

Woman's Realm/Social and Personal/Fashions/Literature

Needlecraft

— FOR THE HOME —

2022
SIZES
12 - 44

MIX-MATCH MAGIC

Your Fall-Winter wardrobe needs plenty of new separates! Try this skirt — slim with a slight flare — in timely tweed or plaid . . . the high-buttoned weskit in a color blending with the collar of the skirt version in velveteen. (All in one pattern).

No. 2022 is cut in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44. Size 12 skirt, 1 1/2 yards 54-inch; weskit, 1 1/2 yards 54-inch; collared weskit, 1 yard 54-inch.

Send 25 cents for each Pattern which includes complete sewing guide. Print your Name, Address and Style Number plainly. Be sure to state size you want. Include postal unit, or zone number in your address.

Address Pattern Department, The Charlotte-Town Guardian, Pattern No. 2022

Name _____

Address _____

City _____ Province _____

Modern Etiquette

By Roberta Leo

Q. If one has just moved into a new neighborhood and some of the neighbors have paid calls, how soon should one return these calls?
A. These calls should be returned within two weeks. Failure to do so is a strong indication that the friendships are not desired.

Q. Should one address the wife of a judge as "Mrs. Judge Hoffman"?

A. No; she does not share her husband's title, and should be addressed as "Mrs. Hoffman."
Q. What would be a safe decision if a man is in doubt as to the selection of a gift for a girl?
A. Flowers are never out of place.

pastry lined pie pan and bake 10 minutes in an oven 450 degrees. Then reduce heat to 350 degrees and bake 25 to 30 minutes longer.

Cook's Corner

SWEET POTATO PIE

Plain pastry.
1 1/2 cups mashed sweet potato
3 eggs slightly beaten
1/2 cup of brown sugar well packed
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon ginger
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon allspice
1/2 cup milk
3 tablespoons sherry
2 tablespoons melted butter
Mix all the ingredients. Fill the

That Body Of Yours

By James W. Barton, M.D.

EPILEPSY CAN BE CONTROLLED EVEN WHERE A FAMILY HISTORY IS PRESENT

I write frequently about epilepsy because in my student days there was no special or specific form of treatment. All that we could do was to use the queuing drug—bromine—and protect the patient from injuring himself during an attack. I have mentioned before my own experience of keeping an epileptic patient free of attacks for many months by washing out his stomach twice a week. An epileptic found it almost impossible to find employment as he was a danger to himself and others. A pamphlet published by the National Association To Control Epilepsy, 22 East 6th St., New York, N. Y., written by Hans Hess, M. D., and Helen Clark, M. A., is "Will My Child Have Epilepsy?" Thirty years ago if this question had been put to a physician he would have been very guarded in his reply. Today the physician can give a more encouraging reply than ever before.

Epilepsy is a disorder of function of the brain in which there is altered or complete loss of consciousness accompanied by muscular movements. There need not be violent contortions of the body with a final fall to the floor or pavement. The muscular movements may consist of merely twitching the eyelids, or slight uncontrolled jerking of an arm or leg. The so-called seizure may even consist of a momentary loss of contact with surroundings, not apparent to the casual observer. The brain sends out electric waves in an orderly, regular manner, but in the epileptic this regularity of the brain is interrupted and epileptic seizures result. It is believed that these interruptions are due to sudden chemical imbalance in the brain.

As for heredity and the chance of a child becoming an epileptic, these research workers state that 44 per cent of the patients with a family history of epilepsy were admitted to the hospital compared with only 7 per cent of patients without a family history. They state further, however, that the chance of controlling epilepsy where there was a family history are excellent when diet and drugs (phenobarbital and others) treatments are properly given. This will be encouraging information to many with a family history of epilepsy.

Man vs. Nature

By F. H. MacArthur

Much has been said of late regarding man's place in nature, the general drift of the discussions on the subject being to show that man is the final product of a process of evolution which in the course of centuries has raised him from a mere speck of dust to his present position as head of the animal kingdom.

But man is only a part of the material universe, regardless of what theory may be held respecting his nature, whether it is partly material and partly spiritual, as believed by some, or wholly material as claimed by others. Science recognizes man only as a material object, a part of the great universe of matter.

That man is subject to the same laws of nature which govern other material objects is proved by the fact that water, gases and other chemical agents affect him in the same way as they affect other material objects. And does not the law of gravitation hold him to the earth in precisely the same way as it holds an ordinary stone? Man, in common with all things, is but a part of the scheme of organization; and while he is not wholly vegetable, he possesses many things in common with the lowest form of vegetable life.

In order to fully understand man's relation with the universe, we must study philosophy in its broadest meaning; that is, study nature until we understand what lies at the bottom of the foundations of all existence, animate and inanimate. When we have done this we shall understand why a lifeless stone may rightly claim kinship with mankind. We shall learn, too, that there is a common brotherhood existing between all material things. Nor will this knowledge, as some might fear, detract from the dignity of man.

(Continued on Page 13)

DOROTHY DIX SAYS -

Spoiled Brat

Miserable Girl Blames Parents For Indulging Her As Child

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: What to do with a spoiled, good-for-nothing brat? No, I haven't got one, I'm it. I have been petted and spoiled until I am of no use whatever. I am selfish, lazy, impudent. I had two years of one of the best schools in the State, but I did nothing my chance. I am not fitted to earn my own living and I can't cook or sew. I get up at noon every day and sit by the fire until bedtime. I am utterly miserable and make every one miserable around me. I am afraid to marry because I know I would ruin any man's life. When I tell my mother and father that I am their fault and that they should have disciplined me, they say I am crazy, it is no one's fault but my own. They have no use for me. What to do?
E. D. C.

ANSWER: A girl as intelligent as you are should see the answer to that question herself. Reform, and the way to reform is simply to face about and cure yourself of your faults. Fortunately for you, you are still young enough to make over your life and to make what you will of it.

You say you are selfish. Well, then, why not teach yourself to prefer to yourself? If you are lazy, don't lie in bed in the morning. Get up and go to work. Get up a job, if you can. If you can't, help your mother. If you are impudent, shut your teeth on the insolent speech that rises to your lips. Teach yourself to show consideration to your family. Break yourself of the habit of quarrelling and fault-finding.

NO GREATER CRIME

You are right in saying that the blame for what you are rests on your parents' head rather than yours. I don't believe that there is a greater crime in the world than spoiling children, for it not only wrecks the life of the child itself but of all who are brought in intimate contact with it.

Parents seem to think that if they will not discipline their children they will somehow slide through the world doing exactly as they please. Never was there a greater mistake. The discipline that father and mother did not give them with a heavy hand, and when they have learned their lesson it is too late to do them any good.

Don't let this be your unhappy fate. Save yourself while there is yet time.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: Don't you think that wives should cooperate with their husbands to the extent of permitting them to invite their business friends to dinner when they happen to drop in from a neighboring city? Some wives do not seem to realize the importance of this bit of hospitality in the progress a man is able to make in the business world. I know some who dare not invite any of their business friends to a meal because of their wives' objections.
A CONSTANT READER

ANSWER: A wife is certainly a very poor helpmeet to her husband who isn't willing to take the trouble to get up a good dinner for one of her husband's customers, and who doesn't put on her prettiest and her sweetest smile and do her best to help sell her husband to the man who may hold his future in his hands. For these little friendly contacts are of the greatest importance to a man. More sales are made over a dinner table than over a mahogany-top desk, and it is when a client is soothed and fed in a melting mood that he is most apt to lend a willing ear to a new proposition.

More than that; employers and businessmen like to size a man up against the background of his home, and nothing creates a more favorable impression than for him to have a nice, well-ordered, well-kept house with a wife at the head of it who shows she is clever and capable and a real asset to her husband.

DEAR MISS DIX: Our fathers and mothers do not allow us to go out with boys, but last weekend when they were away we had a wild petting party. We were drunk and did not know what we were doing. Please, please, tell us what to do. We dare not tell our mothers.
TWO FRIGHTENED GIRLS

ANSWER: Take your courage in both hands, girls, and go at once to your mothers and make a full confession of your folly. It is your only salvation.

Don't go to strangers for help. Don't tell your secret to other girls or to people you may find it easy to confide in. Tell it to your mothers, no matter how silly or indiscreet or wrong you have been. They will forgive you and help you.
DOROTHY DIX

DOROTHY DIX cannot reply personally to readers, but will answer problems of general interest through her column.

How Can I!!!

By Anne Ashley

Q. How can I make banana sherbet?
A. Use 2 cups of banana pulp (usually requiring about 6 bananas), 6 tablespoons of lemon juice, 1/4 cup of white corn syrup, 1/2 cup sugar, the white of 1 egg, a pinch of salt and 2 cups of water.

Q. How can I prevent train sickness?
A. This can often be prevented by eating a little ginger. The ginger gum is also effective in many cases.

Q. How can I keep starch from being blown out of the clothes when drying them on a windy day?
A. Try adding a little salt to the starch.

Morning Smile

Two men were discussing a mutual acquaintance.

"Nice fellow," said one, "but have you noticed how he always lets his friends pick up the dinner bill?"

"Yes," replied the other, "he has a terrible impediment in his reach."
BLACKHEADS

simply dissolve and disappear by this one simple, safe and sure method. Get two ounces of peroxide powder from any drug store, apply on face, wet cloth, and gently—every blackhead will be gone.

YOUR CHILDREN WILL EAT WITHOUT COAXING!

When you serve... Aylmer Catsup

A pure catsup, like Aylmer, is wholesome eating for the children, say nutritionists. For Aylmer makes it "home-style" . . . from Canada's finest, red-ripe tomatoes. Children love its "true tomato flavor" and need Vitamin C. 7c

...makes foods tastier

The Stars Say -

By Genevieve Kemble

For Saturday, October 29
IT MAY BE wise to be prepared for the sudden advent of the unusual, startling and entirely unforeseen, coming with whirlwind force and setting aside all previously anticipated plans and progress. Business, domestic, social and romantic interests are due for a complete about-face or reversal from hopes and wishes but it will be a pleasant and welcome change. It may not be easy to make adjustments to new routines or situations which may develop. Career may enjoy fresh glamor, probably in strange places.

For the Birthday
Those whose birthday it is have promise of a complete and radical change from old and static situations or conditions, with probability of thrilling and romantic adventure in the bargain. Business, professional, career and creative talents may be drastically revised, with new rules, regulations and environs. Such sudden about-face may not be easy of adjustment, and perhaps may not have the aid or approbation of higher-ups.

A child born on this day may be blessed with exceptional talents, ingenuity and skills, fitting it for an adventurous career, thrilling and romantic.

Surf gets clothes sweeter

A Lever Product
NEW WAY OF WASHING
ENDS DIRTY SOAP SCUM

"SURF-CLEAN"
Surf makes no suds, takes out any soap suds left from earlier washings! Fabrics stay bright! Washes are whiter, brighter. SWEETER . . . "Surf-clean"!

... "fresh-air-fresh" even when dried indoors!
Sparkling white . . . dazzling bright . . . isn't that how you want your wash to be?
You can have a wash that's sweeter, too. One that you know with your eyes closed is really deep-down clean—because it has that sunny, outdoor fragrance, that fresh-air-freshness even when dried indoors.
Surf gives you all this. Surf—an amazing new suds discovery—a brand-new, sweeter way of washing everything.
Yes, everything. Not only your heaviest, grasiest wash, but also your delicate washables and your household linens, bed spreads, and curtains, too. Your "Surf-clean" clothes

If it's "Surf-Clean" . . . It's really Clean

Swing TO APPETIZING MEALS PACKED WITH NUTRITION

Energy-rich BUTTER-NUT BREAD
Healthful and Satisfying always
Enjoy

Eastern Bakeries' BUTTERNUT BREAD

Better English

By D. C. Williams

1. What is wrong with this sentence? "We must first see the manager before we do it."
2. What is the correct pronunciation of "Neptune"?
3. Which one of these words is misspelled? Mistress, mattress, meanness, management.
4. What does the word "subjugated" mean?
5. What is a word beginning with si that means "vigorous; strong"?

ANSWERS
1. Omit first. 2. Pronounce the u as in use not as in rude. 3. Meanness. 4. Conquered by force. "They stood the three subjugated and sullen prisoners." 5. Sineaty.

Household Scrapbook

By Roberta Leo

Finish the neck of a dress as soon as possible so that in trying it on for fittings, the neckline will not be likely to stretch out of shape. An ill-fitting neckline will reveal the fact that the dress is homemade.

The Piano
A cloth moistened with alcohol will remove fingerprints from the finest piano finish. Rub lightly, and polish with a soft cloth.

Hot Grease
Do not pour hot grease down the drain pipe of the sink because as soon as it strikes the cold pipe it will congeal and stop it up.

A Picture Pattern

DESIGN NO. E-1109

Pattern contains photo of doily and easy to follow instructions. This 22 inch crocheted centerpiece has a pineapple center and pineapple edging.
To order: Send 20 cents in coin to Needlework Bureau, Charlotte-Town Guardian, Charlotte-Town, Design No. E-1109

Name _____
Address _____
City _____ Province _____

Fretty Feverish Baby Gets Needed Rest

There is no need to spend worried days and sleepless nights when baby is fretful, restless or feverish due to teething, constipation, stomach issues or some similar minor ailment. Baby's Own Tablets almost always give prompt relief so that the little one soon becomes restful and contented.

Admiral HITS A NEW HIGH IN VALUE!

Model SR 13
AT NEW LOW PRICE! $27.95 Mahogany
At EDISON ELECTRIC
186 Gt. Geo. St. - Phone 1760

SUFFERING WITH HEARTBURN

To get Permanent Relief, get a bottle of MORRISSEY'S STOMACH TONIC, get rid, once and for all times of that Burning Sensation in your stomach and throat.
PRICE $2.00 Per Bottle
21 DAY TREATMENT
For Sale at All Drug Stores and Drug Counters