OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY

GOING TO ST. DONET —Mr. and Mrs. Milton E. Jenkins, Mill View, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. George E. Marr of Saint John, N. B., left Sunday on a visit to St. Donet, Quebec, to visit the graves of their sons who were killed in a plane crash Oct. 20, 1943.

—FROM SHAWINIGAN FALLS —Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Agnew of the great hydro electric town of Shawinigan Falls, Quebec were interested spectators at the big fair and races on Tuesday. Mrs. Agnew was the former Eleanor O'Brien of Elmsdale. Mr. Agnew is a native of Saskatchewan. This is his first visit and he is delighted with the scenery and the comaraderie of Island folks. He is field engineer with C.P.L. Co. —K—

ON VISIT HERE — Mr. John H. Campbell of Wollaston, Mass., motored to the Island accompanied by his sister, Loretta M Campbell of Quincy, his uncle, Beecher Campbell, and wife and three daughters, Mary, Muriel and Jean. While on the Island Beecher and family are the guests of Mrs. Campbell's brother, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Godfrey and mother, Mrs. John T. Godfrey, New Wiltshire.

Three people are in the Prince County Hospital, two of them in a serious condition following a car and truck collision about 6 o'clock Saturday evening on the main highway just west of the Summerside airport road.

The injured are: Cecil Powell of Summerside the driver of the truck, Miss Betty Craft, 151 East 6th Street, Erie, Pennsylvania. Raymond Hagle, Road 6 Kuhl Route, Erie, Pennsylvania. Miss Craft is only suffering from bruises and will likely be discharged today.

Brook Glen Farm, Coldbrook, N.B., was the setting for a pretty summer wedding on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Helen Irene, only daughter of Capt. and Mrs. H.S. Hansen, was united in marriage to George Carruthers Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Walker, Summerside, P.E.I.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father looked lovely in her white embroidered nylon gown over satin, floor length with train. The bodice which was buttoned down the back had a round neckline and long sleeves ending in a point over the hand. Her full length veil was held in place with a matching headdress and she carried a cascade bouquet of peerless roses and bavardia.

Miss Lorna Raymond of Halifax was bridesmaid and was attired in a floor length gown of nile green, square neckline and bouffant skirt. She wore a crownless off-the-face hat of natural straw and carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations.

Mr. Erik Hansen, brother of the bride, supported the groom. Mrs. Jack Morse of Kentville, N.S. was the pianist.

TUESDAY

FUNERAL SERVICES — The funeral of Mr. Patrick Beagan took place yesterday morning at 8.45 from the residence of his brother, Herbert Beagan, Mt. Ryan, to the Church of the Sacred Heart, Mt. Ryan, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Louis Callaghan, who also conducted the service at the grave. The pall bearers were Messrs. Jethru Beagan, Leo J Trainor, Anthony Beagan, Joseph F. Power, Wilson MacDonald and Martin Driscoll. Burial was in Fort Augustus cemetery.

—RETURN TO OHIO — Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Dennis and their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Myers, of Warren, Ohio, left on Tuesday to return to their homes after spending a week on the Island. They were house guests of Mr. Dennis' brother, Mr. Wilbur Dennis and family and his sister, Mrs. W. B Warren and family, Margate, and visited friends in Summerside and elsewhere. Mrs. Dennis was the former Jean MacPherson of Summerside. Mr. and Mrs. Myers were married several months ago, but were actually on a honeymoon trip, postponed at the time of their marriage, due to the sudden death of Mr. Myers' mother. —Bur.

GOOD CUCUMBER CROP— Prince Edward Island's cucumber crop has begun to roll into the Matthew-Wells processing plant on the Mount Edward Road in increasing volume and by the end of the week Mr. J. R. Gordon, local manager, expects sufficient quantities will be coming in to employ a full staff. About 1,100 growers are under contract to supply their cucumber crops to Matthew-Wells' local branch plant this season. The crop will not be fully processed here but will be prepared for shipment in tank cars to the parent plant in Ontario.

REVISITS CH'TOWN — A welcome visitor to The Guardian office last evening was Mr. W. R. Turner, of Halifax, who is here as a delegate to the Knights of Pythias convention. Mr. Turner was foreman of the composing room of The Guardian from 1895 to 1900. He had previously served his trade as a printer on the old Examiner under the late Mr. W. L. Cotton. After leaving Charlottetown forty-eight years ago, he went to Halifax, where he worked for a few months on the Herald and later became mechanical superintendent of the Chronicle on which paper he served for thirty years. He is still actively employed with a private printing concern. A native of Charlottetown, Mr. Turner is looking forward to meeting many old friends and acquaintances during his present visit.

ADDRESSES ROTARY — The comparatively young profession of accounting is rapidly growing in prestige and popularity, said Rotarian R.W. Manning in his address to the Rotary Club yesterday. Before a person may become a chartered accountant, he must submit to aptitude tests, and if found suitable must complete a course of studies of five years in a university. There are twenty-four members of the Association in Prince Edward Island who serve business and industry by auditing records and business transactions, install bookkeeping systems, prepare financial statements and income tax returns. Their work is burdened with worries and troubles, but the comforting thing is, that they all belong to someone else. Rotarian Manning announced that the 1950 convention of the Canadian Association will be held in Charlottetown. Guests yesterday included, Rotarians Henry Probert, Montral, and Jack Mennie, Sydney Mines. Others were Messrs. H.A. MacLennan, Ottawa, C.W. Spiers, Toronto, E. Benjamin Rogers, Ottawa, Nelson McEwen, St. John and Frank Balcomb, Halifax. A review of the August Rotarian Magazine was given by R.H. Rogers. President Darell McGuire was chairman.

His Excellency Viscount Alexander of Tunis, Governor General of Canada, yesterday afternoon proved himself to be an adept deep sea fisherman when he accounted for over two dozen mackerel in a fishing expedition with Lieutenant Governor J. A. Bernard at North Rustico.

Under sunny skies and over placid waters His Excellency enjoyed the sport of landing some of Prince Edward Island's watery denizens. Lieutenant Governor Bernard led the way in the fine catch, but His Excellency was an apt pupil and was soon crowding the remainder of the party for top honors.

Other members of the party included Hon. Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan, Mr. James Moulder, Reading, Pa., John Pettigrew, tutor to Their Excellencies' children, W. R. Burnett and Lt.-Col. W. W. Reid, A.D.C.

The fishing craft was in charge of Capt. James C. Blacquiere and his brother Bert of North Rustico. Both young men are veterans of World War Two. Jimmie served in the Royal Canadian Air Force and Bert in the Royal Canadian Navy.

WEDNESDAY

The 62nd annual convention, Grand Lodge of the Maritime Domain, Knights of Pythias, opened in the Charlottetown Canadian Legion Home at 10 o'clock yesterday morning with Mr. George E. Saunders, Grand Chancellor, of Stellarton, N.S., presiding.

At the opening of the session Premier J. Walter Jones who was introduced to the Grand Chancellor, Grand Lodge officers and delegates by Past Grand Chancellor Harold E. MacLean, extended a hearty welcome to the visiting delegates on behalf of the Province, and wished them every success in their deliberations. George F. Warren, Past Grand Chancellor replied fittingly to the Hon. Premier's address of welcome.

In St. Paul's Memorial Chapel on Monday morning, the marriage took place of Eleanor Joyce Moore, daughter of Mrs. Charles A. Moore, to Lorne Franklin Keiser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Keiser. Rev. Canon Malone performed the ceremony and the organist was Mr. Royston Mugford.

Tall standards of gladioli formed the decorations in the chapel.

The soloist, Mr. J.B. Lewis sang "Because" during the signing of the register.

The bride was given in marriage by Mr. J. Stirling MacDonald and attended by Miss Kaye Porter as bridesmaid. The bride wore a gown of ivory satin and her finger tip veil was caught by a pointed coronet of seed pearls. Her bridal bouquet was of American Beauty roses. The bridesmaid wore a gown of pink taffeta with matching coronet and carried a bouquet of pink tea roses.

She has spent her vacation for the past two years as assistant to the director of Red Cross swimming and water safety. Miss Arsenault is a daughter of Mr. Justice A. E. Arsenault and Mrs Arsenault, Charlottetown. She will take up her new duties at Halifax on September 7th.

—VISITING HERE— Mr. William G. Gould, Sr., of Boston is visiting Summerside, his former home. He motored to Summerside with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Morrissey and their infant daughter, Ellen Beatrice. Also in the party were Mr. Morrissey's two sisters, the Misses Isabelle, a Boston school teacher, and Esther, an employee of the Federal Government there. They arrived in Summerside on Wednesday and plan to stay two weeks. Mr. Gould, Mr and Mrs. Morrissey and child are staying with Mr. Gould's niece, Mrs. Arthur Corney, Summerside. Mr. Morrissey's two sisters, who are making their first visit to the Province are registered at the Queen Hotel.—S.

—WEDDING BELLS— A quiet wedding was solemnized on Saturday morning at 11 o'clock at the residence of Rev. George Ayers when Frances Lucy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Heckbert, Summerside East, became the wife of James Beaton, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Beaton, Summerside. The bride was attractive in a powder blue suit with white and navy accessories. She was attended by Miss Ruth Beaton, sister of the groom, who was attired in a powder blue suit with white and navy accessories. Mr. Ronald Williams, Saint John, N. B., supported the groom. After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the home of the groom for the immediate relatives of the bridal party. Mr. and Mrs. Beaton left for Saint John, N. B., where they will spend their honeymoon, after which they will reside in Wilmot.—S.

The Holy Redeemer Church, Charlottetown, Aug. 4th, at 8 o'clock was the scene of a pretty wedding when Rita Eileen, daughter of Mr. John A. MacDonald, Mt. Stewart and Edward Jerome, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gillis, Indian River, were united in marriage. Rev. Fr. Mann, C.SS.R. officiated at both marriage and Nuptial Mass.

Mr. MacLean rendered the wedding march as the bride entered the church on the arm of her father by whom she was given in marriage.

The bride was charming in a gown of white chiffon and finger tip veil which fell from a tiara of crystal beads. She carried a bouquet of Talisman Roses. Her only ornament was a double strand of pearls.

The matron of honor, her sister, Mrs. Donald A. MacDonald, wore a floor length gown of turquoise blue net over satin shoulder tip veil and headdress of flowers in matching colors. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Camillus Gillis, brother of the groom was best man. Alphonsus MacDonald and Charles MacDonald, brothers of the bride acted as ushers.

—HOME ON VISIT — Mr. and Mrs. Dana L. Coulson and son, Erwin, of Springfield, Mass., were guests over the past week-end of Mr. and Mrs. John Coulson and family, Sea View. The couple last visited the Island 14 years ago, when they were accompanied by their family of four children. Mr. Coulson is a nephew of Mrs. Herbert Bernard, Long River, and a cousin, through his mother's family, of Mr. George Cotton, Kensington. In his "home town" he is prominent in municipal politics, has been councilman for eight years, a member of various committees and last year was nominated as a Republican candidate for alderman, but lost out in the finals. In business he is associated with the Bell Telephone Company. Bur.

—FROM VANCOUVER — Mr. Frank E. Woodside, Manager of British Columbia and Yukon Chamber of Mines, is at present on an extended visit to his home and brothers and sisters in Hamilton, P. E. Island. Mr. Woodside has been singularly successful in Canada's great Western province. The son of the late John H. Woodside, Hamilton, he taught school for a short time before going to Boston where he spent a short time, when he decided to follow the lure of the West. Being of large stature (6 ft. 3 in.) with a pleasing personality and gifted with an outstanding fluency of speech, he soon became famous as a champion of the rights of the common man. His popularity and prestige in Vancouver were outstanding. He was chairman of the Board of Alderman for many years, and was urged in several occasions to nominate for mayor, but refused. He also had great success in real estate business being the pioneer investor in the Eton and Clinton districts. Mr. Woodside has been in B. C. for nearly 50 years, and is thoroughly enjoying his vacation and reminiscences with old friends. —K.

—RETURN TO VANCOUVER— Mrs. James Johnston and her daughter, Mrs. John Whitehead, left on Monday to return to their homes in Vancouver, B. C., after and enjoyable visit in this Province. On the previous Friday evening they were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Johnston, Margate. Other guests, in addition to the members of the Johnston family, were Mr. and Mrs. Woodar of Manchester, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Groom of Summerside. Mrs. Woodar and Mrs. Groom are sisters of Mrs. James Johnston, who is the former Cecelia Grady of Summerside. The evening passed all too quickly with animated talk and good music, and each of the visitors received a personal gift as a momento of the occasion. Ice-cream and cake was served by Mrs. Johnston, Miss Selina Johnston and other members of the family. On Sunday, about 40 members of the Johnston and Grady families met at Cavendish Beach, to tender the visitors a farewell party. A happy afternoon was spent, with many pleasant memories recorded by camera and kodak. The event concluded fittingly with a picnic supper, and the singing of "God Be With You Till We Meet Again." Bur.

The five-weeks holiday which he and his family have spent in Prince Edward Island, and which concluded last night, has been the most enjoyable vacation they have had since 1938, Viscount Alexander of Tunis, Governor General of Canada, told a press conference aboard his special train yesterday evening.

The representatives of the press were taken aboard the train at 7 o'clock yesterday evening and were introduced to Viscount and Lady Alexander by His Excellency's honorary aide-de-camp, Lieut.-Col. W. W. Reid, D.S.O., E.D. They comprised Miss Eleanor Duffy, Charlottetown Patriot; F. P. Mahar, Summerside Pioneer; Stuart Dickson, C.F.C.Y.; J. C. Lewis, Charlottetown Guardian; J. J. Enman, Summerside Journal; Neil Mathieson, Charlottetown Patriot; Ralph Cameron, Halifax Herald; and Ed Garnhum, press photographer.

Hundreds of Charlottetown residents were on hand yesterday evening to witness the laying of the corner stone of the new Y. M. C. A. building, corner of Prince and Euston Streets, by His Excellency Viscount Alexander of Tunis, Governor General of Canada.

Drawn up in martial order when the Governor General stepped out of his car at 6.30 was a Naval Guard of Honor from H. M. C. S. Nootka, and the 17th Recce Band which immediately struck up "God Save the King". After the inspection of the Guard by His Excellency, the official party ascended the platform which was located slightly northwest of the corner stone. Including His Excellency, the party comprised His Honour Lieut.-Governor J. A. Bernard, Premier J. Walter Jones, the Hon. Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan, Leader of the Opposition, Mayor B. Earle MacDonald, Rev. Canon E. M. Malone, Hon. George DeBlois, honorary president of Charlottetown Y.M.C.A., and Mr. Frank Tinney, president Charlottetown Y.M.C.A.

Promptly at 6.35, Mr. Tinney called upon the Rev. Canon Malone to conduct the devotional service. It included the Office of Dedication, the Lord's Prayer, one stanza of "O God Our Help In Ages Past", a Scripture reading, and the closing prayer.

Mr. Tinney, in introducing His Excellency the Governor General, said Charlottetown had the distinction of having erected the first Y.M.C.A. building on the North American continent. The new building, whose corner stone he, as president, was going to ask His Excellency to now lay, would also have a record of distinction in as much as it was the first Y.M.C.A. building to be constructed this year on the North American continent.

Loud applause and much handclapping greeted His Excellency when, upon the applying of the mortar, he turned to the hundreds of spectators and said in a voice which carried clearly to the large throng, "I declare this stone well and truly laid."

Immediately the 17th Recce Band struck up "O Canada"; His Excellency snapped to attention followed by the members of the official party and the hundreds of spectators.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sullivan and little son, Joie, Malden, Mass., returned on Thursday after spending a pleasant two weeks holiday at Mrs. Sullivan's old home in Cornwall.

— MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER — The friends of Miss Wanda MacNevin surprised her on Friday evening at the home of Miss Edith Palmer, Summerside, with a miscellaneous shower previous to her marriage. To appropriate music played by Miss Ruth Toombs, the guest of honor was escorted to a decorated chair and the gifts presented in the form of a treasure trail. By following a long cord, the bride-to-be found many lovely packages located in different parts of the house. Much merriment resulted. During the evening a number of musical selections were played by Miss Lois MacDonald, after which delicious refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Miss Wilma MacNevin and Mrs. Olive Robertson. — S.

The marriage of Catherine Edna Teresa, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James P. Farmer, Kinkora, to Mr. Louis Francis Burge, son of Mr. R.L. Burge, M.L.A and Mrs. Burge, St. Peters Bay took place Wednesday morning at 8.15 A.M. at St. Dunstan's Basilica.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wilfred A. Keefe.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. M.A. Farmer, the bride wore a gown of white satin having a fitted bodice with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves ending in points over the hands and the full skirt had a slight train. The long veil of embroidered tulle was held in place by a halo of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and white carnations.

The bridesmaid, Miss Kathleen Keefe, cousin of the bride, wore a floor length gown of pink taffeta with a matching headdress and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Mr. Alban Burge, brother of the groom, was best man. The ushers were Mr. Hubert O'Hanley and Mr. Ivan Farmer, brother of the bride. The organist was Mrs. Joseph Duggan and appropriate hymns were sung by Miss Louisa Rossiter.

A reception was held at the Charlottetown Hotel where the bride's table, centred with the wedding cakes, was decorated with pink and white sweet peas.

They will reside in Montreal where Mr. Burge is a student at McGill Medical School.

Miss Elizabeth Cusack of Ottawa arrived in Charlottetown on Wednesday evening by Maritime Central Airways to spend her holidays at her home here.

ISLAND DOCTOR PASSES— The death of Doctor Phillip Hennebery occurred on August 14th in Boston, Mass. The late Dr. Hennebery was born in Morell, P. E. I., and moved to Boston about thirty-seven years ago where he made his home ever since.

WEDDING BELLS — A pretty double ring wedding was solemnized at St. Peters Church, Seven Mile Bay, August 9th., when Rev. W. V. MacDonald, united in marriage Doris Elizabeth Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Green, Albany and James Ernest Newby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Newby, Montreal. The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a floor length gown of white satin and lace and finger tip veil caught with a crown of silver sequins. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses, and baby's breath. She was attended by her sister, Miss Helen Green who wore a floor length gown of pink taffeta with sweetheart neck and fingertip veil and carried a bouquet of yellow roses and baby's breath. The groom was attended by Mr. Paul Green, brother of the bride. The church was decorated with summer flowers, Nuptial music was played by Miss Florrie Green, and hymns wer sung by Mr. Arnold McGrath. Immediately following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held at the home of the bride to fifty guests. Toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. W. V. Monaghan and responded by the groom. Seated at the table were Father W. E. Monaghan, Alberton and Father F. Cass of St. Dunstan's University. Following breakfast the happy couple left on the roon boat for Old Orchard summer resort in Maine. Prior to her marriage a shower was held at the home of the bride in Albany and a party was held in Montreal where friends of the bride presented her with lovely gifts, One being a chest of sterling silver ware from the Continental Insurance Co. of which the bride was bookkeeper. Mr. and Mrs. Newby will reside in Montreal.
