MORE MEN FROM SYDNEY.—The balance of the men from Sydney who came over last week, arrived last night under Major Darke and another officer. Seven men had also been sent to Halifax on garrison duty. Major Darke is returning to Canso again to take over command of the troops stationed there. The detachment numbered 23 men besides the officers.

MEMORIAL SERVICE.—The memorial service of the Knights of Columbus was held in their hall on Tuesday evening. The service was largely attended and was of a most impressive character. His Lordship Bishop O'Leary was the preacher on the occasion, and his sermon ranked with his best efforts. Excellent addresses were also delivered by Messrs. James Landrigan, John Bradley, C. G. Duffy and Dr. W. J. McKinnon in the order named. The Knights choir, under the direction of Mr. W. J. Brown, rendered an appropriate musical programme. The names of the Knights who have passed to the Great Beyond during the year are Gilbert DesRoches, James H. Reddin, Thomas P. Cass and Michael McElroy.

CONDITION VERY SERIOUS.—It will be learned with sincere regret by many friends in Charlottetown that the condition of Mr. Harold Ritchie, of Ottawa, to whose accident reference was made yesterday morning, is now considered very grave and his hope is entertained of his recovery. A telegram received at his home here yesterday morning told of the way in which the accident occurred. It read as follows: "While hunting with friends from the house his shot gun slipped off a log on which he was standing, the charge entering his abdomen. A doctor was summoned at once and he was taken to a hospital, apparently with little suffering. He blames attaches to any one. He is resting quietly now." In response to a picture of these girls or premiums when we give you a picture of the puzzle, we will send you a picture of the puzzle, we will send you a picture of the puzzle, we will send you a picture of the puzzle.

MIDNIGHT ALARM.—Although but indirectly at war, Summerside at midnight yesterday morning experienced some of the excitement of war and incidentally demonstrated its preparedness for any eventuality. At midnight rounds on Water Street he saw dark and suspicious light in one of the banks. Cautiously peering in he observed that the vault door was open and at once suspected that something was wrong. Being unarmed and knowing that a bank robber would be prepared to defend himself, the officer not wishing to run any risk, called up the nearest City Councillor and apprised him of his discovery. The Councillor armed himself with his revolver and hastened to the scene. He also knowing the ways of bank robbers called in the assistance of a brother Councillor and a retired sea captain, both of whom, although in bed, pluckily consented to accompany him—both armed with shot guns loaded with the muzzles. Headed by the policeman they made a stealthy reconnaissance of the bank premises, and after investigating the possible exits cautiously tried the door, which they found unlocked. After a hasty consultation they decided to rush the door. This they did with such haste that, before he was aware of it, the surprised burglar was looking into the barrels of two shot guns and a revolver, and trying to digest a peremptory order to "surrender." He surrendered at once, being one of the clerks who had been obliged to work overtime. Mutual apologies and recriminations followed; the posse retired; the clerk proceeded to his additions and the town went to sleep again.—Z.

THANK-OFFERING SERVICE.

Last evening the W. M. S. of St. James Church held their annual Thank-offering service. Rev. Mr. Milford of Alberton, who has just returned from Trinidad, was present upon invitation and gave an excellent address on the splendid work being done in this wide mission field by the Canadian Presbyterian Church. He spoke of the great strides being made in education under the supervision of Dr. Coffin of this province, whose good work cannot be estimated. This year the educational department has planned for the boys and girls a program of the hope expressed that a way would be made clear that more teachers and preachers could be sent to this field where the East Indians are so densely populated and among whom the Canadian missionary, when once established, does such magnificent work. The beauties of the West Indies were portrayed and many glowing incidents described. Solos by Miss Helen Hughes and Miss J. Macdonald. Quite a large thank-offering was given. Rev. Dr. Fullerton was thanked.

WEDDING BELLS.

The home of Mrs. Charles Robertson, 29 Longworth Avenue, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at 6:30 yesterday morning when her daughter, Miss Hilda, became the bride of Mr. George H. Laird, of Halifax, a well known and very popular commercial traveller. Rev. Dr. Fullerton performed the ceremony in the presence of some fifty invited guests. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion with ferns, dahlias, chrysanthemums and other lovely flowers. The bride looked very winsome attired in a travelling suit of dark navy blue. She wore an amethyst velvet hat and a black fox fur. The last mentioned being the gift of the groom. Many other and valuable presents were received. After the ceremony the wedding party proceeded in automobiles to the railway depot where they were profusely showered with confetti and received the congratulations of many friends. They left on a wedding trip to St. John and other points in the Maritime Provinces and will make their home in Halifax. The Guardian joins with their numerous friends in extending best wishes.

The news was received yesterday by Lieut. Elmer G. Ritchie of the death of his brother, Harold, which occurred in Ottawa yesterday morning at 2:30. The resting place of the accident as already referred to in The Guardian, News of his death, although after yesterday morning's announcement not unexpected, was a crushing blow to the sister and brother at home, and will be received with sincere sorrow by a very large circle of intimate friends and acquaintances. It is only a little more than a week since he left Charlottetown after a pleasant spent vacation at his home here. While here he received many former friendships and took part in several public functions, notably a number of recruiting meetings, where his splendid musical talent made him a conspicuously favorite figure. He was only 21 years of age and was a young man of exceptional ability and his musical talent together with his pleasing manner made him a general favorite. In Ottawa, where he has been a clerk in the Revenue Department for about two years, he was organist of the McLeod Street Methodist Church. The remains, accompanied by his father and mother, left Ottawa yesterday at 3:30 and the funeral will take place here on Sunday, further particulars of which will be given later.

A Suggestion for Efficient Economy

Throughout the Empire has gone the call for personal economy to meet the extraordinary demands of the war. Here is a timely suggestion to men who have been spending from $25.00 to $75.00 a year on barber shop shaves:

Invest five dollars in a GILLETTE Safety Razor and shave yourself at home. The saving will not be limited to money—the time you'll gain will be even more important, for the morning shave with the Gillette need not take more than five minutes.

And the comfort rivals the economy. Though you never shaved yourself before, you'll have no trouble in getting a clean, cool, safe shave with the Gillette Safety Razor. No more waiting your turn in the chair—no more breaks in the morning's work—no more dependence on unknown barbers when travelling, for the Gillette works anywhere.

Truly, the man with a Gillette is an efficient economist. Get one yourself to-day. "Bulldog," "Aristocrat" or Standard Sets cost $5.—Pocket Editions $5. to $6.—Combination Sets $6.50 up. Your Hardware Dealer or Jeweler will show you an assortment.
