TWENTY-SIX BIG RAILWAYS HELD

To Answer Violation of the Anti-Trust Law

Big Catches of Seals by N. F. Steamers Reported—A Flying Roll of Lamentation, Mourning and Woe.

AGAINST RAILWAY COMBINES.

CHICAGO, April 2.—(Special)—Eight specific charges of violation of the Sherman anti-trust law are brought against 26 leading railroads in a bill to be filed in the United States Circuit Court.

A BIG SEAL CATCH.

ST. JOHN'S, Nf. April 2.—(Special)—The steamer Grand Lake from the ice-fields reports that steamers have captured 250,000 seals which will be probably increased to 300,000 during the present month.

PREDICTING CALAMITY.

TORONTO, April 2—Members of the "Flying Roll," a semi religious organization, distributed a pamphlet throughout the city saying that the Mayor, Judge Horne, Alf. Robb, and Sir William Mulock, will die violent deaths before May.

THE EASTER DISPLAY.

In addition to the beef, etc., mentioned in The Guardian on Saturday there were a number of other excellent carcasses in the stalls and they commanded good prices.

John McNeill had some fine beef on his counters which met with ready sale. It included a two year old heifer fed by J. Jenkins, Orwell Cove which tipped the scales at 601 lbs.—a very heavy weight for that age. There were also two cows fed by Hugh Gill's, Orwell, which weighed 1300 lbs beef and an ox fed by John Tweedy, Earnscliffe which in live weight was 1960 lbs and gave 1200 lbs of beef. This was pronounced the finest carcass on the market and reflects credit both on the raiser and the purchaser.

Reaney Jenkins, Cherry Valley had two carcasses of more than ordinary attractiveness. They were fed by Joseph Praught and Joseph Haley of Pownal. He had also some dressing Lamb which he had purchased from John Corrigan Village Green. His meat met with a very ready sale. Mr. Jenkins also shipped a few days ago four carcasses of beef to K. M. Jenkins, North Sydney.

John Curley had a two year old by Henry Smallwood, Mermaid, 1148 which tipped the scale at 650 lbs dressed weight.

Robert S. Muttock's stock heifer yielded a carcass of beef weighing 640 lbs. Percy A. Dunphy, Milview sent another weighing 500 lbs fed by Hayden Vanderlaan, Vernon River.

THE SLAUGHTER OF THIBETANS

They Fought Bravely at an Awful Disadvantage

Their Swordsmen Huddled Together Their Onset Checked with Bayonets while they were Riddled with Bullets.

NOTABLE THIBETANS KILLED.

TONA, THIBET, April 2.—(Special)—The Thibetan general, the whole of his personal escort and five high Lhassa officials were among the hundreds killed in the fighting on the 31st, at Guru, Thibet.

LOSSES ACCOUNTED FOR.

The heavy losses are amounted for by the fact that the Thibetans were so huddled together that they could not use their swords.

The swordsmen in front could not reach the Sikhs who had fixed bayonets, while the men in the middle of the mob could not reach their enemies.

A DESPERATE FIGHT.

The fight was a desperate one as the Thibetans rushed on over their dead comrades only to be riddled with bullets.

AN EXAGGERATED REPORT.

The strength of the Thibetan force was about 1,500 not fifteen thousand as stated in an earlier despatch.

HORSE NOTES.

Fred J. Cameron has brought to the city the two fashionably bred carriage and trotting horses Commodore Leyland and Joe Patchen, Jr 2.22¼, owned by Hon. R. C. McLeod, Summerside. These well known horses will remain in the city for a short stay season preparatory to racing during the summer. The fast pacing mare Dariel 2.09¼ will be bred to Joe Patchen the sire of Joe Patchen, Jr., says an exchange.

Daniel Fraser of Torbay Mills Pictou Co. N. S., has purchased from Mr. Hughes, Windsor, the draft stallion Lucky Tom. This horse was sired by the old reliable Barrister, and his dam was by Brown Stout. This horse will be as great an addition to the breeding stock of the province as it is a loss to Prince Edward Island. Lucky Tom is a bay stallion, six years old and weighs 1400 lbs.

The Forbes estate, New Medford, Mass., has received a private offer of $10,000 for Vice Commodore, this year old, by Hugh 2.06½ out of Marion by Arion 2.07½ out of Nancy Hanks 2.04.

The remains of Professor Mac by Allcroft, the fast trotter of Byron Brown which won the 2.30 class trotted on the ice in winter, were laid to rest at the mouth of the harbor Saturday morning. The horse died Friday shortly before midnight from the effects of the collision on the ice in which a shaft pierced his side. Professor Mac was a four year old black gelding, a stylish driver and would have trained on to be a very fast horse. By his death Mr. Brown has sustained a heavy loss.

The handsome and stylish carriage blood mare owned by James F. Curtis of H. M. Customs last week foaled a bay filly by Parkwood 2.21¼. This filly promises to be a creditable addition to Mr Curtis' stock.

Will Dean has a beautiful matched pair of chestnut horses which have been much admired on the streets during the past few days. Mr. Dean expects to ship the pair to the West Indies in a short time.

Walter D Allen of Cape Tormentine has purchased the trotting stallion Brazilian from John P. Irving, of Cape Traverse.

A WANDERER FROM A DISTANT REALM

Who is Now Visiting in Charlottetown

He is Rev. C. T. Checizzli and he Has an Interesting Story to Tel—A Touch of Pathos in His Tale.

A figure that has attracted much attention on the streets of Charlottetown during the past few days is that of a tall and sturdy African, Rev. C. F. Checizzi, who is visiting the province in the interests of his brethren far beyond the sea. The reverend gentleman has an interesting tale of his adventures. This is Mr. Checizzi's story. He was born thirty-nine years ago in the country now ruled by King Menelik. It must not be called Abyssinia. That is an European nick-name. The country is Ethiopia and should be called by no other name. His father was a teacher in the Coptic of Alexandrian church. The son was taken as a child to West Africa, and afterwards to England, where he was educated by the S. P. C. K. He writes M. A. after his name.

He was admitted to orders in the Church of England and sometimes preaches in Episcopal churches of the more evangelical type. But he says that he owes his spiritual deliverance to the Methodists and is now associated with them, though he is willing to work with all Christians.

Mr. Checizzi has labored much in Central Africa. In Ethiopia he has preached the faith as he now has it, Uganda has been his home. He has labored with the Mombassas and far south among the Basutos. Ten languages are at his disposal, and he will give samples of several of them in his meetings. Three of these languages are kin to his own. The others had to be learned by main force.

This Ethiopian is proud of his country. Has it a written language? Well he would think so! A literature? To be sure, the oldest in the world. These people have never been conquered. True they had been defeated once by the English, but no nation had ever driven them out or possessed their country. They are where they were in the time of Solomon, when the queen went to visit Jerusalem, where they were in the time of the Apostles when the officer of another queen read the book of Isaiah as he rode in his chario. They were Christians before most of the nations of Europe, and though the pure faith had been somewhat obscured they were not heathen.

They were an independent nation, friendly to yard England, but not subject to her. The Italians, who sought to conquer the country, were driven out as other invaders had been.

This missionary has had his own troubles on the western continent. In the northern states he found the people civilized and genteel like the English. But the south was more barbarous in some respects than Central Africa. For instance, he bought a ticket from Washington to a southern city. It was a first class ticket, and he naturally went into a first class car. He was told that it was not the custom of the country for Africans to travel in the same car with white people. This seemed unfair, seeing that the rule compelled him to pay first class fare for worse than second class accomodation. But he followed the rule to live like the Romans while in Rome and went where he was told.

Some rough white men followed him in, and swore fervently. He rebuked them, telling them that their language was offensive to Christian people, and requesting them to go back to their own car. Then the offender drew a revolver and—"if the Spirit of God had not brought the

LORD CURZON'S SPEECH AND RUSSIAN COMMENT

What the St. Petersburg Bourse Gazette has to Say Concerning it.

Quiet at Port Arthur—Burying the Dead—Swift Russian Torpedo Boats—French Report Says Japs Greatly Outnumbered the Russians at Kasan—Weather is Warmer.

ALL QUIET AT PORT ARTHUR.

PORT ARTHUR, April 2—(Special).—All is quiet here with no change in the situation.

The weather is warmer and the sick and wounded are making progress towards recovery.

WITH MILITARY HONORS.

The Japanese killed in the last attack upon this place were buried to-day with military honors.

A FRENCH REPORT.

PARIS, April 2—(Special)—It is said the Russian forces in the engagement near Kasan on the 27th numbered 500 Cossacks and the Japanese force consisted of 1,100 infantry and 1,200 cavalry.

SWIFT TORPEDO BOATS.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 2—(Special)—A correspondent says the Nevsky yards are sending to Port Arthur by rail 18 torpedo boats of the cyclone type, capable of making 30 knots.

CURZON'S CALCUTTA SPEECH.

The speech of Lord Curzon on March 31 at Calcutta attracts attention here.

The Bourse Gazette says all of Lord Curzon's speeches have the fundamental idea of the shadow of Russia on the Indian frontier.

CURZON'S EMPHATIC WORDS.

Lord Curzon says, "We do not want Tibet, but no other country shall have it."

DISTRUST OF BRITAIN.

The paper says Lord Dufferin said the same thing about Nepaul, Burmah and Kashmir, and wonders how France will regard Lord Curzon's avowal of designs cherished in South Persia and Siam.

THEME FOR MEDITATION.

The Bourse Gazette concludes: The powers having interests in China will do well to meditate upon these things.

A NEW BAND FOR SOURIS

The Enterprizing Town will Purchase a Set of the Best Instruments.

The progressive young men of Souris have re-constructed their band and after a careful investigation of the goods offered from the leading American and Canadian markets have decided to purchase from Carl Fischer, New York a new set of his famous artist grade instruments.

The people of Souris are to be congratulated upon the selection of such a fine set of instruments which will doubtless add much to the efficiency of the band.

The set is similar to the artist grade instruments used by the Fourth Regiment Band. Worth's Band also recently purchased a set from Carl Fischer.

The agent in this city for this well-known musical concern is E. H. Duchemin.
