

Business Man's Advice

Don't waste a circular on the person you know, when you can see him personally.

Get after the one you don't know and wish to cultivate; he is your prospect, your hope of development.

The only economical, safe and sure way to reach the unknown Customer and to get the known one back, is to use the newspaper.

TURKS ARE PLAINLY TOLD THEIR DEMANDS IMPOSSIBLE

Great Britain Will Not Accede to Turk Demand to Abandon Mosul Oil Fields, Lord Curzon Informs Turk Delegates.

(Special to The Guardian.) LAUSANNE, Dec. 27.—Through Foreign Secy Curzon, Great Britain informed the Turkish delegation today that the British will never abandon the Mosul Oil Fields as requested by the Turks and that no prolongation of the Near East Conference can influence the British government to recede from the position it has taken on this matter.

LAUSANNE, Dec. 27.—Armenia was the storm centre of the Near East conference today. The Turks refused to attend a meeting of the sub-commission which had arranged to hear the plea of the Armenians for the establishment of a national home in Turkey and both Ismet Pasha and Riza Nur Bey sent strongly worded communications to the conference protesting against the decision to allow the Armenians to state their case.

They declared that if the Armenians who had no official standing and represented no independent government were heard by the conference there was no reason why Egyptians or the Irish should not be allowed to present their demands.

The so-called irregular Egyptian delegation had been waiting in Lausanne for more than a month for permission to be heard by the conference and voice a demand for the independence of Egypt and complete withdrawal of the British army.

In consequence of the Turkish protest, the official meeting of the sub-commission was postponed and the representatives of the inviting powers, Great Britain, France and Italy, sitting alone, listened to the Armenian spokesman, who suggested that a home be established in the northeast of Turkey, which should include historic Mount Arrarat a section in Cilicia. It was impossible, he declared, to amalgamate with the Armenian republic of Erivan which had been taken over by the Moscow Soviets. The Armenians would willingly accept the same relationship with Turkey as the Dominions with Great Britain, in conclusion he asked for the Armenians and urged maintenance of the Orthodox Patriarch in Constantinople.

Hopeful progress was made today on the problem of the Greek Patriarch.

The French argued that the brusque removal of the Christian leader would cause an unpleasant feeling abroad towards the new Turkish State.

The Turks later will give their views on this suggestion.

The Straits problem still remains unsettled; the Allies are striving to arrange some formula for a general collective guarantee that Turkey will not be subjected to foreign aggression. The Turkish decline to grant jurisdiction to the Straits Control Commission over the zones of demilitarization as requested by the Allies. There is general expectation, however, that the Straits question will be solved, although Russia's ultimate attitude remains a mystery.

Xmas Concert At St. James Sunday School

The annual Christmas tree and Cantata in St. James Hall last evening was very largely attended by the interested parents and friends of the Sunday School children who excelled themselves in a very excellent program of choruses, songs, dialogues and recitations, several of the younger performers being of very tender years but quite as interested as the older ones. The program is too long to comment upon individually but each item was most appropriate and heartily applauded.

The closing item the Christmas Eve cantata was exceptionally good, the older girls taking part possessing most promising voices and gracefully performing the duties of Christmas eve prior to the hanging up the younger children's stockings and the later arrival of Santa Claus, who after joining in the singing filled the stockings on the prettily arranged mantle on the platform. Later he appeared again and distributed candy, nuts and oranges to the children and then to the older members almost every man in the audience having to go to the platform for a bag of candy. It was a jolly evening long to be remembered by the little folks and the older folks too.

The committee in charge, Miss Tait, Miss Fullerton, Miss Jacqueline McDonald assisted by Mrs. Spencer, Miss Aitken and Miss Webster were ardently thanked by the chairman of the evening, Rev. Mr. Mulligan for their untiring work in preparing the program. Several diplomas were also presented to pupils for repeating the scripture verses, catechism, etc for the year.

Following was the excellent programme:

Chorus—"It Came Upon the Midnight Clear."

Recitation—"The Story Ever new"—Catherine Rogers.

Dialogue—9 children.

Song—"If you're Good"—Betty Rogers.

Recitation—"Just Before Christmas"—Wili Burnett.

Song—"Humpty Dumpty"—Charles and John Taylor Murchison.

Recitation—"An Invitation"—Dorothy MacInnis.

Song—Marjorie Chandler.

Dialogue—"The Chickadee"—Lemuel Prowse, George Smith, Harry Laphorne and Ian Malcolm.

Chorus—"While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks by Night."

Dialogue—"On the Eve of Christmas"—Betty Rogers, Rachel MacBride, Catherine Rogers.

Recitation—"A Christ Song"—Doris Prowse.

Song—"What a Slow Clock"—Rachel MacBride.

Dialogue—"Things that Belong to Xmas"—Francis MacInnis, Josie Smith, Marjorie Chandler.

Recitation—"Jan Burnett."

Dialogue—"Merrily Oh"—Jack Chandler, Joe Hunter, and Nial Burnett.

Carol—"Good King Wenceslas"—Elmer Murley, Heath Saunders, Ben Rogers and Percy Cameron.

Cantata.

The Ex-Kaiser Has No Right

BRUSSELS, Dec. 27.—The decision of the lower Belgian court that former Emperor William has no right to collect interest on British bonds has been sustained by the Court of Appeals in a decision handed down today. The court ordered a Brussels exchange broker to refund to the British bank involved several million francs, paid on coupons which the bank learned later belonged to the ex-Kaiser.

The ownership came to light when the British Government protested against the payments. The Dutch bank flouting in this case, said to be one of several through which the former Emperor sent coupons to be cashed so that trace of their origin might be lost, was exonerated as an innocent party.

Another Church Was Burned

LEFAIVRE, Ont., Dec. 27.—Sister rumors that incendiaries who are held responsible for many people for the series of disastrous church fires throughout the Province of Quebec culminating in the destruction of the historic Quebec Basilica, intended visiting similar havoc in the archdiocese of Ottawa, were strengthened by the burning here at an early hour this morning of the parish church of St. Thomas d'Alfred. The fire which was discovered at about 1:30 o'clock this morning, completely destroyed the church, a beautiful and substantial stone edifice, in less than two hours, the loss is estimated at $75,000, insurance amounting to $35,000.

Lefavre, which is also known by the name of St. Thomas d'Alfred, is situated in Prescott County on the C.P.R. Ottawa-Montreal short line. The town is about 40 miles from Ottawa and 70 miles from Montreal, it stands a short distance from the south shore of the Ottawa River.

Kennedy - Mutch Nuptials

A wedding of more than usual interest took place at six o'clock yesterday morning at the home of Hon. Murdoch Kennedy and Mrs. Kennedy, Bradabane, when their eldest daughter, Elizabeth Maud was united in marriage to Mr. Wm. Mutch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Mutch of Bradacliffe.

The bride, who was beautifully gowned in a suit of Poiret with mole trimmings and carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses entered the drawing room on the arm of her father, to the strains of the Lohengrin's Wedding March played by Miss Ruth Dickleson of New Glasgow. The bride and groom were unattended. The officiating clergyman, Rev. John Sterling used the double ring service.

The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion by the girl friends of the bride.

The immediate relatives of bride and groom with a few intimate friends sat down to an elaborate wedding breakfast, after which the bridal party amid showers of confetti left on the Borden train for a honeymoon trip to New York and Washington.

They will spend the winter at Tampa, Florida, where the groom has extensive interests in an orange plantation.

The presents were numerous and beautiful including a silver service and Bible from the Presbyterian Church of which the bride was the valued organist. The groom's gift to the bride was a string of pearls. Numerous other gifts of silver, cut glass, cheques and linen attested to the popularity of the bride and groom.

The Guardian joins with a very wide circle of friends in the heartiest congratulations.

France Gains Important Victory

PARIS, Dec. 27.—France gained an important victory in the Allied Reparations Commission today when the Commission by a vote of 3 to 1 declared that Germany in voluntary default of her world deliveries for 1922.

France, Belgium and Italy voted in favor of the declaration, while Great Britain cast its ballot against. The decision of the commission was immediately communicated to the Allied governments for action.

It may have a vital effect on the reparations problem if France can retain the support of Italy and Belgium when the reparations question is discussed at the voluntary 2nd meeting of the Frontiers.

The lone vote against by Great Britain was in accordance with British policy, which has been opposed to declaring Germany in default in the fear that such action might have a disastrous effect in the already precarious state of German finance.

France is considered to have scored an important point by reason of the fact that the decision of the commission was arrived at on the majority vote. France had been alone for a long time in the contention that Germany could be placed in voluntary default by a simple majority vote. Italy's support of France in the balloting came as a surprise and as an indication that premier Mussolini is swinging over to the French side in the reparations controversy.

Germany has carried out more than sixty per cent of its schedule of world deliveries for this year. When the German experts were before the commission several weeks ago they announced that Germany had been unable to deliver more than she had and that the deliveries for 1923 must be greatly reduced.
