MISS EDNA HUGHES

The death occurred at her home, 106 Pownal Street, Thursday afternoon after a prolonged illness of Edna, beloved daughter of Mrs. and the late Peter Hughes. Confined to her bed for the past six years, the deceased was attentively cared for by the members of her family.

Of a bright and cheerful disposition, the late Miss Hughes was a great favorite with her numerous friends particularly in the store of Alley & Co., where she was employed as saleslady for a number of years before her retirement owing to ill health. She enjoyed the confidence not only of her employers but also the large number of customers whom she always found a pleasure to serve.

She was a valued member of the ladies' choir of St. Dunstan's Basilica and prominent in all lines of sport participated in by the young ladies of the city.

She leaves to mourn a sorrowing mother and the following brothers and sisters: Inez of the Wright Shoe Co., Kathleen of the millinery department of S. A. McDonald; Mrs. O'Brien, city; and Claire and Adele at home; a brother, Edgbert, and half brother, Reginald Harrington, city, to all of whom the Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

Alta. Election Date Awaited

EDMONTON, May 10. — Alberta electors, in the throes of a political campaign embracing the old-line party divisions and the new-born "social credit" cry, still do not know when they go to the polls.

Late June or early July appear the best guesses thus far but even the date of the United Farmers of Alberta caucus is not yet decided and it is from this meeting will come the election date announcement.

Electors noted the New Brunswick general election is called for June 27. This date has been rumored for the Alberta poll battle but in recent weeks an early July date has been favored. It is recalled the New Brunswick general election in 1930 was held on June 19, the same day Premier J. E. Brownlee of Alberta led his U. F. A. party to a majority-over-all victory.

Committed To Stand Trial For Murder

TORONTO, May 10. — Charged with the murder of his wife whose body was found under a lilac bush in a residential district here last July 17, Alwynne E. Thompson was committed for trial today by Magistrate William Keith.

"The evidence so far is mostly circumstantial," said Crown Attorney Frank Moore after a score of witnesses had given much the same testimony produced at the inquest. Thompson was taken from Guelph Reformatory last week at the close of a term he served for perjury in connection with an application for a license to marry Miss Alice Carrie, made the day before Viola Thompson's body was found.

Miss Carrie testified she met Thompson a year ago today. There had never been any mention of Thompson's two children, she said. They had planned to be married on July 19.

Earl Shortt, manager of a firm of pawnbrokers, told the court Thompson came into the shop on the Saturday and pawned for $2 a wedding ring identified by Thompson's landlady as belonging to Mrs. Thompson.

No date was set for Thompson's trial.

Y. P. D. Of Trinity Church Hold Banquet

An enjoyable banquet in the social hall last night brought to a close the year's work of the Trinity United Church Young Peoples Department.

The Reds and the Blacks, the two groups into which the society was divided, competed during the year, for points given for membership and attendance. The Reds were victorious, the Blacks paying a penalty by having to serve the banquet.

A varied and interesting program in connection with the banquet was greatly appreciated, all the numbers being heartily applauded. The program included vocal solos by Miss Sara Wood and Mr. John W. MacKenzie, and a reading, "The Groom's Story," by Mr. Hasen Wigmore. The accompanist for the evening was Miss Thelma Burns. A sing song led by Mr. John MacKenzie was entered into with zest and vigor by the young people.

Rev. Hugh Miller, who presided, in his remarks thanked all who had contributed to making the year's work a success.

He also drew attention to the fact that the President of the Society, Mr. Hasen Wigmore, B. A., has won a scholarship and will not be with the society next year as he will continue his studies in England.

He also paid tribute to the work of the sexton, Mr. Storey, who was always willing to do all in his power to help the work of the young people.

The following was the toast list:
The King responded to by singing the National Anthem.
Canada, proposed by Arthur Green, responded to by singing O Canada.

JOBLESS

Ranks of unemployed strike leaders at Crowland, Ont., were split when four of the six members of the strike committee resigned and announced they were ready to start work again. The 200 strikers did not work yesterday, having refused the offer of Premier Mitchell Hepburn of Ontario for a 10-percent increase in food allowance.

But today it was believed at least 50 would go to work under the protection of Provincial Police.

LOOT STORES

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., May 10—Hoodlums ran riot in the business streets of St. John's tonight, looting small stores after breaking display windows, while 200 reserve policemen joined the regular force and clubbed heads freely in an attempt to restore order after a riot by a group of unemployed.

It was feared numerous civilians had been injured by the batons of police, who sought to curb the disorders resulting from a march by 900 jobless men on the Colonial Building to state demands to officials.

Motor lorries were driven swiftly through the streets to disperse civilians attracted by the disorders.

Early police estimates were that more than 40 small shops had been partly wrecked and looted of candy, fruit and supplies of beer. Some jewelry stores also were entered.

No estimates were immediately available on the number of persons injured.

For a time the police had found themselves powerless to deal with the jobless men and the crowd of civilians who gathered after word spread of the earlier fighting between the police and the column of unemployed men.

DEMAND INCREASED RELIEF

NORTH SYDNEY, N. S., May 10—Unemployed demonstrators swept a policeman aside here today and surged into the town hall to demand an increased scale of direct relief.

Royal Canadian Mounted Police and town officers broke up the crowd as it milled about the building in search of Mayor F. L. Kelley, and three alleged ringleaders were arrested and jailed.

York Meeting Asks Paying Tuber Bonus

A meeting of the farmers of York, West Covehead, Covehead Road, Brackley Point, and Stanhope, numbering over fifty farmers in all was held in York Hall on Wednesday, May 8th, to consider petitioning the Dominion Government to pay a bonus on potatoes grown in 1934.

Mr. Peter Brodie was appointed chairman and Mr. Lester Keizer secretary.

Mr. Brodie ably outlined the business of the meeting, and read some resolutions passed in Prince County. He also gave an estimate of what it is costing the Dominion Government for bonus for wheat, over $50,000,000 being voted last year for the relief of the western farmers.

The Maritime farmers were paying a heavy share of such moneys, and as they have practically the most of the 1934 potato crop on their hands, and as the time has come when they have to buy seeds and fertilizer, seeds being higher priced than usual, they think they have a perfect right to a bonus on last year's crop.

A resolution was moved by Mr. Frank Hughes, West Covehead, that a bonus of $10.00 per acre for potatoes in 1934 be paid the farmers, and the maximum number of acres be six.

An amendment was moved by James McLaughlin, Stanhope, that a bonus of $10.00 per acre, up to ten acres grown, be paid.

After considerable discussion the amendment was put to the meeting, twelve voting for it.

Mr. Hughes' motion was then put and carried by an over two to one vote.

Mr. Hibbert Hughes, West Covehead, moved that a resolution be presented to the government for legislation to compel the growers of more than ten acres to pay $25.00 per acre to the government, this money to go into a fund to revert back to the farmers.

P. E. I. Potatoes Are Appreciated

The following letter speaks for itself and is another evidence of the great need for help still existing in Western Canada:

Bienfait, Sask.

John G. McIntyre, Cardigan, P. E. I.

Dear Sir,—I am writing this in behalf of Mr. Steve Baryluk, (the recipient of your potatoes and note), who is totally illiterate so far as the English language is concerned. You may be sure that the carload of relief potatoes and turnips donated by you generous gentlemen in the East was fully appreciated, and in some cases sorely needed. The greatest majority of the people here are living on relief, many are working in the coal mines, but these are only operating about two or three days each week and wages are very low, so you can easily see that it is absolutely impossible for a large family's maintenance. I may safely say that there is not a family in town in more need of help than the family that received your potatoes. Mr. Baryluk was shot in the hip and permanently crippled during the strike a few years ago, an innocent victim of the riot. He has eleven children, the eldest being a girl of sixteen, and their sole means of livelihood is the scant relief they receive from the town, so you may be certain your potatoes were a God-send to them.

Everyone is talking about the remarkable potatoes you fellows grow down there, so big and clean and uniform in size, also about the excellent quality of the potatoes. I saw one good Irishman running around exhibiting an Irish Cobbler potato and singing its praises to any attentive ear and to everyone in general.

Thanking you in behalf of Mr. Steve Baryluk, I remain,

Yours truly,
OLAF STEVEN.

In memory of a dear husband; and loving Dad,
Who departed this life

IN MEMORIAM

MR. A. RUSSEL McLURE

A Gentleman Passes —

"I had talked with him but the other day
With no foreboding as we walked along.
He was his usual self—so fine and strong,
And now—how short a space—he's gone away!
Perhaps you knew him? Then, you knew a man,
Nor cold, nor forward—just a kindly soul
That people loved, yet him would I extol
For one big trait that placed him in the van
Of princes of his kind—he slandered none;
In that great trespass never played a part,
Nor winged a barb to wound another's heart,
Nor their good name despoiled; and thus he won
Respect and friends, though to the last he strove
But little for that golden treasure-trove."

The above poem by W. V. Newson might well be applied in every particular to the late Angus Russel McLure, of North Rustico, Prince Edward Island, who passed away on the morning of March 22, 1935.

Coming from the sturdy, true and fine pioneer clans of McLure, McNeill and Woolner, which have sent many men out into the business and professional fields of Canada and United States, Mr. McLure, son of the late John S. McLure, American Civil War Veteran, and Caroline Woolner of Cavendish, was born in 1873 on the old McLure homestead, the land of which was owned by his grandfather in 1803.

Mr. McLure, who was beloved in his community, was always ready to aid the sick and needy. In his own illness his friends were legion, coming day and night to reciprocate the many acts of kindness they had so appreciated in their friend.

An instance of his own kindness of heart might be mentioned. He was a lover of farm stock, particularly horses, and always owned good horses. He had a faithful Scotch Collie dog for some years, and his kindness of heart was shown in a very generous bequest to provide for this animal to be most humanely dealt with.

In politics Mr. McLure was a Conservative.

In religion, he was not one who would parade his convictions, but talked about the Great Beyond to his friends with the personal confidence of going home. He lived his religion day by day to his fellow man: he showed it in many ways, in kindness to animals, generosity to those in need, and willingness to aid those in times of trouble.

He was a Presbyterian, having worshipped all his life in the old Cavendish Presbyterian (now United) Church. Through the kindness of Rev. Mr. Patterson, the present minister, this church was most kindly offered for the funeral services.

The funeral service was conducted by his clergyman, the Rev. Mr. Osborne, Presbyterian Minister, assisted by Rev. Mr. Patterson, United Church. Mr. Osborne spoke earnestly to the large gathering of friends from the text, Isaiah, 41 Chap., 13 Verse: "For I, the Lord Thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, fear not; I will help thee."

The favorite hymns of the deceased were sung, "Hold Thou My Hand," "Jesus Saviour Pilot Me" and also by special request, his Minister, Mr. Osborne, sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." The remains were laid to rest in the family plot in Cavendish Cemetery to await the Resurrection morn.

The following members of the family are left to mourn: three sisters, viz, Mrs. Lavina McMillan, Charlottetown; Mrs. Colin C. McLure, Brackley Point; Miss Lucy A. McLure, North Rustico; and one brother, W. Chester S. McLure, M.P., Charlottetown, P. E. I.

MRS. JOHN H. MACNEVIN

At St. Catherines, P.E.I., on Monday, April 29th, there passed away to her home above, Annie MacNevin, widow of the late John H. MacNevin at the age of 88 years. Her parents' names were Hector McNevin and Margaret MacNeil, both of whom passed away many years ago, and were relatives of the MacNevins of St. Catherines.

Mrs. MacNevin was a fine Christian woman, a good mother and kind and hospitable neighbor, and will be very much missed in the home and community. She leaves to mourn, three children living, Joseph and Kate in the home at St. Catherines; Margaret, in United States; Gordon and Janie are dead; also three sons died when quite young.

The funeral was held on Wednesday, May 1st at 2 o'clock p. m. and in the absence of Rev. Mr. Lowry, was conducted by Rev. D. K. Ross of Cornwall, whose message brought comfort and hope to the bereaved. The interment was made at Canoe Cove Cemetery.

Who Died May 11, 1931.
