SUFFRAGETTES
 AMUSE LONDON
 WITH A NEW CRY

If They Cannot Have Votes They Want King's Birthday Honors

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—The suffragettes now have a new grievance. Since votes for women are not forthcoming, why not at least titles for women? they ask.
 The list of King's birthday honors, including a celebrated singer and a celebrated actor, has aroused discussion over the question why men musicians, writers and actors should be knighted, and never women who are equally proficient in the same lines. If a Sir John Hare, why no a Lady Ellen Terry? since her success has been equally great. These untiring suffragettes are carrying their campaign into the police courts. When an old woman was being tried for drunkenness eger suffragettes in the back of the court room arose and protested against her trial, as a vote had never been allowed her, and therefore, she was not a citizen. The old woman was puzzled but delighted by the unlooked for interference, while the court scandalized at the procedure, ordered the instant ejection of the offending suffragettes, who were carried out still shouting "Votes for women!"
