BURIAL SERVICE.—The Moncton Times says:—The remains of the late Mrs. A. E. Williams were laid to rest Wednesday afternoon in the family burying lot at Elmwood Cemetery and many friends attended the private service at the home of Mrs. S. Randall Pleasant Street, and the public service in St. George's Anglican Church to pay a last tribute of respect to one who during her residence in the city of Moncton greatly endeared herself to those with whom she came in contact socially or was associated with in church and patriotic work. Rev. Canon Sisam conducted a short service at the house, the service including hymns, "Abide With Me" and "Peace, Peace, Peace" the numbers being impressively rendered by a trio of ladies. At the conclusion of the service the body was conveyed to St. George's church where Canon Sisam conducted the impressive Anglican funeral service. The choir of the church rendered very beautifully the hymns, "Rock of Ages" and "Abide with Me." Canon Sisam paid a touching tribute to the late Mrs. Williams, referring especially to her devotion to her family since the death of her lamented husband in this city thirteen years ago and her work in the patriotic societies during the trying period of the Empire in the years of the Great World War. He feelingly expressed his sympathy of all for the bereaved members of the family in their hour of affliction. Canon Sisam also conducted the service at the graveside. The casket was adorned with a great profusion of beautiful floral tributes from friends both in Charlottetown and Moncton. The pallbearers were Mayor J. Fred Magill, Ex-Mayor A. C. Chapman, Ex-Mayor E. A. Reilly, K. C. Messrs. A. C. Selig, J. H. Harris and Fred Candall.
