Rev Wm. Harrison has a suggestive article in the Northern Christian Advocate on "Borrowed Plumes." The article does not deny that many unbelievers have exhibited fine characters, but says this has often been the result of training in the Christian religion, or of heredity or environment. The article will no doubt, help many minds—Christian Guardian.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of George W. and Mrs. Vatcher, formerly of Charlottetown, but now living at 9 Clermont Park Boston, Mass., on September the fourteenth, when their daughter, Mary Evelyn, was united in marriage to Herbert W. Coburn of Newport, Vermont. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Herbert S. Johnson in the presence of many friends. The house was prettily decorated with palm and a profusion of flowers. The bride, who is a pretty brunette, was given away by her father, and her gown was white satin, meshing in front with veil, and she carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses. Miss Pearl E. Vatcher sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Miss Abbie Coburn, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid, both wearing pale blue silk. The groom was supported by Joseph and George Vatcher, brothers of the bride. He is the son of William Coburn of Newport, Vermont, and is a graduate of the Montpelier seminary, where he received first honors. The bridal party received in front of a trellis, trimmed with autumn leaves and beautiful flowers, and they stood under a large wedding bell of golden-rod. After the reception a dainty repast was served in the dining room, after which the happy couple were whirled away in an auto amid showers of rice and confetti. The wedding gifts were both numerous and costly. It is the sincere wish of the bride's many friends, that her wedded life may be as full of sunshine as that of her wedding day.

S.—Duncan McNevin; I. S.—William Shaw; P. W. P.—Hector Darrach; Organist—Hattie McLean. Eclipse expects to have interesting meetings for the coming quarter in the way of a contest to be led by sister Sadie McQuarrie and sister Katie B. Darrach. Visitors welcome. Com.

A very pretty home wedding was witnessed at the Manse, Murray Harbor North, on Wednesday, Sept 22nd at seven p. m. when Miss Helen Sage Gray was united in marriage to Lemuel A. Kennedy of Murray Harbor West. As the closing strains of Wyman's Wedding Bells March, were sounded forth, the bride entered the beautifully decorated parlor, leaning on the arm of her father, who placed her by the side of the groom, under a lovely arch of tinted ivy and golden rod. The marriage ceremony was performed in the presence of twenty-five or more guests, the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The father of the bride the Rev. Andrew Gray officiated. The bride was very prettily attired in a dainty gown of white point d'sprit, over white taffeta, with rich lace trimming. She carried a handsome bouquet of white sweet peas, and was attended by her sister Miss Annie, who also wore a dainty gown of white. The groom was supported by his brother Roulston. The bride's presents were numerous, useful and costly, several of them being from friends at a distance. A bountiful wedding supper was provided, and a pleasant and enjoyable evening spent in which appropriate music, vocal and instrumental was furnished. The young couple left for the mainland where they purpose visiting places of interest during their wedding trip.

Our New "Modern" A. A. Waterman Fountain Pens

we believe are equal in mechanical construction, to the best pen made.

In addition to this, they have the following undeniable advantages.

1 They are self-filling, filled in a twinkling.

2 As there is no joint they cannot leak and soil the fingers as many good pens do.

3 The act of filling also cleans the delicate ink channels and prevents clogging.

We have the best $1.00 pen on the market.

Farm and Summer Hotel for Sale

Mrs Smith has decided to sell the farm and hotel of the late Matthew Smith, at Hampton Beach. This is a very desirable property as hundreds who may read this notice of sale will attest. The farm contains about 100 acres, divided into ten fields, well fenced with cedar posts and eight strand wire fencing, the fences all being largely built in the last 7 1/2 years. There is no richer or better farm on P. E. I. and Mr. Smith lived on the property over 30 years and never sold a ton of hay or bushel of oats off the farm. He was a large feeder of fat cattle for a number of years and enriched the farm to a very high state of cultivation. The shore line of the farm has been noted for years for its large deposits of sea-weed which Mr. Smith wisely converted through his stables, piggy and barn yards to a fine fertilizer for his land. As a farm it has few equals anywhere. The buildings have been added to almost yearly and kept in first class repair. Within the last two years a large two story addition containing kitchen, store room and laundry, all separate, on first floor and sleeping rooms for family and help on second floor, also a fine water system with sewerage throughout the house at a cost of about $1000. The house now has comfortable accommodations for fifty guests and is filled continuously through the season with grown people paying from $7.00 to $12.00 a week and for the past three years people on the waiting list and those turned away for want of room have been a greater number than those who were taken. Full investigation will substantiate all these statements. The hotel has an established trade, quite a number of the rooms being already engaged for the coming season. This property, hotel and farm, is a money maker and will yield a net income reasonably well managed of $1000-1500 yearly. Mrs. Smith will sell the farm, entire crop, farm machinery, cattle, horses, carriages etc. the hotel, furniture, in fact everything on and about the place, excepting personal property, all together, or farm and hotel furnished separately, at a great bargain and will give to the right party sufficient time to pay for half or more of the purchase money off the proceeds of the property.

Mrs. Smith desires to spend the winter with her children in California and will give possession any time between now and January. Any person desiring to purchase this property should come and make a personal investigation early letting the undersigned know, a few days before, when they would call.
