ONE MINUTE CURE FOR TOOTHACHE.

Toothache, the most common and one of the most painful affections, is instantly cured by the application of Polson's Nerviline. Polson's Nerviline is a combination of powerful anodynes, and it strikes at once to the nerves, soothing them and affording in one minute total relief from pain. Mothers, try it for your children's toothache. Nerviline is sold in 10 and 25 cent bottles by all druggists.

Obituary.

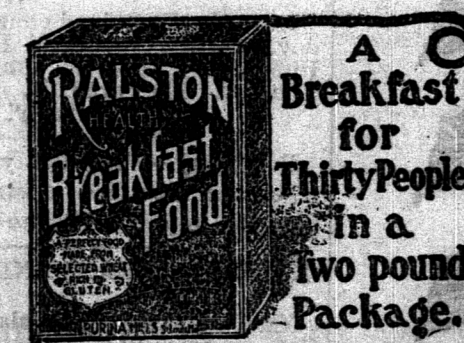

Again, within the interval of three months, the home of Mr. Wm. Bull, White Sands, has been saddened by death. First, on the 6th of February last, their grandson, Pearl Tupper, son of Joseph W. and Jane A. Bull, was removed by death from their midst. This latter sad event being the death of their granddaughter, Dollie Adelia, at the comparatively early age of 16 years and one month, which occurred at his residence on Friday the 27th of April. The deceased had been in delicate health since last summer, and was troubled with a distressing cough which became more pronounced with the approach of winter. She was subsequently taken with la grippe, which terminated fatally.

She was of a quiet unassuming disposition, and of a refined and kindly manner, which endeared her to friends and relatives, and especially to her grandfather between whom mutual affection was intense. When she realized that the close of her earthly career was near at hand, she expressed the confidence of going home to be with Jesus,—to a brighter world beyond the tomb. The funeral took place on Sunday, April 30th, at the home, where the funeral service was conducted by Rev. W. C. Matthews, thence removed to the cemetery where all that was mortal was laid in the tomb. Verily, death spares no sex, no age is exempt. Not only does it knock at the door of the aged and decrepit, but also summons forth young and tender youths—all must accede to its imperative demands, and succumb to its icy touch. And whilst the parting of friends and loved ones here is grievous and inexpressible sad, yet there is consolation in His assurance that "all who doeth His will, have access to the glorious mansion in the great beyond wherein sorrow nor death cannot enter, and where friends and loved ones meet to part no more." To the bereaved ones who are left to bewail their irreparable loss, deep sympathy is hereby extended.—Com.

THE STRENGTH OF TWENTY MEN.

When Shakespeare employed this phrase he referred, of course, to healthy, able-bodied men. If he had lived in these days he would have known that men and women who are not healthy may become so by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. This medicine, by making the blood rich and pure and giving good appetite and perfect digestion, imparts vitality and strength to the system.
