

The Banner of Honor and Victory.

AWARDED TO DIAMOND DYES.

By Five Continents and the Isles of the Sea.

Diamond Dyes, the only honest and perfect package dyes now before the women of the world for successful home coloring, have been awarded the banner of honor and victory by five continents and the isles of the sea, for purity, strength, brilliancy, beauty of colors and never-fading qualities.

Diamond Dyes with a record of twenty-five years of marvellous and delightful work in the homes of the world, have been imitated. The result is, that many of our women and girls have frequently been deceived by having worthless package dyes forced on them, which have proved disastrous to good materials and valuable garments.

When buying package dyes, the exercise of a little care will save our women much trouble and annoyance. Ask for DIAMOND DYES, and see that the words "DIAMOND PACKAGE DYES" appear on each envelope you are offered. Send to Wells & Richardson Co., Limited, Montreal, P. Q., for valuable book on home dyeing, and card of 48 dyed cloth samples, sent free to any address.

TUESDAY MORNING SEPTEMBER 26, 1905.

THE COST OF ELECTIONS.

The cost of elections and election trials has been put forward by Mr. Telford, M. P. for North Grey as a justification for the increased indemnity to members. There are several weak points in this defence. For instance, Senators are not troubled with either elections or election trials but they are each receiving the $2,500 indemnity. Again, the defeated candidate, who certainly has as much right to run the election as has his successful opponent, is usually required to spend quite as much in the way of legitimate expenses so called, and usually bears about the same share of the election trial, costs if there is a trial, as the man who wins the seat, but he receives no indemnity small or great. Mr. Telford says that men selected by their respective parties are practically forced to run elections, and this makes a ground for the claim to increased indemnity. But this is quite as true of the defeated as of the successful candidate, and so the argument fails.

Moreover it has been found that the cost of elections whether in so-called legal or illegal expenses, has grown with the increase of indemnity whenever such increase has been made. In the early days of confederation the average outlay at elections by both successful and unsuccessful candidates was but a fraction of what it is now. Notoriously the illegal expenditure has enormously increased. Every one now looks for a more lavish outlay than ever before by the sitting members who will seek again the people's support at the next election. Every member will find the demands upon him increased because of the fact that in the full term he will be receiving $5,000 more than members received in former years—$8,500 more than was received by members of the first Parliament. It is one of the worst features of the salary grab that it is a but thinly disguised corruption fund to enable the sitting members to secure re-election.

It cannot be claimed that the legitimate outlay in elections has at all increased in recent years. All the legitimate modes of spending money in elections existed from the beginning. Indeed some important sources of expense such as the feeding of voters on election day and the hire of teams to carry them to the polls, which were lawful in the first elections to the Commons, have since been made illegal. Yet all legitimate expenses of elections were then cheerfully borne by candidates who if elected could only receive $800 indemnity for each session. The complaint of the expense of elections can therefore refer only to the sums expended in bribery and corrupt practices. Viewed in the light of cold facts and the defence put forward by Mr. Telford we must conclude that the salary grab is intended by the sitting members to be used in large part to fortify them in their seats and to further handicap any who may attempt to oppose them at future elections. The cost of elections is about the worst defence that could be made for an altogether indefensible transaction.

Successful candidates was but a fraction of what it is now. Notoriously the illegal expenditure has enormously increased. Every one now looks for a more lavish outlay than ever before by the sitting members who will seek again the people's support at the next election. Every member will find the demands upon him increased because of the fact that in the full term he will be receiving $5,000 more than members received in former years—$8,500 more than was received by members of the first Parliament. It is one of the worst features of the salary grab that it is a but thinly disguised corruption fund to enable the sitting members to secure re-election.

AUDOBON BOY PACED MILE 1,59 1-4

The Stallion Gave a Wonderful Exhibition of Speed at Readville

READVILLE, MASS., Sept. 22.—A throng of more than 3,000 followers of harness horses who gathered at the Readville track today, saw Audobon Boy pace one of the most wonderful miles ever made, adverse conditions being considered, pacing the mile in 1:59. The weather conditions favored record time, but the rains earlier in the week had left the track a trifle heavy. The assistance of a pacemaker was useless, Audobon Boy having distanced his pacemaker before the half mile was reached. In making the mile for the record, James Gatecomb, owner of the stallion, refused to use a wind shield or have a running horse draw a cart with canvas attached between the wheels in the lead during the mile, preferring to make the attempt in the same way that Star Pointer gained the world's record of 1:50, at the Readville track seven years ago, this being the present record with the runner of pacemaker going along side.
