Geldart as delegates to Presbyterians. It was decided to purchase a new picture for the Sunday School room. A report of the nominating committee for officers for next year was received. The programme was conducted by Mary Geldart. The devotional theme was "Treating for Christmas" and was followed by the candle lighting ceremony. A few minutes were then devoted to Christmas in poetry and song and a few words of appreciation for the successful year were extended to the president and to Rev. and Mrs. K. G. Sullivan. The programme was interspersed with Christmas music and brought to a close by repeating the Lord's Prayer. A delicious lunch was served and a large box was packed to be sent to Sydney.

—KINSMEN MEETING — Mr. Henry Wedge was chairman of the regular meeting of the Kinmen Club held at Coyle's Restaurant on Tuesday evening. Two new members Carl Woodside and David Carney were welcomed to the club. It was decided that the annual toy matinee will be held this year on Saturday morning, December 20th. As in the past years Mr. Harold Gaudet gives the use of the theatre free of charge and the club pays for the film. The price of admission will be a good used or a new toy and those new toys as in the past will be given to the orphanages. Another service project was discussed and a committee appointed to look into it and report back. Elmer O'Leary reported for the Sports Committee and said that an outdoor rink had been erected on Granville Street on property owned by Mr. George Williams. A board fence has been erected around it and the matter of a dressing room is under consideration. The ice surface is regulation size for hockey and he said that with favourable weather this winter no child should be without the opportunity for skating or playing hockey. The town is giving light and water free of charge for hockey. He reported that the committee has arranged for every Friday night at the Crystal Rink during the season for hockey games. Harold Gaudet reported on the construction of the rink and the expenditures in that connection. It was decided that the Sports Committee should bring in recommendations at the next meeting as to its policy for operation of the rink and in regard to hockey activities.—S.
