THE ACME OF SWEETNESS

Is another name given to our candy by an enthusiast. If we could remember all the nice things people say about our sweets we could fill a book. But, they deserve them. There isn't anything

MADE IN CANDY That is better than ours. Oh, yes. We know that some candies cost a great deal more. But that doesn't prove anything. The proof of the candy is in the eating. Try a box and acknowledge that we are right.

SHAM MENDICANTS.

Queer Titles by Which They Know Each Other in Big Cities. Mendicants are criminals, nine-tenths of them with criminal records, is the report of those who have investigated these wretches who are allowed to parade their simulated miseries upon our streets.

Lakes Always Frozen.

'There are in the state of Oregon two lakes that are frozen stiff from one year's end to the other,' said F. G. Harper of Portland. 'They were discovered in Baker county not very long ago by a party on a hunting and fishing trip in the mountains of the Panhandle district.'

The Sapadilla.

'People who have been much in the south are very fond of the sapadilla,' said the fashionable fruiterer. 'As for looks, it's a toss up between a russet apple and a sweet potato. The pulp is very soft and deliciously sweet. It is tropical and is eatable when it begins to be spotted.'

Wooden Shoes in Chicago.

A Chicago drummer recently undertook to 'josh' a man who was wearing a pair of wooden shoes about the streets in Chicago. The Hollander offered to bet the Chicagoan that he could 'shimmy' up a tree faster than the commercial man, both men to go at it with shoes on, and the Hollander won the bet.

The Chateau d'If.

The Chateau d'If, upon the little rock island of the same name, has three titles to fame. It was built, or at least fortified, by Francis I. It was used in 1774 for the imprisonment of Mirabeau, but it is much more renowned for its place in fiction than for its place in history since Alexandre Dumas gave it such prominence in the scenery of his 'Count of Monte-Christo.'

She Knew Aaron Burr.

Mrs. Henry Chadwick of Brooklyn, who is eighty-four years old, tells of seeing Aaron Burr. She is the granddaughter of Benjamin Botin, who defended Burr in his trial for treason at Richmond in 1807. Her father owned a farm near Jamaica, on Long Island, adjoining one owned by Burr. When she saw Colonel Burr he was seventy-seven years old, withered and bent, but his famous eyes were still black and piercing.

A GRAND SHOWING.

Andrew F. Gault, a prominent merchant and manufacturer of Montreal, insured his life in the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York. He was required to pay the sum of $16.90 per $1,000.00 each year.

Mr. Gault was insured under another policy in the same Company for a like amount, taken out a few years later, on which he paid forty-nine annual premiums of $18.28, amounting to $895.72. Dividend additions to this policy were $1,238.00 or $342.28 in excess of total premiums paid.
