spoke so kindly,
In this world have now been stilled.

Mother, we shall meet thee yonder,
In that bright and heavenly home,
Where we all shall be together,
With the Saviour on his throne.

Good-bye now, our mother darling,
Thou are happier than we;
For thy faithful life on earth,
Christ has promised joy to thee.

ARRIVAL OF HAY STEAMER

The following letter speaks for itself. When the steamship Don Diego sailed from her early this fall with hay for France, Mr F. Mahar of this city placed a letter in one of the bales, asking for a reply. The reply is herewith given:—

Private W. Stannard, 13262,
A.S.C., B.E.F., France,
Tuesday, Nov. 2nd, 1915.

Dear Mr Mahar,—I am pleased to tell you I received your letter in a bale of hay on board of S.S. Don Diego, somewhere in France, I cannot tell you the name. I am pleased to say the ship arrived quite safely, and, according to the crew's statement, made a fine passage. I discovered your letter on Monday, the 1st., whilst taking hay to the front, and am taking the first opportunity of answering, according to your wishes.

We are having terrible weather just at present, otherwise, with the little exception of hardships, things are fairly comfortable. Of course it is not like being in a house—but no growling.

How do you think we are going? A little more progress being made than there was this time last year. I don't think the Germans want a deal more.

Now, sir, if you care to write I should very much like to hear from you. Hoping this will find you in the best of health and that you will continue to enjoy the same, believe me, I remain, yours truly,

W. STANNARD.

P.S.—This is an exceptional experience.
