MONTAGUE NEWS

Dollar Day seems to be in fashion, the larger towns and cities have their dollar days, some of them two at a time. We are pleased to learn that our little town of Montague the beautiful is planning to put on a dollar day in the very near future, and we are sure that when the enterprising merchants of this thriving little town, where so much new building and renovating is going on at present take it in hand to put on a Dollar Day, it will be like it was with Chautauqua, something for the town and surrounding districts to remember for a while.

Let's hope that they have a large patronage worthy of the effort they are putting forth to make it a success and likely we will sometime have another bargain day in the not too distant future.
