LORD DUFFERIN'S ANTIQUE.

LONDON, March 26.—On Lord Dufferin's estate, near Belfast, there once stood a historic ruin, a castle which had been a stronghold of the O'Neill's. One day Lord Dufferin visited it with his steward, Dan Mulligan, and drew a line with his stick round it, telling Mulligan that he was to build a protecting wall on that line. And then he went to India, feeling secure as to the preservation of the great historic building. When he returned to Ireland he hastened to visit the castle. It was gone. He rubbed his eyes and looked again. Yes gone it certainly was, leaving not a trace behind it. He sent for Dan and inquired: "Where's the castle?" "The castle, my lord? That old thing? Sure, I pulled it down to build the wall wid."

ROOSEVELT WINS HORSE-RACE IN THE DESERT.

LUXOR, Upper Egypt, March 26.—The Roosevelt party will leave here at 7 o'clock this evening, by train for Cairo, where they are expected to arrive early on Thursday afternoon. They put in a strenuous day yesterday inspecting the temples and tombs of Thebes. Col. Roosevelt took delight in the fact that on the return across the desert on horseback, he raced the others and beat them all, in spite of weight and lack of practice.

Between Luxor and Karnak, an American mission is located, and Col. Roosevelt stopped there long enough to deliver a brief address. Later in the day he visited the German consulate and there was shown a book bearing the signatures of his father and Ralph Waldo Emerson, which were written in 1873. "This travelling business I believe," he said, "has been made the subject of some criticism. Well, I am a traveller. I got into the presidency by travelling, and I can't get over the habit."

Clothes that are Distinctive and Smart

MOST men appreciate clothes that will improve their appearance, and there's no denying the fact that our clothes are above the common.

For example, a man called here the other day—he wanted a suit for a important event—and was referred here by a person who told him that he could not procure the proper clothes any place but at BROWN'S. This man has always purchased his clothes here and knows what he is talking about.

When we sell you a suit of clothes, we don't try to force you to buy—oh, no. We look to you as a permanent customer—we know that all depends on the goods we sell you, and you can depend upon us to use you right. We won't sell you a suit unless we think it will satisfy you. Let us suit you.

THE RACE AT PINETTE.

SIR—In The Guardian of the 22nd inst, a correspondent writes of a horse race on the 12th inst on Pinette ice. If your correspondent was an eye witness to the race, I cannot understand from what motives he has written such a misleading statement. We must consider him as absolutely having no regard for the truth. A true account of the said race appeared in The Examiner of the 17th inst sent by me personally, the which I am prepared to stand by. I am prepared to prove that your informant, is wrong when he says that the fifth heat was sent off by a spectator, as the men who were appointed and acting starters have testified that they were the starters in all the heats.

Immediately after the heat was sent off my mare took the lead, and after the horses had proceeded some considerable distance, Bob J. broke, and the starters called the horse back, but as I think I know something about the rules of trotting, I kept on my course to the finish, which of course was my heat as there is no calling back after the horses are sent off. My mare came in first in the two first heats, came in third in the third heat, second in the fourth and first in the fifth which entitles me to first money, although I was only awarded third money through incompetence and ignorance of the judges. If the writer of the foregoing article of the 22nd has anything of the man about him, let him give his name. As he appears to us at present as a snake in the grass.

Alexander Ross, Garfield, March 23.

A Change of Seed Grain Always Pays

WE HAVE had grown for us in Ontario some of the leading NEWEST AND MOST PRODUCTIVE VARIETIES OF SEED OATS. Every farmer should sow at least an acre or two of these new varieties to use for seed the following year. Our Seed Oats is all imported. We do not handle a bushel of Island grown Oats, our object being to get the Seed Stock entirely changed.

We are the pioneers in the importation of Seed Oats into this Province. The 102,000 bushels exported to the West two years ago were the product of our own importations for many years. By careful selection of the best varieties, and only the best in quality, we believe we are doing a good work in the interests of the farmers of this Province.
