ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

Last evening a number of the members of the Pownal Methodist Circuit called on their pastor Rev. E. Styles, Pownal, and on behalf of the congregation presented him with a beautiful moon coat and the following address: Rev. E. Styles—Dear Pastor: We have very much pleasure in presenting you with the accompanying moon coat in appreciation of your services as our pastor, friend and helper during the past two years. We greatly enjoy your practical and timely discourses from Sabbath to Sabbath as well as your Spiritual ministrations at all times. In our social life we are greatly assisted and comforted by the presence from time to time not only of yourself but also of your beloved partner and dear children, and we are encouraged to live the life that will entitle all of us to the happy and everlasting reunion in that Great Heavenly Home. With sincerest good wishes and that God's richest blessing may ever attend you and yours. On behalf of all your congregations. DOROTHY ARNOLD'S ACTIONS.

BOSTON, Feb. 17—When Dorothy Arnold and George S. Grison, Jr., were in Boston from September 16th to September twenty-fourth, Miss Arnold pawned $500 worth of jewelry at the Collateral Loan Co., Boylston Street for $60. The next day the New York police and the Arnold family were notified.

CHARLOTTETOWN and QUEEN'S COUNTY

It pays to buy in this Province. Miss Helen Ings, China Point, is visiting friends in Hermitage.

Miss George McQuarrie, Summerside, is visiting Miss Hazel Bremner, city.

Levi Weatherbie, Lake Verde, was a recent visitor in China Point and Cherry Valley.

Fred Waye, Hunter River, was among those in the city yesterday. He was at the Revere.

The many friends of Harry Barr, City, who is ill with pneumonia, will regret to learn that he took a bad turn last night.

Prof and Miss Lillian Earle, Prof Vintcombe, Miss Harrison, Miss Craig, Miss Melish, Dr. Robins, J. O. Davies and Rev. T. P. Fullerton, will be at the Baptist School room Tuesday evening Feb. 21.

Malcolm McDonald and Artie McDonald, Alberta, have arrived home from Butte, Mont., where they have been for the past five years. They will spend the remainder of the winter at their old homes in Alliston.

Tomorrow morning at the Baptist Church, the Rev. Z. L. Fash, M. A., will speak on "The Authorized Version of the Bible as Literature." In the evening the subject of the sermon will be, "The Decay of Character—With Illustrations from Romola."

At the annual meeting of the South African 'campaigners' at Vancouver held on February 7th, Capt. A. J. B. Melish, formerly of this city, was elected Vice-President. The Vancouver Association is over 300 strong and includes British as well as Canadian veterans.

Mrs. C. McDonald and two children, Vernon, returned to Vernon yesterday afternoon after having been in the city for a couple of days. They were at the Revere. Mrs. McDonald was en route to Attleboro, Mass, but was awaiting the crossing of the winter steamer from Georgetown. Owing to the improbability of a crossing in the early afternoon yesterday she returned to Vernon.

In response to the call for contributions yesterday in the case of the woman recently removed from the building known as "The Old Ladies Home," J. G. Jamieson and A. A. Alley, city, each left cash donations. This was carried to the party in question who was in real need of it. During the day three bundles of clothing and bedding were sent to the station and were taken out to the now fairly comfortably situated woman who expressed extreme gratitude for the gifts. As yet, however, hardly sufficient has been received and the special need of the two is cash. Either cash or other donations can be left at the Police Station and will be forwarded to the proper quarter.

The death occurred at Westville, N. S., on February 5th, of Mrs. Laughlin McKinnon aged 105 years. She was the mother of the late Alexander McKinnon of Charlottetown, at one time a member of the firm of McKinnon and McLean, founders and machinists. She was the grand-mother of J. J. McKinnon of this city and of H. V. McKinnon, Manager of the St. John "Standard." She was born in the Isle of Mull but has been a resident of Westville for many years. All her sons are dead but she leaves three married daughters in Leithbridge, Boston, and Stellarton, respectively, besides many grandchildren, great-grand-children and several great-great-grand-children. She retained all her faculties up to the last being remarkably active physically and mentally and attending to her own room. She took breakfast at nine o'clock on the day of her death, and an hour later passed away. Her eyesight was good until the last and she never wore glasses. Other members of her family had reached a ripe old age, one brother, Alexander, being ninety-six. Her husband died twenty-five years ago at the age of eighty-six. She was an aunt of Rev. M. A. McKinnon formerly of Park Street Church, Halifax and several other clergymen. J. J. McKinnon of this city attended the funeral which was held last week.

The annual meeting of the P. E. I. Dry Association opens in P. W. College, Thursday, 23rd, inst., at 11 a. m. All persons interested are invited to attend. Reduced fares on Railway good to return up to Saturday the 25th. John Anderson, Secy. 2-18d4i.

Miss Annie Judson, Cherry Valley, was a recent visitor to Hermitage. Many friends are glad to see Chas. Weatherbie, Lake Verde, out again after his serious illness. Twelve Commercial men left on the special train to Georgetown last evening on return to the mainland. The S. O. E. flag is flying at half mast out of respect to the memory of their late brother, Abram Henry. A. J. White and son, City, wish to thank their friends for kindness to them during their recent sad bereavement. The special Abegweit hockey and bowling train for Summerside left this city yesterday afternoon at 3.30 and had about sixty passengers. Mrs. J. W. Stewart, Mt. Ryan, who is in the City Hospital is now getting along nicely. She underwent an operation for appendicitis on Tuesday. The subject for the boys' meeting on Sunday morning at the Y. M. C. A. will be, "Friends." The leaders will be Wendall McKenzie. All boys over twelve years of age are invited to this service. It closes in time to get to church. In reply to the telegram sent to B. M. Armstrong, of the Post Office Department, Ottawa, B. T. Higge, City, President of the Board of Trade received the following: "Re your wire of sixteenth urging special trains from Sackville-Tormentine, matter is now receiving attention. B. M. Armstrong." A telegram from Mr. Armstrong to Mr. Wear, Post Office Inspector here, stated that the matter will receive due consideration. The death occurred at an early hour Tuesday morning, Feb. 17th, of Abram Henry after an illness of about three months, he being only confined to his bed for twelve days. Deceased leaves a widow and one son to mourn the loss of a kind and loving husband, two brothers in South Norway and one sister in Dorchester, Mass., besides a large circle of friends and relatives in this city. The funeral will leave his late residence, 2 Grafton Street, on Sunday at 10 o'clock. Interment in People's Cemetery, the Rev. J. F. Floyd officiating.
